SECTION 5. ORS 163A.130 is amended to read:

163A.130. (1) A person required to report as a sex offender under ORS 163A.025 (1)(a) or (1)(b), or required to report as a sex offender under the laws of another state as a result of an adjudication in an Oregon juvenile court, may file a petition for an order relieving the person of the obligation to report. The person must pay the filing fee established under ORS 21.135.

If the person resides:

(a) A Class A or Class B felony sex crime if committed by an adult, the petition may be filed no sooner than two years after the termination of juvenile court jurisdiction over the person or, if the person is placed under the jurisdiction of the Psychiatric Security Review Board, no sooner than two years after the person is discharged from the jurisdiction of the board.

(b) A Class C felony sex crime if committed by an adult, the petition may be filed no sooner than 30 days before the termination of juvenile court jurisdiction over the person or, if the person is placed under the jurisdiction of the Psychiatric Security Review Board, no sooner than 30 days before the person is discharged from the jurisdiction of the board.

(3)(a) The juvenile court in which a petition under this section is filed may transfer the matter to the juvenile court of the county that last supervised the person if the court determines that the convenience of the parties, the victim and witnesses require the transfer.

(b) The juvenile court has exclusive original jurisdiction in any proceeding under this section.

(c) The person, the district attorney and the juvenile department are parties to a hearing on a petition filed under this section.

(4) The person filing the petition has the burden of proving by clear and convincing evidence that the person is rehabilitated and does not pose a threat to the safety of the public. In determining whether the person has met the burden of proof, the juvenile court may consider but need not be limited to considering:

(a) The extent and impact of any physical or emotional injury to the victim;

(b) The nature of the act that subjected the person to the obligation of reporting as a sex offender;

- 2 (B) Reports and recommendations from the providers of the treatment;
- 3 (C) The person's compliance with court, board or supervision require-
- 4 ments regarding treatment; and 17 admissible under ORS 40.010 to 40.210 and 40.310 to 40.585 if the evidence is 18 relevant to the determination and findings required under this section. As 19 used in this subsection, "relevant evidence" has the meaning given that term

 20 in ORS 40.150.

21 (6) When a petition is filed under this section, the state has the right to 22 have a psychosexual evaluation of the person conducted. The state shall file
 23 notice with the juvenile court of its intention to have the person evaluated.
 24 If the person objects to the evaluator chosen by the state, the juvenile court
 25 for good cause shown may direct the state to select a different evaluator.

26 (7) As soon as practicable after a petition has been filed under this sec-
 27 tion, the district attorney or juvenile department shall make a reasonable
 28 effort to notify the victim of the crime that the person has filed a petition
 29 seeking relief under this section and, if the victim has requested, to inform
 30 the victim of the date, time and place of a hearing on the petition in advance
 31 of the hearing.

(8)(a) When a petition filed under this section is filed:

(A) While the person is under the jurisdiction of the juvenile court or the Psychiatric Security Review Board or less than three years after the date the jurisdiction is terminated, the court shall hold a hearing no sooner than 60 days and no later than 120 days after the date of filing.

(B) Three years or more after the date the juvenile court or board jurisdiction is terminated, the court shall hold a hearing no sooner than 90 days and no later than 150 days after the date of filing.

(b) Notwithstanding paragraph (a) of this subsection, upon a showing of good cause, the court may extend the period of time in which a hearing on the petition must be held.

(9)(a) When the person proves by clear and convincing evidence that the person is rehabilitated and does not pose a threat to the safety of the public, the court shall grant the petition.

(b) Notwithstanding paragraph (a) of this subsection, the court may not grant a petition filed under this section before the date the juvenile court or board jurisdiction over the person is terminated.

(10) When a juvenile court enters an order relieving a person of the requirement to report under ORS 163A.025, the person shall send a certified copy of the juvenile court order to the Department of State Police.

(11) If a person commits an act that could be charged as a sex crime listed in ORS 137.707 and the person is 15, 16 or 17 years of age at the time the act is committed, the state and the person may stipulate that the person may not petition for relief under this section as part of an agreement that the person be subject to the jurisdiction of the juvenile court rather than being prosecuted as an adult under ORS 137.707.

(12) When a petition is filed under subsection (2)(b) of this section before the termination of juvenile court or board jurisdiction, if the person, or the parent or guardian of the person if the person is less than 18 years of age, requests counsel and is without sufficient financial means to employ suitable counsel to represent the person, for purposes of the petition described in this section, the court shall appoint suitable counsel to represent the person. Appointment of counsel under this subsection is subject to ORS 419C.200, 419C.203, 419C.206 and 419C.209.

SECTION 6. ORS 163A.135 is amended to read:

163A.135. (1) Except as provided in subsection (7) of this section, a person required to report under ORS 163A.025 [(1)(b)] (1)(c) may file a petition in the juvenile court for an order relieving the person of the duty to report. The person must pay the filing fee established under ORS 21.135. If the person resides:

(a) In this state and is required to report under ORS 163A.025 (2) or (3), the petition must be filed in the juvenile court of the county in which the person resides.

(b) In another state and is required to report under ORS 163A.025 (4), the petition must be filed in the juvenile court of the county in which the person attends school or works.

(2) If the act giving rise to the obligation to report would constitute:

(a) A Class A or Class B felony sex crime if committed in this state by an adult, the petition may be filed no sooner than two years after the termination of the other United States court's jurisdiction over the person.

(b) A Class C felony sex crime if committed in this state by an adult, the petition may be filed no sooner than 30 days before the termination of the other United States court's jurisdiction over the person.

(3) The person filing the petition must submit with the petition all releases and waivers necessary to allow the district attorney for the county in which the petition is filed to obtain the following documents from the jurisdiction in which the person was adjudicated for the act for which reporting is required:

- (a) The juvenile court petition;
- (b) The dispositional report to the court;
- (c) The order of adjudication or jurisdiction;
- (d) Any other relevant court documents;

1 (e) The police report relating to the act for which reporting is required;

2 (f) The order terminating jurisdiction for the act for which reporting is
3 required; and

4 (g) The evaluation and treatment records or reports of the person that
5 are related to the act for which reporting is required.

6 (4) A person filing a petition under this section has the burden of proving 7 by clear and convincing evidence that the person is rehabilitated and does
8 not pose a threat to the safety of the public.

9 (5) Unless the court finds good cause for a continuance, the court shall
10 hold a hearing on the petition no sooner than 90 days and no later than 150
11 days after the date the petition is filed.

12 (6) If a person who files a petition under this section is required to report
13 as a sex offender for having committed an act that if committed in this state
14 could have subjected the person to prosecution as an adult under ORS
15 137.707, the court may not grant the petition notwithstanding the fact that 16 the person has met the burden of proof established in subsection (4) of this
17 section unless the court determines that to do so is in the interest of public
18 safety.

19 (7) This section does not apply to a person who is required to register as 20 a sex offender for life in the jurisdiction in which the offense occurred.

21 (8) In a hearing under this section, the court may receive testimony, re-
22 ports and other evidence without regard to whether the evidence is admissi-
23 ble under ORS 40.010 to 40.210 and 40.310 to 40.585 if the evidence is relevant
24 to the determination and findings required under this section. As used in this
25 subsection, "relevant evidence" has the meaning given that term in ORS 26 40.150.

27 (9) If the court is satisfied by clear and convincing evidence that the 28 person is rehabilitated and that the person does not pose a threat to the 29 safety of the public, the court shall enter an order relieving the person of 30 the duty to report. When the court enters an order under this subsection, the 31 person shall send a certified copy of the court order to the Department of

1 State Police.

2 SECTION 7. ORS 419A.255, as amended by section 11, chapter 417,
