82nd
Legislative Assembly

House of Representatives
State Capitol - 900 Court Street NE
Salem, Oregon 97301

Welcome to the House!

On January 9, 2023 the House of Representatives will convene for the start of Oregon's 82nd Legislative Assembly. For over 160 years, elected representatives have gathered from all corners of the state to collaborate on issues impacting Oregonians.

Your new position is an honor that comes with many responsibilities – to your constituents, to your colleagues, and to Oregon. And along with this position comes a detailed set of rules, processes and procedures that you will need to learn in order to be effective in your role.

There will be considerable in-depth training at the beginning of session, but you likely have many initial questions about how to get started in this new position. Enclosed, you will find lots of practical information to get you started as a State Representative.

The start of session can be hectic, but you will have a lot of support to get through it. Please know that the Chief Clerk's Office is here for you if you have any questions or concerns as we prepare for the upcoming legislative session.

Sincerely,

Timothy G. Sekerak
Chief Clerk of the House

Ordering Stationery

You have an exciting new title: STATE REPRESENTATIVE! Now you need stationery to reflect your important role in shaping Oregon's future and to conduct day to day official business.

You will want business cards, letterhead, envelopes and maybe even notecards. Standard orders take approximately 4-5 business days to receive.

Please call or e-mail the Chief Clerk's office to set up a time to visit about your options and to place an order.

Sources of Funds For Your Office

Services and Supplies Account

Note: Returning members may continue to expend from their 2021-22 allocation until January 1, 2023. On January 1, 2023 the new regular session allocation, as referenced in House Rule 15.25, becomes available. There is no carry-over of unspent funds from one Legislative Assembly to the next.

Newly elected members may incur obligations for the purpose of ordering services and supplies beginning December 8, 2022. New members' staff can begin work on January 9, 2023.

SERVICES AND SUPPLIES

16.01 Services and Supplies. (1) Each member shall have an individual services and supplies account. New members are provided a $2,500 new member startup allowance. It is intended for stationary, office equipment, office supplies, office adjustments, and other one-time expenses associated with transitioning into the office. The funds may not be used for salaries, subscriptions, district phone line, rent, or ongoing expenses related to operating the office. It expires ninety days after members are sworn in.

(2) A member may obtain services and supplies necessary to conduct legislative business by submitting a requisition to personnel responsible for supplying the services or supplies. The requisition shall be signed by the member or by a person authorized by the member. The costs of requisitioned services and supplies shall be charged against the member's individual services and supplies account.

(3) Services and supplies that may be obtained under this rule include:

(a) Postage (all classes).

(b) Subscriptions to newspapers and periodicals related to the duties of a state representative until the end of the legislator's term in office.

(c) Stationery.

(d) Office supplies and consumables regularly used in office settings by members and staff to conduct legislative business. Decorative items such as artwork, frames, rugs and accessories are considered personal items and therefore not eligible.

(e) Copying.

(f) Communications with constituents, including electronic town halls (e.g. tele-town halls), in compliance with Rule 14.30.

(g) Rental expenses incurred for a town hall meeting, excluding food and beverages.

(h) Establishment and maintenance of a district office.

(i) Billings from state agencies for services and supplies.

Services and Supplies Account

(j) Reasonable travel expenses incurred by members while on official legislative business. This item does not include in-district travel. Reimbursement for a member's travel for legislative business must be preapproved by the Chief Clerk. Approval will be granted for attending meetings of organizations for which the Legislature provides dues or approves member payment of dues and for official meetings in which member participation is identified in statute and where the member has been officially appointed to the group by the Speaker. For other travel events members must submit appropriate documentation prior to travel such as a letter of invitation, agenda or completed registration form. Itemized receipts must be submitted for reimbursement upon completion of travel.

(k) Reasonable travel expenses incurred by caucus office staff, speaker's office staff, and member's personal staff while on official legislative business as authorized by the member.

(L) Any other service or supply authorized by the Speaker.

(4) Any member who exceeds his or her allowance as provided under these rules or the adopted Legislative Assembly budget will have the overage deducted from his or her personal monthly expense allowance and any additional indebtedness will be prohibited.

(5) Should a member retire, resign or be removed from office, the individual expense allowance as provided under these rules or the adopted Legislative Assembly budget shall be prorated based on length of service and, in the event an overage exists, further indebtedness shall be prohibited and the overage shall be deducted from his or her personal monthly expense allowance and any remaining indebtedness shall be billed by the Legislative Administrator and appropriate steps for collection taken. Any amount expended in excess of allocation is a debt owed to the state.

(6) All equipment, furniture, unused supplies, and stationery are the property of the Legislative Assembly and shall be returned at the end of a member's legislative service in compliance with ORS 171.136.

Services and Supplies Account

Requesting Approval for Payment from S&S Account

Members incur expenses performing the functions of their position. Some of these expenses are allowed to be reimbursed or funded through expenditures from your Services and Supplies Account defined in House Rule 16.01.

Financial Services will process authorized and approved payments and deduct those funds from the member's Services & Supplies Account each month.

The process to make an expenditure is as follows: (Note: if you have a question whether an expense is permitted or not, prior to purchase please consult with the Clerk of the House.)

- 1) Incur an expense. This creates an invoice, receipt, statement or memo of which the original is submitted for payment or reimbursement. This document becomes a public record once submitted for reimbursement.
- 2) Generate a completed Approval for Payment (AFP) form. The Chief Clerk's Office will be happy to assist you in this or you can find a blank copy of this form on the House intranet. Attach original documentation to the completed AFP and proceed to step three.
- 3) Obtain Signatures.
 - a) The Member needs to authorize their approval by their signature. The signature may appear on the AFP, the invoice, receipt, statement, or memo. Then:
 - b) The Chief Clerk needs to approve the expense and sign. Send the AFP and documents to the Chief Clerk of the House for all Representative office expenditures. Caucus offices have authorized designees for Caucus Office related expenses which do not go through the CCO.
- 4) The approved AFP and documentation is forwarded to Financial Services to be processed. A check will be issued to whomever needs to be reimbursed (e.g., member, staff, vendor).
 - a) Unless specific documents need to be mailed with the check. (Please make a note of this to Financial Services along with the request).
 - b) Checks will be hand delivered to your office during session and mailed during the interim, please make a request to Financial Services regarding any desired alternatives.

Over draws are not permitted. Please ensure you have sufficient funds in your account, and answers in advance to any questions you have, so that your office runs smoothly. Any amount expended in excess of your S&S allocation is a debt owed to the state recovered from your district interim allowance added to your state paycheck.

Please reach out to Financial Services at leg.finance@oregonlegislature.gov or 503-986-1695 for assistance with projections and analysis.

Process for Being Assigned Offices, Desks and Parking

We are excited to have you all in the building again — and in preparation for that, Tim Sekerak, the Chief Clerk, will be calling you soon take your selections for your

- Office space in the wings
- Floor desk and
- Underground parking space.

Note: As of October 2022, a final parking diagram has not been made available

This year the process will be as follows:

- Chamber desks and parking will be chosen by seniority – called in alphabetical order; and,
- Offices will be chosen by seniority called in reverse-alphabetical order.

Returning members are not required to move from their office, floor desk, or parking space unless they were appointed to their legislative seat during the previous term.

It is very important that you have your decision made when it is your turn. If you cannot be reached within a reasonable timeline the process will continue without your decision. Should you plan to leave the area and not be available via phone, please call Tim to make alternative arrangements for making your selection. This will ensure the process moves quickly and smoothly.

Tim may be calling members during evenings or on weekends.

We are hopeful to complete this entire process by mid-December in accordance with HR 17.10.

The following are just a few technology resources available to you as a State Legislator:

Telephones

Here are a few details you need to know about telephones in your Capitol office.

- Your office in the Capitol will have three telephones and two lines. All Representatives' published numbers begin with the same 8 digits: 503-986-14__ and end with the district number.
- Examples: House District #1 = (503-986-1401), HD #23 (503-986-1423).
- Only the member's office telephone will have a direct line, however all devices in the office will have access to all lines. The member's direct office number is private and unpublished.
- You may take your work phone home. You will need assistance from Information Services to do so. Call the Information Services Help Desk at 503.986.1914.
- Jabber is an application that allows us to set up a mobile client to access the phone system from your cellular device. We do not recommend that you forward your phone.
 - Removes the need for call forward
 - Direct call to you on any device
 - We can also set up Jabber clients on your Legislature or personal device.
- For In-District needs, please reach out to your IS Advisor or the IS Help Desk.
- A cellular phone and service are not provided.

If you have any questions regarding your Capitol phone, please contact the IS HelpDesk:

Technology Information

Information Services Help Desk 503-986-1914

The HelpDesk can assist you in solving technology problems, answering questions, or finding the right team member to help with basic technology needs. This includes help with setting up hybrid meetings, screen casting, application help for Office 365, fixing a printer issue, or Microsoft Teams. They can help identify information on the Intranet, such as job aids for remote access, retrieve a video clip for a floor session, etc.

Secondary — Dan Rapoza, 503-986-1215, dan.rapoza@oregonlegislature.gov

Your Engagement Team member is Steve Perez. The Engagement Team's role is to help you use available technology, advise you on equipment inventory, support application needs, ensure your user accounts are set up correctly, answer questions about third-party software, sync mobile devices, review the IS Acceptable Use Policy, security standards, and more.

Some frequently asked questions from members and staff are:

- What is my email address?
 - All members will have a Legislative email account which will be configured based on the following syntax and used by the office:
 - Rep.firstname.lastname@oregonlegislature.gov (published)
 - Members will also have a secondary account only accessible by the Member (not published)
 - firstname.lastname@oregonlegislature.gov
- Are computers available for my office? Member offices are equipped with three workstations and one printer supplied by the Legislative Assembly. Your Engagement Team member will provide you with an asset inventory when you are ready, as some offices may have purchased more equipment with district funds.
- How do I log into the Legislative network? Your Engagement Team member will walk you through logging in with your new user account and reviewing the Information Services Acceptable Use Policy.
- Will my staff have access to my files and other resources? Yes, Staff/Legislative Assistants will have their login to access Legislative resources such as shared drives and email if desired.
- What training is available? There is Optional training available for the 2023 session:
 - Optional training for OLIS (Electronic Bill Information) and Measure Tracking System (MTS) will be available. It is essential for Legislative Assistants to attend these sessions.
 - Training is also available for GovDelivery, Microsoft OneDrive, Outlook, and many more. Just contact your Engagement Team member.

- Can I use personal devices? Yes, but you won't have full functionality with all Legislative applications, and IS support for these devices is limited. Personal computer devices, smartphones, tablets, and software configurations usually require some support from Information Services (IS). Contact the Help Desk for assistance.
- Can I purchase additional equipment for my office? Purchase of additional computer equipment using state funds must be pre-approved by IS to ensure it is a supported device. Contact your Engagement Team member for assistance.
- Is there Wi-Fi available? Yes, there is Private Legislative Wi-Fi and public Wi-Fi in the Capitol that Members and the public can use to access the Internet. Some restrictions to Internet access are applied.

What information or systems do Members need to update or use?

- The Member's state webpage contains a contact section, a welcome message, biography, news and information sections, and a district map. Committee assignments is automatically populated from OLIS. To request access for yourself or staff and to obtain training materials to update specific information on your website, contact your Engagement Team member.
- Members have access to Gov Delivery for email newsletters. Contact your Engagement Team member for access and assistance in using this technology.
- Audio/Video of legislative meetings, to view active meetings, go back and review previous meetings, and create clips of meetings is available on OLIS and the Public Web Site to Members and the public.

What other resources are available?

- The Intranet is an excellent source of information for all members and staff with a wide variety of resources, including a staff directory, Legislative Branch Rules, training materials, research requests, language services requests, Forms and Policies, Technology Resources and more.
- OLIS is the Oregon Legislative Information System hosted on the Legislative website. OLIS provides detailed information on Bill, Committees, and Sessions.
- A computer lab is not available this year, but it will return in the future. For group training, reach out to your Engagement Team member.

Speaker of the House

Speaker of the House
State Capitol Building, Room H271
503-986-1200

One of the first orders of business during the organizational session will be to elect a Speaker of the House for the Assembly (two-year term). The Speaker presides over the Oregon House of Representatives and enforces all rules, laws and regulations applicable to the body – preserving order and decorum in the House chamber. The Speaker is an elected officer of the House as well as a Constitutional officer and serves at the pleasure of all 60 members of the House.

The Speaker of the House is responsible for the overall administration of the House of Representatives. Much of this work is coordinated with the Chief Clerk and the two caucus offices. Additionally, the Speaker works with the President of the Senate on branch-wide administrative and management issues (e.g. the legislative budget, building and infrastructure and other various items).

A major component of the Speaker's duties involves working with committees. This begins with appointing committee membership, including which representatives will serve as the chair and vice chair(s). It also involves referring bills to committees – once a bill is introduced in the House, the Speaker is responsible for determining which committee(s) will have purview over a bill. Finally, the Speaker's work with committees involves coordinating with chairs and committee staff to ensure the committees are properly managed and that they execute their functions appropriately.

Another component of the Speaker's duties is to make any appointments to committees, work groups, task forces, boards, commissions or similar bodies as designated by statute. This sometimes involves joint appointments with the Senate or making recommendations to the Governor for their ultimate appointment. It can also mean the appointment of a sitting legislator or of a member of the public depending on the specific statute and appointment.

Caucus Offices

House Democratic Leader
State Capitol Building, Room H295
503-986-1900

House Republican Leader
State Capitol Building, Room H395
503-986-1400

The House Democratic Leader and the House Republican Leader (often referred to as “caucus leaders”) are elected by the membership of their respective caucuses. The caucus leaders manage their respective caucus offices in an effort to provide additional services and support for the elected members of their party.

While each caucus may organize the functions of their caucus office differently there are general services that each caucus office provides. A major function of the caucus offices is policy research and legislative bill management. Policy analysts within the caucus offices help members by researching concepts, monitoring committees, working with Legislative Counsel to draft bills and amendments, and keeping them apprised of issues that arise in and out of session.

Another important function of the caucus offices is to provide support to members when it comes to constituent services (helping Oregonians navigate through issues relating to state government). Additionally, the caucus offices help the caucus leader and individual members with communications and media relations.

Finally, the caucus leaders help manage the overall administration of caucus issues such as scheduling meetings and events, offering support to caucus member staff, and assisting with whatever other issues might arise during a member’s time in office.

The Secretary of the Senate is an officer of the Senate and serves as the chief administrative officer and parliamentarian. The Secretary is elected by the 30 members of the Senate to a two-year term.

Responsibilities of the Secretary include:

- Providing expert and confidential counsel on parliamentary procedure as it pertains to the legislative process;
- Interpreting Senate rules and guiding the process of rule development and revision;
- Managing the bill-flow of all measures in possession of the Senate;
- Serving as the official custodian of all legislative measures and records of proceedings and actions of the Senate;
- Supervising all nonpartisan employees of the Senate, including the desk staff, floor staff, and Senate Lounge staff, and those engaged in the preparation, production and distribution of the daily agenda, measure histories, journals, and related publications;
- Managing special projects involved with designing and implementing automated systems for the Senate;
- Developing and leading training and orientation programs for members and staff, particularly in the context of Senate procedures;
- Presenting to and engaging with entities and persons of all ages connected to civics education;
- Providing administrative support for Senate President appointment process; and
- Overseeing the Senate's consideration and confirmation of the Governor's executive appointments.

The Secretary of the Senate's Office, as a whole, is responsible for coordinating and documenting the actions of the Senate. In accordance with Senate Rules, the Secretary of the Senate's Office prepares the daily agenda, distributes information about measures throughout session, and keeps the Senate Journal. The Secretary of the Senate's Office also manages the process of receiving executive appointments from the Governor and facilitates the Senate's consideration and confirmation of those appointments.

In addition to the tasks noted above, the office also:

- Maintains a chronological list of Oregon's Senators and the historical record of and guide to Senate members dating back to 1849;
- Manages and orders stationery and supplemental office needs for Senate members and staff;
- Schedules opening ceremonies for daily floor session; and
- Creates and maintains the Secretary of the Senate webpage and linked records including the digital journal, fact-finding mission packets, current rules and calendars, Senate action on executive appointments, and other information relevant and connected to the Oregon Senate.

House Honorary Page Program

The House Honorary Page Program is the traditional one-day page experience. This program provides students the opportunity to have a glimpse into the House processes and spend time in an actual floor session.

Oregon House, Legislative Page Program

The Oregon House Legislative Page Program will be a week-long experience for participating students focusing on the functioning of the House of Representatives and direct civics instruction. This program is an in-depth exploration of the House with advanced civics and governmental process curriculum.

Chief Clerk's Internship Program

The Chief Clerk's Internship Program will provide high school, college and university students with an immersive, in-depth learning experience like no other. Applicants will be screened by their colleges then hired through the Chief Clerk's office. Benefits will include:

- Stipend
- College coursework/credit
- Real-world experience
- Scheduled, supervised visits by college staff
- Mentoring and supervision by OHLEOO staff
- Classes specially tailored for interns
- Learning and teaching opportunities

Note: This program does not replace the current intern process employed by the Legislative Assembly or any office in the Assembly.

Getting Legislation Drafted

The Office of Legislative Counsel (LC) is your law firm and your resource for getting bills and amendments to bills prepared. Legislative rules and customs require LC to prepare all bills and amendments.

To request a bill, you simply need to contact us and explain the problem you are trying to solve and the solution to the problem that you are proposing. You do not need to supply us with statutory language; a common-sense explanation of the problem and solution is often the best way to ensure that you receive a bill that does what you want. You may also direct us to work with a lobbyist, stakeholder or outside expert in developing your bill.

The 20 attorneys at LC specialize in different subject areas, and are available to answer your questions about the state of the law and the constitutionality of proposals being considered by the Legislative Assembly. LC attorneys may provide informal legal advice or give written opinions answering your legal questions. The list of attorneys and subject-matter assignments is available here <https://www.oregonlegislature.gov/lc/Pages/LegalStaff.aspx>

LC is a nonpartisan office. All of the work we do on your behalf is confidential, though you are free to disclose that work at any time.

General information about LC is available here:

Receiving Drafted Legislation

When can I expect the draft that I requested to be delivered?

We at Legislative Counsel strive to provide drafts of measures promptly. However, we typically receive over 4,100 requests for draft measures for legislative sessions in odd-numbered years. Due to the volume of requests, we may be unable to acknowledge receipt of each request individually. However, we will send you a weekly report of the requests that we have received from you (docket report). The report will list each request by subject and will provide a docket number or "LC number" and the name of the attorney who has been assigned the responsibility for drafting the measure. Please review the report and contact us if your docket report is missing a request.

Each attorney who is assigned to draft your requested measures will strive to complete your request as soon as possible. However, we may be able to produce your draft earlier if you can provide with your request:

1. A clear statement, in person, by phone or in writing, of:
 - The problem the measure is addressing, including background and context.
 - The solution to the problem that you wish the measure to implement.
 - The barriers to achieving the goal of the measure, including statutory barriers, if known. If the measure relates to the action of an agency, barriers to achieving the goal may include the agency's reluctance to exercise its discretion under existing law or the agency's interpretation of existing law.
2. The name and a mobile number for a single contact person, if not you, who is knowledgeable about the concept, who has the authority to answer questions and who will respond quickly to questions from the drafting attorney.

If we need additional information to produce the draft, we will make every effort to contact you or the person you have designated for the needed information. However, many times the drafting deadlines do not allow us to make repeated attempts at contact or to do extensive research. Therefore, it may take us significantly longer to produce your draft, and there is a greater chance that the draft may not reflect your intent, if your request:

1. Provides only some proposed language for a measure without a detailed explanation of what the language is intended to accomplish.
2. Has not been fully developed.
3. Asks the drafting attorney to work with two or more stakeholders who have divergent or inconsistent interests.
4. Uses jargon or technical terms that are not defined in your request.

Also, there are certain types of legislative concepts that generally take us more time to capture in a draft of a measure. Those include:

1. Concepts involving big, new ideas.
2. Creating a new agency, abolishing an existing agency or transferring significant functions from one agency to another agency.
3. Extensive recommendations from a task force or work group report.
4. Model laws from a national organization or association.
5. Concepts based on laws from another state.

“At the request of...” Criteria

Chief Clerk’s Office

When a measure is submitted at the request of someone, the identification of the requester must meet the requirements of ORS 171.127 which states that requesters must be named individuals, or public or private organizations, or their representatives, or any combination thereof.

House Rules require that every measure introduced by a House policy committee or a joint policy committee bear the name of the legislator that requested the proposed measure or the name of an individual, organization, state agency, or local government on whose behalf the measure was requested, or both.

The Chief Clerk’s Office accepts names as submitted by the sponsor of the measure. The only things we attempt to fix are obvious typos, if observed. We generally do not research names or ensure they are spelled correctly.

Additionally, we do not include other information about the names. For example, we would not print anything after the comma such as “Jane Doe, concerned citizen” or “John Doe, Crook County resident”.

Individuals must be human beings, e.g. “Otis the puppy” is not allowed.

Multiple requesters from different categories are allowed and would follow the format “at the request of Jane Doe, John Doe, Crime Victims United”.

We do have overall space limitations that we ask you to be mindful of. If the sponsorship and requester lines (or any other preliminary elements of the measure such as summary and title) push the rest of the measure text far enough down the page so that the body of the measure starts on page 2, major formatting problems will ensue. In the event this does occur, Legislative Counsel will get in touch with your office to let you know and discuss how the list of requesters needs to be adjusted.

For questions on any of these items, please reach out to the Chief Clerk’s Office: chiefclerksoffice@leg.state.or.us.

FILING (DROPPING) MEASURES FOR INTRODUCTION WITH THE CHIEF CLERK'S OFFICE

1. THE DEADLINE FOR PRE-SESSION FILING MEASURES FOR THE LONG SESSION IS DECEMBER 21, 2022 AT 5:00 PM.
2. THE DEADLINE FOR PRE-SESSION FILING FOR THE SHORT SESSION WILL BE SET BY RESOLUTION AT THE END OF THE LONG SESSION.
3. Deadlines for filing measures during session are set by resolutions passed during session.
4. Only House members, a member's staff or their caucus office staff are authorized to drop the LC drafts (Legislative Concept) for their members. In the case of a committee measure, the committee staff is also authorized to drop LC's to be introduced as committee measures as signed by the chair of the committee. We prefer committee measures to be dropped by committee staff and member's measures to be dropped by member's staff.
5. Drop the LC drafts and bill backs electronically by sending a PDF version of the signed bill back along with the LC draft to the Chief Clerk of the House at tim.sekerak@oregonlegislature.gov.
6. If you are filing in person, you will need two copies of the LC and one bill back (the signature sheet) for each measure introduction.
 - Due to CAMS construction restrictions, you must call or e-mail Mandi McGowan of the Clerk's Office to arrange a time to submit these documents in person: (503) 986-1873 or mandi.mcgowan@oregonlegislature.gov.
 - LC drafts should be printed on "clean" paper (without other, unrelated text). Using "scratch" paper delays our office's filing procedures as we need to clarify and confirm that we only record text from the LC draft. Any color of paper is acceptable as long as the draft is readable. We encourage you to print using both sides of paper for drafts that are more than one page of text.
 - During pre-session filing, the second LC draft should not be attached to anything. If the unattached LC draft has multiple pages, it should have a single staple in the upper left-hand corner as you look at the front of the LC draft.
 - Do not use paperclips, or other style of clip, on any of the drafts or bill backs. Do not hole-punch the drafts or bill backs.
7. Make sure to indicate, by checking one of the boxes on the top of the bill back, what type of bill it is: Member, Committee or Statewide Elected Official.
8. A House introduction must have a House member listed first. Senators cannot introduce House measures. Type or legibly print the chief sponsor or filer's name, and any additional sponsor names, then obtain a signature right above the typed or printed name(s).
9. Remember to fill in your contact at the bottom of the bill back. Type or legibly print the contact person's name and telephone number at the bottom of the bill back. This portion must be filled out or the draft / bill back will not be accepted.

Important: The LC draft has a number and a date associated with that version of the draft. The bill back also has the same draft number and date on the upper left-hand corner of it. The LC draft number and date must match the number and date on the bill back to be accepted. The is to ensure that members are submitting or signing on to the same version of the bill. Once an LC is submitted to the Clerk's Office, the contents of the measure become public information and the LC cannot be withdrawn or returned to you.

MEASURE

Measure, defined:

A written document used by the Legislative Assembly to propose a law or to express itself as a body. A measure may be a bill, a memorial, or a resolution.

SIX TYPES OF MEASURES

Bill: A measure that creates new law, amends or repeals existing law, appropriates money, prescribes fees, transfers functions from one agency to another, provides penalties, or takes other action.

Joint Memorial: A measure adopted by both houses and used to make a request of or to express an opinion to Congress, the President of the United States, or both. It is not used to commemorate the dead.

Joint Resolution: A measure used for proposing constitutional amendments, creating interim committees, giving direction to a state agency, expressing legislative approval of action taken by someone else, or authorizing a kind of temporary action to be taken. A joint resolution may also authorize expenditures out of the legislative expense appropriations.

Concurrent Resolution: A measure affecting actions or procedures of both houses of the Legislature. A concurrent resolution is used to express sympathy, commendation, or to commemorate the dead.

Resolution: A measure used by the House or the Senate (a measure used by both would be a joint resolution) to take an action that would affect only its own members, such as appointing a committee of its members, or expressing an opinion or sentiment on a matter of public interest.

Memorial: A measure adopted by either the House or the Senate (a measure adopted by both is a joint memorial) to make a request of or express an opinion to Congress or the President of the United States, or both. It is not used to commemorate the dead. (See Concurrent Resolution)

The Daily House Agenda

The daily House Agenda is a schedule of the day's business on the floor of the House. This business is conducted in a specific format, known as "orders of business," in accordance with House Rules.

They are listed as follows:

(1) CALL TO ORDER

The Speaker will drop the gavel once to call the House to order.

A member will be assigned to lead the flag salute each day. The Speaker will drop the gavel three times to signal the membership to stand.

(2) OPENING CEREMONY

After the flag salute, the Speaker will announce the opening ceremony. If there is a prayer, the membership and visitors will remain standing, however, if a special opening ceremony is scheduled, the Speaker will drop the gavel one time to signal the membership to be seated.

Members may make arrangements with the Clerk's office to schedule an opening ceremony. The rules allow for a prayer or an opening ceremony (school groups, vocalists, musicians, readings, etc.). They need to be brief, less than 2 minutes for prayer, and 3 minutes for a performance. Members of the legislature are encouraged to personally present an invocation or opening.

(3) COURTESIES

The order of business "Courtesies" provides an opportunity for members to recognize guests from their individual districts and/or other special guests. Members are limited to one courtesy each day which may be no longer than 60 seconds in length. Yields are not permitted during Courtesies.

In addition, the Speaker will announce some special guests from the rostrum prior to recognizing individual members. These include the honorary pages (additional information follows) and special visiting groups from around the state. To be recognized for courtesies press the "To Speak" button which places your name on the Speakers queue. Once recognized, stand and address the Speaker by stating into the microphone:

"Mr./Madam Speaker, Members, I would like to welcome...."

When introducing a guest with access to the floor or side aisle, a member should not indicate any issue the guest supports or opposes. Guests on the floor should not wear or display visible indications supporting or opposing an issue or legislation.

A request to return to the order of business of Courtesies shall be out of order until all other orders of the day have been completed.

(4) VERIFICATION OF QUORUM

The Constitution requires a quorum of all elected members of the House (40) be present in order to conduct official business. The Speaker will instruct the Clerk to open the voting system to determine the presence of a quorum. Members shall press the "yea" button to record their attendance.

Excused (out of the Capitol):

To be excused from House floor session, members are asked to file an Excused Absence Request Form at least 48 hours in advance with the Chief Clerk (forms are available in the Clerk's Office or online via the Legislative Intranet).

Excused for Business of the House (in the Capitol)

While the House is in session, members may occasionally need to be Excused for Business of the House; no form is required for this. There are many reasons members may need to leave the chamber during session but not leave the building: a committee may meet (with approval of the Speaker), or a Senator or the Governor may request an urgent meeting, etc. When these situations arise, please check-in (and out) with the Chief Clerk each time you exit the chamber and upon your return. This will ensure that you are reflected as "Excused for House Business" as opposed to "Absent" on any votes while you are away. This also ensures the House always has a quorum; and assists us in locating you if a Call of the House is invoked.

(5) MESSAGES FROM GOVERNOR

This order of business allows for messages from the Governor to be read. They include bills signed, vetoed, or bills allowed to become law without Governor's signature as well as special proclamations.

(6) MESSAGES FROM SENATE

The House and Senate formally communicate with each other by messages. Measures are transmitted from one house to the other by a message, which explains what action has been taken. In some messages, one house may ask the other to take further action, such as concur in an amendment or (this action is taken up under Propositions and Motions).

Measures are transmitted at the end of each session day to the other house, unless a "notice of intent to reconsider" is given prior to adjournment that day.

The House may read messages at any time a quorum is present.

(7) FIRST READING: MEMORIALS AND RESOLUTIONS

All measures are read first time for introduction in the House. A "First Reading List" (Green Sheet) will be distributed to the members electronically which lists all measures scheduled for first reading that day.

The Speaker will announce the order of business and the Reading Clerk will read each measure by number and title in compliance with Article IV, Section 19 of the Oregon Constitution. After the readings are complete the Speaker will announce referral to the Speaker's desk for purpose of referral to appropriate committee.

Note: The Speaker has seven calendar days to refer measures to committee. Usually the Speaker will refer measures the next session day after first reading. If you have a measure you would like to recommend for referral, it is important that you contact the Speaker's office immediately after its first reading.

(8) COMMITTEE REPORTS

As committees report measures to the Clerk's office (Desk) after taking action, the recommendations are recorded on the "Committee Report File" (Blue Sheet). By rule, measures that are reported out of committee are scheduled on the committee report for second and third reading.

This Committee Report will be distributed to members electronically; all analyses of the bills will be available on OLIS.

The Speaker will announce from the rostrum when a Committee Report File has been distributed.

(9) PROPOSITIONS AND MOTIONS

The order of business Propositions and Motions is used for the consideration of messages as received by the Governor or the Senate, special reports, and special motions, including but not limited to:

- Reconsideration
- Senate Amendments
- Conference Committee Reports
- Committee and Minority Reports
- Vetoed Measures by the Governor
- House Rule Amendments

As a courtesy, the Clerk prepares a script using the proper language for these motions and places them on your chamber desk prior to daily session. If you need assistance with any scripts, please see the Chief Clerk.

(10) FIRST READING OF HOUSE BILLS

Same as First Reading: Memorials and Resolutions

(11) SECOND READING OF HOUSE BILLS:

Bills are read second time, again meeting the requirement that all bills must have three separate readings. The Reading Clerk will read the bill number and title only. No action may be taken under Second Reading.

(12) CONSENT CALENDAR

This is the final reading of a measure and the order of business when the vote is called for immediately after the Reading Clerk has read the measure number, title and Short Summary.

Measures scheduled under this order of business are not subject to debate. They must have been reported out of committee unanimously and the committee must have recommended they be placed on the Consent Calendar.

If four objections signed by members of the House are received at the Desk within the two-day period after the measure appears on the Committee Report File, the measure will be removed from the Consent Calendar and placed in its proper order on the Third Reading Calendar for the next session day. The measure may also be removed by order of the Speaker.

(13) THIRD READING OF HOUSE BILLS

This is the final reading of a bill and the order of business under which the vote is recorded.

After the Reading Clerk has read the bill (or the number and title if Article IV, Section 19 of the Oregon Constitution has been suspended), the Speaker will recognize the "Carrier of the Bill." The Carrier has 10 minutes to present the bill.

The Speaker will then ask if there is further debate.

Members wishing to speak on the bill need to press their "To Speak" button at their desk; this will automatically place their name in the "queue." If the key is depressed again, it will remove their name from the "queue."

Members may yield their time to another member (5 minutes) but may no longer speak on the measure since their time has been forfeited.

If a member should have a question, it must be asked prior to speaking to the bill.

Once recognized by the Speaker, they should state: "Mr./Madam. Speaker, will the Representative from _____ yield to a question?"

The Speaker will then ask the representative if they yield to the question and they will agree or not agree to receive it.

Again, the Speaker will recognize the inquiring member for the question.

This process is repeated for each question that is asked.

After the questions are answered, the member may then speak to the bill.

If a member should want to make a motion, it must be placed prior to speaking to the bill. The following motions are acceptable under the consideration of bills:

- to lay on the table
- previous question (to close debate)
- to make special order of business or to postpone to a certain day and time
- to refer or re-refer to committee
- to postpone indefinitely

It is recommended to check with leadership prior to making any of these motions. Upon request, the Clerk will provide a script for any of these motions.

After the debate has concluded or the previous question has been called for and adopted, the Carrier has the option to close (10 minutes). No member may yield during the close.

The Speaker will then place the question and direct the Clerk to open the voting system.

Members have 30 seconds to cast their votes from their desks or as otherwise directed by House Rule.

After the system is closed, the members' vote count will appear on the reader boards.

If a member has not voted, the Speaker will request their vote by asking: "Representative (Name), how do you vote?" The member must respond verbally with a "yea" or "nay." The Clerk will record this vote at the Dais console.

After all votes are recorded, the Speaker will announce the outcome.

Note: Members must be "within the bar" prior to the vote closing (30 seconds) in order to cast their vote, otherwise they will be recorded as "absent." If a member needs to leave the chamber during session, they must notify the Clerk prior to leaving. This is extremely important, especially late in the session, when the question of a quorum becomes a critical matter.

By rule, measures cannot be amended on the floor. All amendments must be proposed in committee.

(14) FINAL READING: MEMORIALS AND RESOLUTIONS

Same as Third Reading of House Bills

(15) BILLS, REPORTS AND OTHER BUSINESS LYING ON TABLE

This order of business equates to an announcement only.

(16) FIRST READING OF SENATE BILLS

Same as First Reading of House Bills

(17) SECOND READING OF SENATE BILLS

Same as Second Reading of House Bills

(18) THIRD READING OF SENATE BILLS

Same as Third Reading of House Bills

(19) OTHER BUSINESS OF THE HOUSE

This order of business is used to announce the following:

- Distribution of any proposed amendments to the House Rules. The proposed amendments are then referred by the Speaker to the Committee on Rules.
- Vote changes
- Any other unfinished business

(20) ORDERS OF THE DAY HAVE BEEN COMPLETED

This is an announcement only.

(21) ANNOUNCEMENTS

This order of business is used for the announcement of caucus meetings, committee meetings, and any special events.

(22) REMONSTRANCES

Remonstrances allow a member to make a statement in protest (House Rule 1.01) -- no member may speak for longer than three minutes or for a second time, or yield time to another member. The motives or integrity of any member of the House or the Senate shall not be impugned (House Rule 4.01).

(23) ADJOURNMENT

The Speaker will recognize the Dean of the House (most senior member) to place the adjournment motion.

How to Get Excused

1) Excused (out of the Capitol):

To be excused to be out of the building for all or a portion of a House floor session, please file an Excused Absence Request Form at least 48 hours in advance with the Chief Clerk (forms are available in the Clerk's Office). A properly filed request will, by rule, be presumed approved unless otherwise notified by the Speaker.

- Sample Excused Form (out of the Capitol) -

REQUEST FOR EXCUSED ABSENCE FROM HOUSE SESSION
DATE OF ABSENCE _____	PHONE _____
NAME OF REPRESENTATIVE _____
REASON FOR EXCUSED ABSENCE _____

SIGNATURE OF REPRESENTATIVE _____
DATE _____
(All absences are presumed excused unless the Speaker's Office contacts you and requires your attendance)
(Please file with the Chief Clerk 2 days (48 hours) before absence occurs)

2) Excused for Business of the House (in the Capitol):

When the House is in session you will occasionally need to be Excused for Business of the House (no form is required for this). There are many reasons you may need to leave the chamber during session: A committee may meet (with approval of the Speaker); meeting with your Senator or the Governor. When these situations arise, please check-in (and out) with the Chief Clerk each time you exit the chamber and upon your return. This will ensure that you are reflected as "Excused for House Business" as opposed to "Absent" on any votes while you are away. This also ensures the House always has a quorum; and assists us in locating you if a Call of the House is invoked.

House Rule 3.03 declares that members must be present at all sessions of the House unless they have been excused by the presiding officer.

Biometric Voting

The House chamber is equipped with four Biometric (finger print) voting stations. Two stations flank the double doors at the back of the chamber; the other two stations are located opposite each other on the inside of the wood pillar adjacent to the North and South side aisles at the rear of the chamber. These Biometric readers have proven to be a safe and convenient way for members to vote and the Oregon House is one of the only legislative houses in the United States to utilize this technology for voting.

Important:

Please note, if you choose to use the Biometrics you are still responsible to verify that your vote is recorded properly. We encourage you to always stay on the House floor to visually verify that your vote was accurately recorded on the voting boards.

These Biometric voting stations are a voluntary tool that can be used to vote on all questions (recorded votes), as well as to record your presence during attendance (Quorum Calls & Calls of the House).

In order to participate in this voting option, set up is required.

Please reach out to the Chief Clerk's Office at 503-986-1870 or chiefclerksoffice@leg.state.or.us.

Essential House Chamber Protocols

The following pages contain important information about specific protocols that are upheld by the House Sergeant-At-Arms in the House chamber.

What is the chamber, exactly?

The House chamber is comprised of several areas each with their own slightly different set of rules and protocols.

The House floor is the area in the chamber that contains the members' desks and rostrum and that is enclosed by the waist-high partitions on the north and south and the walls at the front and back of the room. The partitions are referred to as "the bar" and being on the floor is sometimes referred to as being "within the bar."

The side-aisles are also within the chamber. These are the seating/walking areas along the north and south perimeters of the floor area. These areas are accessed by doors which will be closed and monitored by doorkeepers during the protocol period. The side-aisles are used as seating areas for authorized persons during the floor session. Often it is necessary to reserve seats in these areas for your dignitaries and special guests, please contact the Chief Clerk's Office to make these arrangements.

The Gallery is also within the chamber. The gallery is the 3rd floor public seating area forming a U-shape around the House floor below. The gallery is public seating on a first come-first served basis.

The "Protocol Period"

The "protocol period" extends 30 minutes before and after each floor session of the body. The major visual cue for you to know we are in this period of time is that the side aisle and ceremonial double doors at the back of the House Chamber are closed and "in session" signs are posted outside the doors. During this protocol period, all House rules are in force, just as when the House is in active session.

Camera Use (including Social Media) in the Oregon House Chamber

By Representatives, staff, guests, and media

Due to CAMS construction, these services may look different or no longer be offered for portions of the 2023-2024 Biennium.

While in session, including the protocol period

ONLY Representatives may take pictures (no flash, please!) inside the bar, while in session.

Staff, guests, and journalists may take pictures from 3 areas in the House Chamber, all of which are outside the bar.

the south side-aisle (on 2nd floor);
the north side-aisle (on 2nd floor) and the north gallery (on 3rd floor).

General rules for all areas...

NO flash, strobe or supplemental lighting,

NO blocking of the view of others.

NO blockage of exits and walkways with tripods/equipment.

Specifics of camera usage by area:

South side-aisle, hand-held cameras only.

North side-aisle, hand-held and monopod.

North gallery (3rd floor), hand-held, monopod, and tripod.

Notes to legislative assistants:

It would be helpful for you to go over these guidelines with your Representative's guests beforehand, especially the "no flash" rule.

If session is over, but the ceremonial doors are still closed (the protocol period) and your member wants to have pictures taken with visiting constituents on the floor, check with the Chief Clerk or the House Sgt-at-Arms. If it is determined that the picture-taking is not disruptive to others in the Chamber, it MAY be allowed...but only if requested.

A special exception for accredited commercial broadcast television on the North side-aisle:

During session, one (and only one) tripod TV camera may be used on the North aisle at a time.

No special lighting, no blockage of other's views, no blockage of exits and walkways. The various television stations will have to work out rotation times among themselves in the event of multiple requests.

Please direct any questions concerning these customs and practices to your House Sergeant-at-Arms, 503-986-1883.

Admission to the House Chamber While in Session

Due to CAMS construction, these services may look different or no longer be offered for portions of the 2023-2024 Biennium.

House Rule 17.01 Floor Privileges.

(1) When the House is in session, no person shall be permitted within the bar except:

- (a) Members of the Legislative Assembly;
- (b) Floor personnel of the House;
- (c) One of the following individuals, seated at a member's desk:
 - (i) One individual from the member's personal staff employed under Rule 15.10 or receiving credit in the intern program;
 - (ii) A member of the staff of a House standing committee, statutory committee, special committee or the caucus offices; or
 - (iii) A family member;
- (d) Speaker and caucus staff;
- (e) Persons authorized by the Speaker; and
- (f) Accredited representatives of the news media.

(2) Courtesies of the house and floor privileges may be extended only to special dignitaries and former members of the Legislative Assembly with permission of the body. However, courtesies shall not be extended to any former member who is registered as a lobbyist with the Oregon Governmental Ethics Commission.

(3) Seating in the side aisles beyond the bar shall be reserved for the families and guests of members and such other persons as may be authorized by the Speaker. However, the privilege shall not be granted to any person actively engaged in seeking the passage or defeat of any measure. An exception may be granted to members of families that have spoken in support of a memorial or resolution in their honor.

(4) While the House is in session, the center aisle of the floor shall be kept clear of all persons except legislators and the Chief Clerk or someone acting under the Chief Clerk's direction in conduct of the business of the House. Access to the chamber while the House is in session shall be by the side doors and side aisles.

(5) During the period beginning thirty minutes before the opening of each session and ending thirty minutes after the session, no person shall be permitted in the House chamber except those authorized to be in the chamber under this rule.

(6) No person who is a lobbyist as defined in ORS 171.725 shall be permitted on the House floor or the adjacent side aisles while the House is in session.

(7) The Sergeant at Arms shall enforce these rules.

NOTE:

House Rule provides that the House dress code shall be "contemporary business attire." On the floor, this applies to everyone, including honorary pages, staff, family, and dignitaries. An exception is made for opening ceremonies participants.

All non-legislators, including guests, staff and family members, may not wear or display visible indications of advocacy on any issue or measure while on the floor or side-aisle during session.

Every doorkeeper/page must ask every unknown person to identify themselves prior to entering the chamber and side-aisles while in session, including protocol period 30 minutes before and after floor session, in order to determine how to apply the above rules.

Movement on the House Floor While in Session

During floor sessions, including the protocol period, that part of the House chamber which includes the center aisle and the space between the podium and the members' desks (the "T") is for members' use only. Staff, guests, and family of members (with limited exceptions) are not allowed in the "T" during session, including 30 minutes before and after.

To approach a member's desk, support and floor staff must enter from a side aisle gate and proceed to the back of the chamber, then proceed up the row to their destination. (See diagram below)

Staff, guests and family seated at a member's desk should remain seated at that desk while any members are speaking on their side of the chamber.

If a Representative is addressing the body, ONLY other Representatives and Senators (not staffers) may enter or leave the that side of the floor. If a member on one side has a "question to the carrier" and the carrier of the bill is on the other side, both sides are closed to staff entering/leaving.

Opening Ceremonies

Due to CAMS construction, these services may look different or no longer be offered for portions of the 2023-2024 Biennium.

As a representative, you have the privilege of inviting guests to attend and open floor sessions of the House with a brief ceremony (4 minutes or less). Opening ceremonies have long been a cherished tradition and are a way to celebrate the many cultures, faiths and beliefs that are represented in the House. Here are four examples of events that would qualify as an opening ceremony:

1. Invocation/Prayer
2. Performance (either singing, dancing or a musical performance)
3. Inspirational Reading (most often a poem)
4. Presentation of Colors (flag salute/Honor Guard)

Please note that a Presentation of Colors may occur in conjunction with another opening event, such as a prayer. This is made possible due to the presentation of colors being tied to the flag salute/pledge of allegiance which immediately precedes the Opening Ceremony “order of business.”

Another very important note is that each of the above guests must be sponsored by a Representative, but is not required to reside in that Representative’s district. This sponsorship provides a vehicle for responsibility/accountability of opening guests. If something controversial occurs, other members will be looking to the sponsor of the guest to answer. The measures that we take to avoid such controversy are to ask all of your guests to review and comply with the Opening Ceremonies Guidelines, a document created by the Chief Clerk’s Office in consultation with the House Speaker’s Office.

Once you have invited your guest – or guests – please contact (or have them contact) Sarah Curry in the Chief Clerk’s office directly: She will schedule a date based upon the opening ceremonies calendar as well as manage all of the ensuing details, such as rehearsal and parking. Occasionally, interest by a group or guest is expressed to the Chief Clerk’s Office directly as opposed to the guest’s sponsor (Representative); in that case, the Chief Clerk’s Office will reach out to the group or guest’s Representative and inquire about their willingness to sponsor.

Opening Ceremonies Guidelines

Thank you for your interest in participating in the proceedings of the Oregon State House of Representatives. Opening Ceremonies of the House are a time-honored tradition where the House takes a moment to recognize the talents of Oregonians and the various cultural aspects of our shared state. In order to facilitate your participation and to ensure the orderly conduct of business before the House, we ask that you be mindful of and adhere to the following:

- 1) The House Opening Ceremony is not meant for proselytizing or persuasion, it is a time to provide for contemplation, inspiration and/or reflection. Please do not use this opportunity to advocate your political views or policy interests.
- 2) When providing a prayer or conducting a religious ceremony, asking or expecting others to join is inappropriate in this setting.
- 3) The members of the House, their staff, and the citizens of Oregon whom they serve, hold a wide variety of beliefs and viewpoints. You are addressing everyone, and we ask that you be respectful to followers of all faiths and to those who profess no religious faith.
- 4) The Opening Ceremony may also be a reading of poetry limited to two minutes in duration or a musical performance limited to four minutes in duration.
- 5) Due to CAMS construction, space on the House floor is limited and large groups may not always be accommodated. Your flexibility is appreciated.

During CAMS construction, the Capitol Mall Patrol Office of the Oregon State Police is located in the CAMS construction yard and in the galleria section of the Capitol. Contact them with issues relating to personal safety, loss, damage of property, to report any suspicious activities, or other public safety concerns.

Evacuation and Alarm

In the event of an emergency that requires the immediate evacuation of the building, the fire alarm bell will be used to signal an evacuation. The alarm may be activated by any of the red pull stations located throughout the building.

Our Informacast notification system will also send out information to the building. You can opt in to receive notifications on your personal device. The instructions can be found here: <http://intranet/jobaids/InformaCast%20Opt%20In.pdf>. Contact Information Services (503-986-1914) for assistance.

All building occupants and employees are required to leave the building immediately, using stairway escape routes and proceed to Willamette University campus, south of the Capitol.

DO NOT use elevators to evacuate the building.

DO NOT exit the building through the underground parking area.

Emergency Procedures

SUSPICIOUS PERSONS/OBJECTS

When you receive a bomb threat...

By Phone:

- 1) Remain calm – WRITE DOWN WHAT CALLER IS SAYING or COMPLETE BOMB CHECKLIST (Exhibit H)
- 2) DO NOT OFFER RESISTANCE. As far as possible, go through the motions of meeting demands.
- 3) DO NOT HANG UP. Keep on the line until the caller agrees to end the call, or threat of injury or death to building occupants is imminent.
 - a. After call, notify State Police 503-375-3555
 - b. Notify Administrator’s office of emergency 6-1848
 - c. Notify Facilities of the emergency 6-1360

Verbal Threats:

- 1) DO NOT OFFER RESISTANCE. As far as possible, go through the motions of meeting demands.
- 2) Description – get a good mental picture of the person, clothes, speech, etc.
- 3) As soon as possible – call State Police 503-375-3555
- 4) Notify Facilities of the emergency 6-1360
- 5) Notify Administrator’s office of emergency 6-1848

Written Threats:

- 1) Remain calm – DO NOT CONFRONT INDIVIDUAL.
- 2) DO NOT OFFER RESISTANCE. As far as possible, go through the motions of meeting demands.
- 3) After interaction, notify State Police at 503-375-3555
- 4) Notify Facilities of the emergency at 6-1360
- 5) Notify Administrator’s office of the emergency at 6-1848

IF A SUSPICIOUS OBJECT (POSSIBLE BOMB) IS FOUND:

- 1) DO NOT TOUCH IT. Evacuate the area immediately and notify the State Police at 503-375-3555
- 2) Provide Details:
 - a. Exact location of the object
 - b. Size of the object
 - c. Type of container or wrappings
 - d. Any sound coming from the object
- 3) If possible, leave all doors in bomb area open. This will help reduce damage by relieving pressure if an explosion occurs.
- 4) Attempt to clear the area of people if possible.

FIRE

If you discover a fire in the Capitol, activate the nearest fire alarm pull station.

Then do as many of the following as time and safety allow.

- 1) Call 911 to report the fire.
- 2) Evacuate the building at the nearest safe exit and report to your prescribed gathering area.

If you are in the Capitol and hear the fire alarm sound,

- 1) Immediately exit the building at the nearest safe exit and report to your gathering area.
- 2) Check in with your Blue Vest Safety Monitor.
- 3) Await further instruction by the Blue Vest Safety Monitor.
- 4) DO NOT RE-ENTER THE CAPITOL UNLESS INSTRUCTED TO DO SO BY YOUR BLUE VEST SAFETY MONITOR OR THE INCIDENT COMMANDER. FINAL DETERMINATION TO RE-ENTER THE CAPITOL RESIDES WITH THE INCIDENT COMMANDER AND FIRST RESPONDERS.

EARTHQUAKE

- DO NOT EVACUATE
- DUCK, COVER AND HOLD under tables or desks.
- KEEP AWAY FROM WINDOWS, FILING CABINETS, BOOKCASES
- KEEP CALM AND AWAIT EMERGENCY INSTRUCTIONS by area monitors or security.
- If during the earthquake the fire alarm is activated DO NOT EVACUATE until directed to do so.
- OUTDOORS - move to an open area

MEDICAL EMERGENCY / FIRST AID

In the event that you are experiencing a serious medical emergency or in the vicinity of someone else experiencing a serious medical emergency, do the following:

- 1) Report to the nearest phone and dial 911¹.
- 2) Attempt to relay as much information to the operator as possible, such as:
 - a. What is happening to the person?
 - b. Can they breathe?
 - c. Can they speak?
 - d. Can they physically move?
 - e. What symptoms are they experiencing?
 - f. Where in the building are they located?
- 3) Notify Facility Services of the emergency at 6-1360, and provide them the same information that was provided to first responders in step one.
- 4) Unless imminent danger to life and/or safety exist, DO NOT ATTEMPT TO MOVE THE PERSON.
- 5) Clear the area of bystanders and allow room for Facility Services personnel and first responders to work in the area.

The location of Automatic External Defibrillators (AEDs) can be found in Exhibit O of the Emergency Action Plan on the legislative intranet.

Although not required, it is often beneficial to write down any notes regarding the situation. When recording any information about the event, attempt to track the following:

- 1) Where and when did the event happen?
- 2) Who was experiencing a medical emergency? If unknown, describe what they looked like.
- 3) Brief description of the event and how it unfolded.
- 4) What symptoms were they experiencing?
- 5) Was any dialogue exchanged? If so, what?
- 6) What actions did you take?

¹ If you are experiencing a medical emergency, it is the policy of Legislative Administration to contact professional medical personnel by calling 911. Legislative Administration does not endorse or promote the use of personal transport during a perceived or actual medical emergency.

POWER/UTILITY FAILURE

In the event that power is shut off to the Capitol, do the following:

- 1) Unless the area is unsafe, remain in the area you are at the time of the power shutdown.
- 2) Do not move throughout the building unless instructed to do so by your Blue Vest Safety Monitor or other emergency response personnel.
- 3) Remain calm and await further instruction by your department manager via cell phone or email.

The State Police are aware of what this indicates and will respond accordingly.

It would be advisable to work through this scenario with your coworkers before a crisis occurs and decide on a plan of action.

Oregon State Police

Capitol Mall Patrol Office

Oregon State Police (503) 375-3555

The Oregon State Police is committed to providing safety to the people and the buildings located in the Capitol Mall. The Oregon State Police relies on each individual to be aware of safety and security concerns. State Employees and Citizens are encouraged to report any suspicious activities.

"All that is necessary for the triumph of evil is that good men do nothing."
~ Edmund Burke

These include:

- Medical Emergencies
- Vandalism
- Thefts
- Unruly customers
- Threats to employees or state agencies
- Found property
- Suspicious vehicles
- Mentally ill persons
- Transients who refuse to leave

Depending on the complaint, an Oregon State Police Trooper will determine if any Law Enforcement action is required. In many cases, the Trooper's presence may be the only action necessary and may prevent a further escalation of the problem. It is always better to be safe.

The Oregon State Police Northern Command Center is staffed 24 hours - 7 days a week by trained police dispatchers. The Oregon State Police is directing that all requests for service related calls on the Capitol Mall and for the Oregon State Capitol be directed to our Northern Command Center.

Committee Reports: A one-page report filed with the Chief Clerk and Secretary of the Senate and made to the Speaker of the House or President of the Senate by a standing, special, or conference committee, which 'reports' the measure out of that committee's possession and recommends further action on a measure, or reports the measure without recommendation.

Concurrence: Agreement by one chamber to a proposal or action taken by the other chamber.

Concurrent Resolution: A measure affecting actions or procedures of both houses of the Legislative Assembly. A concurrent resolution is used to express sympathy, commendation, or to commemorate the dead.

Conference Committee: A committee usually consisting of two or three members of each house, appointed by their respective presiding officers. A conference committee is appointed when one house refuses to concur with amendments to a measure adopted by the other house. Its goal is to prepare a version of the measure acceptable to both houses.

Confirmation: Approval of a Governor's appointment by the Senate, requiring that a constitutional majority (16) of the members approve the appointment.

Conflict: A conflict occurs when two or more measures amend or repeal the same section of law, and the changes cannot be blended, even if the measures do not conflict in purpose. The Oregon Constitution allows the compilation of more than one amendment unless the amendments conflict in purpose. If conflicting amendments become law, the measure last signed by the Governor prevails. Also see conflict amendment.

Conflict Amendment: An amendment drafted for the purpose of resolving conflicts between two or more measures.

Conflict of Interest: An action that could be expected to have a financial impact on the official, his or her business, or the person's relative. Representatives only, House Rule 3.21 Announcement of Conflict of Interest. (1) When involved in an actual or potential conflict of interest, as defined by ORS 244.20, a member shall announce, on the floor or in the committee meeting, the nature of the actual or potential conflict prior to voting on the issue giving rise to the conflict. (2) The member shall file in writing a statement of the nature of the actual or potential conflict with the Chief Clerk or the committee assistant by 5:00p.m. the next business day following the vote on the measure.

Consent Calendar: In the House of Representatives, measures reported out of committee unanimously may be placed on the Consent Calendar at the recommendation of the committee. Such measures must be held at the Desk for two days prior to being scheduled for consideration. If four written objections are received, signed by members of the House, the measure is placed in its proper order on the daily calendar; the Speaker also may remove a measure from the Consent Calendar. Measures scheduled on the Consent Calendar are not debatable.

Constituent: A citizen residing within the district of a legislator (or other elected official).

Constitutional Majority: A majority of the membership in the Oregon Legislative Assembly: 31 votes in the House of Representatives and 16 votes in the Senate. See extraordinary votes.

Continuously Appropriated: Monies received by an agency other than from the General Fund that are deposited into a fund or account for specified uses by the agency. The amount of money that the agency can spend from the continuously appropriated fund or account is restricted by the Legislature through the budget process in the form of an expenditure limitation.

Convene: To officially begin a meeting of a legislative body.

Current Service Level: An estimate, required by law, of the cost to continue current legislatively approved programs at their current levels. The essential budget level is built on the base budget plus essential packages.

District: A geographical area designated for representation by a Representative or Senator. Legislative districts are drawn to ensure that a nearly equal number of constituents reside in each legislator's district, and are re-drawn by the Legislature every ten years to accurately reflect changes in population. Each larger Senate district contains two equally-populated House districts.

Do Pass: The recommendation by a committee for passage of a measure, abbreviated "DP." "DPA" means "do pass with amendments."

Drop: Refers to submitting a committee report to the appropriate Desk after a measure passes out of committee, as in "I dropped the bill at the Desk at 2:00 p.m."

Effective Date: When a bill goes in to effect. "Except as otherwise provided in the Act, an Act of the Legislative Assembly takes effect on January 1 of the year after passage of the Act." Some bills contain a clause that specifies a particular effective date; others may have emergency, sunset, or referendum clauses attached.

Emergency Board: The joint committee of Representatives and Senators that meets during the interim periods to address state fiscal and budgetary matters.

Emergency Clause: A statement added to the end of a measure that causes the Act to become effective before the accustomed date (on January 1 of the year after passage of the Act). An emergency clause either sets a specific date or is effective immediately, which means that the measure will take effect on the date it is signed into law.

Employee Services: The non-partisan unit of Legislative Administration (LA) that manages personnel, payroll, and recruitments for the Legislative Branch.

Engrossed Bill: A measure that is printed with its amendments included.

Enrolled Measures: A final copy of a measure that passed or was adopted by both houses (except HR, HM, SR & SM) of the Legislative Assembly and has been specially reprinted in preparation for the signatures of the Speaker of the House and President of the Senate, the Chief Clerk (House measures only) or the Secretary of the Senate (Senate measures only). Enrolled bills then go to the Governor for approval (signature) or veto (no signature). A bill shall become law if the Governor's allotted time to sign or veto a bill elapses. All measures are filed with the Secretary of States signature.

Executive Branch: The branch of state government that carries out and enforces state laws. It includes state agencies and the Governor's Office, Secretary of State, State Treasurer, Superintendent of Public Instruction, and Commissioner of Bureau of Labor and Industries. The other two branches of government are the legislative and judicial.

Exhibit: Anything submitted for the record that supplements a witness' oral testimony. An exhibit can also be a copy of a witness' oral testimony.

Expenditure Limitation: A spending limit set by the Legislative Assembly directing state agencies as to the level of Other Funds, Lottery Funds, or Federal Funds they can spend in a biennium. If an agency receives more Other Funds or Federal Funds than the Legislature approved them to spend, they must obtain an increase in their expenditure limitation from the Legislature or the Emergency Board in order to spend the revenue.

Extraordinary Votes: The Constitution requires that bills raising revenue receive 3/5 majority for passage. Revenue raising bills must originate in the House. The Constitution requires that bills reducing criminal sentences, as approved by the people, requires a 2/3 majority vote for passage. Constitutional revisions also require a 2/3 vote for adoption.

Recess: A break in a daily legislative session. A committee may also recess for a period of time before resuming later in the same day.

Reconsideration: The process for taking a second vote on a measure. A motion to reconsider must carry before a second vote can be taken. A bill may be reconsidered by a committee after being voted out of committee, if it has not yet been dropped at the Desk. A vote on a bill may also be reconsidered on the floor.

Redistricting: The redrawing of legislative and congressional district boundaries following the federal census to reflect changes in population distribution. In Oregon, the Legislature is responsible for Congressional and Legislative redistricting. If the Legislature does not agree on a redistricting bill or does not obtain the Governor's signature on such a bill, the authority transfers to the Secretary of State.

Referendum: The submission of a measure passed by the Legislature to a vote of the people. In Oregon, either the Legislature or citizens, by petition, may cause a measure passed by the Legislature to be placed on the ballot for a vote. In the case of a legislative referral, both houses of the Legislature must vote to refer the measure. Such referrals cannot be vetoed by the Governor. In the case of a citizen referendum, supporters of the referendum must obtain a specified number of signatures from registered voters. The number of signatures required is determined by a fixed percentage of the votes cast for all candidates for governor at the general election preceding the filing of the petition. Any change to the Oregon Constitution passed by the Legislature requires referral to voters. See also: Initiative.

Referendum Clause: A clause added to the end of a measure that causes the measure to be referred to a vote of the people for approval before it takes effect. The referred measure goes on the ballot at the next general election unless the Legislative Assembly calls a special election for the vote.

Refer: To direct a bill to a committee (e.g., HB 2000 was referred to the Ways and Means Committee).

Relating-to Clause: The title of a bill begins with the phrase "Relating to" and expresses the subject of that bill. For example, HB 2000, relating to charter schools. In Oregon, a bill may only address one subject, and for this reason the relating-to clause becomes an important element of the bill.

Remonstrance: A protest. It is a Constitutional right of legislators that "any member of either house shall have the right to protest, and have his protest, with his reasons for dissent, entered on the journal." (Oregon Constitution, Article IV, Section 26).

Report Out: To return a measure from a committee to the House or House Desk with or without recommendation as to further action.

Resolution: A measure used by the House or Senate (a measure used by both would be a joint resolution) to take an action that would affect only its own members, such as appointing a committee of its members, or expressing an opinion or sentiment on a matter of public interest.

Revenue Impact Statement: An analysis of a bill done by the Legislative Revenue Office that identifies any potential state or local revenue changes that might result from the bill's passage.

Roll Call: A recitation by the Reading Clerk of each legislator's name, done at the beginning of a floor session, during a Call of the House or Senate to identify those present, or during a vote of the House or Senate. The House employs the electronic voting system for opening roll calls and calls of the House.

Rules: The written procedures by which the House of Representatives, Senate, or a committee governs its meetings. Rules are formally adopted at the first convening of the Legislative Assembly or of a committee, and require a vote (with at least a quorum of members present) for official adoption.

Second Reading: This order of business is to give notice that the measure/bill will be up for a vote the following session day. Like the First Reading, a recitation of the measure's number and title by the Reading Clerk. Second Reading occurs after the measure has been referred to committee, worked on, and reported back to the floor for a vote.

Secretary of the Senate: The chief administrative officer of the Senate. The Secretary of the Senate is elected by the members of the Senate, and is responsible for keeping records of the proceedings of the Senate, supervising Senate employees, acting as parliamentarian of the Senate, advising members on parliamentary procedure, and preparing all Senate publications for printing.

Senate: The legislative body consisting of 30 members, called Senators, each representing districts of approximately 127,702 Oregon citizens.

Sergeant at Arms: Staff appointed by each house to maintain order within that Chamber.

Session: The period of time in which the Legislative Assembly officially convenes. Regular sessions convene each year and may last 160 calendar days in odd-numbered years and 35 calendar days in even-numbered years.

Session Laws: Officially called the "Oregon Laws," the session laws are a compilation of laws enacted and selected memorials and resolutions adopted during a single session. They are published in bound volumes with tables and an index.

Sine Die: "Without fixing a day for a future meeting"--the last day of a Legislative Session.

Speaker of the House: The presiding officer of the House of Representatives, elected by the members of the House.

Speaker Pro Tempore: Speaker "for a time": a Representative elected to serve as the temporary presiding officer in the absence of the Speaker of the House. If the office of the Speaker of the House of Representatives becomes vacant, the Speaker Pro Tempore becomes the Speaker until a new Speaker is elected.

Special (select) committee: A committee authorized by House or Senate Rules to study a limited subject.

Special Session: A convening of the Legislative Assembly called by the Governor or a majority of the members of the Legislative Assembly, at a time other than during a regular session. Typically, special sessions of the Legislative Assembly are called for the purpose of addressing a specific state problem or issue.

Sponsor: The legislator(s), state agency, or legislative committee that introduces a measure. The name of this person or committee is printed at the top of the measure.

Staff Measure Summary: A brief, impartial description of a measure that must accompany the measure when it is reported out of committee.

Standing Committee: A permanent committee during a session authorized by House or Senate Rules.

Status Report: See Measure Status Report.

Statute: A codified law. (NOTE: "Codify" means "to arrange laws systematically." A codified law is one that has been incorporated into that section of the ORS that it amends, modifies, or accompanies.)

Statutory Committee: A legislative committee established by statute.

Subcommittee: A subordinate committee composed of members appointed by the chair (or by House or Senate leadership) from the full committee. A subcommittee usually considers a narrower range of topics than the full committee, and generally is authorized only to make recommendations to the full committee.

Subsequent Referral: When the Speaker or President designates a bill to go to two committees, one after the other (e.g., a tax measure might first be referred to a committee to consider the substantive issues, and then to the Revenue Committee to consider the revenue issues).

Substitute Measure: A measure submitted by a standing committee as a substitute for a measure referred to it. It is treated in the same manner as an amendment if it is germane to the title and subject of the original measure.

Summary: The measure summary or digest found printed near the top of a bill.

Sunset Clause: A statement added to the end of a measure which causes the act to "sunset," or become ineffective, after a certain date.

Table: "Table" is used as both a noun and a verb. Tables, n., are found at the back of the calendars, and display legislative information in a variety of ways. Table, v., is used in reference to stopping bills from further action in committees or on the floor. A bill is tabled by a majority vote, after a non-debatable motion from a member.

Task Force: A legislative committee authorized by legislative leadership to study a specific subject for a specified period of time. A task force may contain lay members and is different from a committee in that it typically considers a narrow subject within a broader topic area; for example a task force might consider mental health in Oregon rather than health issues in Oregon.

Third Reading: As in First or Second Readings, a recitation of a measure's number and title by the Reading Clerk on the floor before a final vote by either Chamber.

Time Certain: A means of designating a definite time for a certain activity, for example, to hear a particular bill.

Unfunded Mandate: A requirement that a lower level of government provides a program or performs an activity with their own resources. Under a federal mandate, the federal government may require a state or local government to provide a service and not provide the federal funding to pay for it. Under a state mandate, the state may require a local government to provide a service, but under the Oregon Constitution, the local government is not required to comply with certain new state mandates unless the state pays the costs of the new services. The Constitution provides exceptions.

Veto: An action by the Governor in disapproval of a measure that has passed both houses. After a veto, the bill is returned to the house of origin with written objections. A Governor's veto may be considered by both houses, and if the bill is again passed by two-thirds of the members present, it is considered overridden and becomes law. Bills vetoed following adjournment Sine Die must be considered at the very next Legislative Session following the veto.

Vice-Chair: A committee member chosen by the Speaker or President to serve as the committee chair in the chair's absence.

Visitor Services: The non-partisan unit of the Legislative Administration (LA) which provides Capitol tours and video presentations on the legislative process and Capitol history. They also schedule and coordinate special events in the Capitol and operate the Capitol Gift Shop.

Vote Explanation: On occasion, legislators may wish the official record to reflect the reason why they voted yes or no on particular bill. A member may submit a written vote explanation. A written vote explanation is found in the Journal, following the vote record of a bill.

Whip: A term used at the federal level to refer to the Deputy Majority Leader. It derives from the British fox-hunting term "whipper-in," which described the person responsible for keeping the foxhounds from leaving the pack. Some, but not all, of the caucuses in the Oregon Legislative Assembly use the term "whip" in reference to the Deputy Majority or Minority Leader.

Witness: A person who testifies before a legislative committee.

Work Session: A committee meeting held for the purpose of determining the contents of a measure to be reported out of committee. A work session is different from a public hearing. In a work session, testimony is usually not taken from the public, although the public may attend the hearing.
