Representative Greg Barreto Named Oregon House Republican Deputy Leader

Cove Representative To Play Key Role In 2017 Legislative Session

Salem, Ore. - Cove Representative Greg Barreto has been elected by his colleagues to serve as the Deputy Leader for the Oregon House Republican caucus. Rep. Barreto, who will be sworn in for his second term as a member of the Oregon House in 2017, previously served the caucus as an Assistant Leader.

“I’m honored to have the opportunity to serve House Republicans and my constituents in this new role,” said Rep. Barreto. “I look forward to working with Leader McLane, House Republicans and our colleagues on the other side of the aisle to deliver results for Oregonians in 2017 and beyond.”

In addition to his new role as Deputy Leader, Rep. Barreto serves as a member of the House Agriculture and Natural Resources Committee, House Business and Labor Committee and the House Education Committee. As the State Representative for House District 58, Rep. Barreto serves constituents in Wallowa County and Union County, as well as portions of Umatilla County.
