RECOVERY FROM ESTATES

416.310 Estate of deceased person liable for aid received; relatives not relieved from obligation of support. (1) Except as otherwise provided by ORS 413.200, the estate of every deceased person who received aid from the state or any county or whose burial expenses have been paid by the state or any county, other than aid received as old-age assistance or pursuant to ORS 418.040, 444.120 or 444.220, is liable for the actual cost of such aid so rendered or the actual expenses of such burial. The state or the county shall have a just and valid claim against such estate therefor.

(2) Nothing in this section relieves the parents, children, brothers or sisters of any poor person from their obligation to support such person, or prevents the county court from recovering for such support.

(3) Nothing in this section authorizes the recovery of the amount of any aid from the estate or surviving spouse of a recipient to the extent that the need for aid resulted from a crime committed against the recipient. [Formerly 411.480; 1985 c.522 §5; 1993 c.249 §6]

416.320 Manner of approval and payment of county claims against estate. All claims of the type mentioned in ORS 416.310 shall be itemized and verified by the county clerk and presented by the county clerk to the administrator or executor of the estate; except that the claims shall be verified by the county accountant in counties having a county accountant authorized by ORS chapter 210. The claims shall be approved and paid by the administrator or executor in the manner and in the order of preference provided by law for approval and payment of claims and charges against estates of deceased persons. [Formerly 411.490; 1983 c.310 §19]

416.340 Collection of claim against estate of deceased; waiver of claim. (1) With respect to any claim which the Department of Human Services may have against the estate of a deceased person, the Department of Human Services may, subject to such terms as it may prescribe in any such case:

(a) Secure payment of such claim in whole or in part by the acceptance of assignments, conveyances, notes, mortgages and other transfers of property or interests therein.

(b) Waive such claim to the extent that the Department of Human Services finds that the enforcement thereof would tend to defeat the purpose of the public assistance laws.

(2) To the extent that the need for aid resulted from a crime committed against the recipient, a claim for recovery of the amount of such aid defeats the purpose of the public assistance laws. [1963 c.114 §2; 1985 c.522 §6]

PARENTAL RESPONSIBILITY FOR DEPENDENT CHILDREN

416.400 Definitions for ORS 416.400 to 416.470. As used in ORS 416.400 to 416.470, unless the context requires otherwise:

(1) "Administrator" has the meaning given that term in ORS 25.010.

(2) "Court" shall mean any circuit court of this state and any court in another state having jurisdiction to determine the liability of persons for the support of another person.

(3) "Court order" means any judgment, decree or order of any Oregon court that orders payment of a set or determinable amount of support money by the subject parent and does not include an order or decree in any proceeding in which the court did not order support.

(4) "Department" means the Department of Human Services of this state or its equivalent in any other state from which a written request for establishment or enforcement of a support obligation is received under ORS 416.415. When support is sought for a youth offender in the physical or legal custody of the Oregon Youth Authority, "department" includes the Oregon Youth Authority.

(5) "Dependent child" means any person under the age of 18 who is not otherwise emancipated, self-supporting, married or a member of the Armed Forces of the United States. "Dependent child" also means a child attending school as defined in ORS 107.108.

(6) "Office" means the office of the Division of Child Support or the office of the district attorney.

(7) "Parent" means the natural or adoptive father or mother of a dependent child or youth offender. "Parent" also means stepparent when such person has an obligation to support a dependent child pursuant to ORS 109.053.

(8) "Past support" means the amount of child support that could have been ordered and accumulated as arrears against a parent for the benefit of a child for any period of time during which the child was not supported by the parent and for which period no support order was in effect.

(9) "Public assistance" means any money payments made by the department which are paid to or for the benefit of any dependent child or youth offender, including but not limited to payments made so that food, shelter, medical care, clothing, transportation or other necessary goods, services or items may be provided, and payments made in compensation for the provision of such necessities.

(10) "Youth offender" has the meaning given that term in ORS 419A.004. [1979 c.421 §1; 1985 c.567 §1; 1985 c.671 §30; 1987 c.161 §1; 1989 c.519 §3; 1989 c.812 §11; 1995 c.343 §43; 1995 c.422 §131v; 1995 c.514 §8; 1997 c.704 §59; 1999 c.735 §20; 2001 c.455 §21]

416.405 Policy. It is the public policy of this state that dependent children shall be maintained, as much as possible, from the resources of both of the parents, thereby relieving or avoiding, at least in part, the burden often borne by single parents or by the general citizenry through public assistance programs. The existing remedies pertaining to family desertion and nonsupport of dependent children are to be augmented by the additional remedies provided in ORS 416.400 to 416.470 which are directed to the real and personal property resources of the responsible parents. These additional remedies are not in lieu of existing law. ORS 416.400 to 416.470 shall be liberally construed and administered to implement the policy stated in this section. [1979 c.421 §2; 1985 c.671 §31]

416.407 Parties to support proceedings; notice. (1) In any proceeding under ORS 416.400 to 416.470, the following are parties and shall be given notice of any such proceeding by the administrator:

(a) The State of Oregon.

(b) An obligee who has physical custody of a child for whose benefit a support order or an order establishing paternity is sought, is being modified or is being enforced under this chapter. Notice may be given the obligee by regular mail.

(c) A noncustodial parent or a male who is alleged to be the father of a child when an action is initiated under this chapter to establish, modify or enforce a support or paternity order.

(d) A person joined as a party under subsection (2) of this section.

(2) Pursuant to administrative rule, a party may join a person who has physical custody of a child to a proceeding under ORS 416.400 to 416.470. [1993 c.596 §31; 1999 c.836 §2]

416.410 [1979 c.421 §3; 1985 c.671 §32; 1991 c.520 §4; repealed by 1995 c.514 §14]

416.415 Notice and finding of financial responsibility; contents; service; hearing; order. (1)(a) At any time after the Department of Human Services is assigned support rights, a public assistance payment is made, an application for enforcement services under ORS 25.080 is made by an individual who is not a recipient of public assistance or a written request for enforcement of a support obligation is received from the state agency of another state responsible for administering the federal child support enforcement program, the administrator may, if there is no court order, issue a notice and finding of financial responsibility. Such notice shall be served upon the parent in the manner prescribed for service of summons in a civil action, or by certified mail, return receipt requested. Notices which involve the establishment of paternity must be served by personal service. All notices may be personally served by the administrator on the premises of the offices of the administrator.

(b) The administrator shall serve the notice and finding issued under this section upon the obligee. Service shall be by regular mail.

(2) The notice shall include:

(a) A statement of the name of the caretaker relative or agency and the name of the dependent child for whom support is to be paid;

(b) A statement of the monthly support for which the parent shall be responsible;

(c) A statement of the past support for which the parent shall be responsible;

(d) A statement that the parent may be required to provide health care coverage for the dependent child whenever such coverage is available to the parent at a reasonable cost;

(e) A statement that if the parent or the obligee desires to discuss the amount of support or health care coverage that the parent should be required to pay or provide, the parent or the obligee may contact the office which sent the notice and request a negotiation conference. If no agreement is reached on the monthly support to be paid, the administrator may issue a new notice and finding of financial responsibility, which may be sent to the parent and to the obligee by regular mail addressed to the parent's and to the obligee's last-known address, or if applicable, the parent's or the obligee's attorney's last-known address;

(f) A statement that if the parent or the obligee objects to all or any part of the notice and finding of financial responsibility, then the parent or the obligee must send to the office issuing the notice, within 20 days of the date of service, a written response which sets forth any objections and requests a hearing. In those cases where the administrator is seeking to establish paternity, then the alleged parent and the obligee will have 30 days to respond instead of 20 days;

(g) A statement that if such a timely response is received by the appropriate office, either the parent or the obligee or both shall have the right to a hearing; and that if no timely written response is received, the administrator may enter an order in accordance with the notice and finding of financial responsibility;

(h) A statement that as soon as the order is entered, the property of the parent is subject to collection action, including but not limited to, wage withholding, garnishment and liens and execution thereon;

(i) A reference to ORS 416.400 to 416.470;

(j) A statement that both the parent and the obligee are responsible for notifying the office of any change of address or employment;

(k) A statement that if the parent has any questions, the parent should telephone or visit the appropriate office or consult an attorney; and

(L) Such other information as the administrator finds appropriate.

(3) If the paternity of the dependent child has not been legally established, the notice and finding of financial responsibility shall also include:

(a) An allegation that the person is the parent of the dependent child;

(b) The name of the child's other parent;

(c) The child's date of birth;

(d) The probable time or period of time during which conception took place; and

(e) A statement that if the alleged parent or the obligee does not timely send to the office issuing the notice a written response which denies paternity and requests a hearing, then the administrator, without further notice to the alleged parent, or to the obligee, may enter an order which declares and establishes the alleged parent as the legal parent of the child.

(4) The statement of monthly future support required under subsection (2)(b) and the statement of past support required under subsection (2)(c) of this section are to be computed as follows:

(a) If there is sufficient information available concerning the parent's financial and living situation, the formula provided for in ORS 25.275 and 25.280 shall be used; or

(b) If there is insufficient information available to use the formula, an allegation of ability to pay shall be the basis of the statement.

(5) The parent or alleged parent and the obligee shall have time to request a hearing as outlined in subsection (2)(f) of this section. The time limits may be extended by the administrator and are nonjurisdictional.

(6) If a timely written response setting forth objections and requesting a hearing is received by the appropriate office, a hearing shall be held pursuant to ORS 416.427.

(7) If no timely written response and request for hearing is received by the appropriate office, the administrator may enter an order in accordance with the notice, and shall include in that order:

(a) If the paternity of the dependent child is established by the order, a declaration of that fact;

- (f) A statement that the property of the parent is subject to collection action, including but not limited to, wage withholding, garnishment and liens and execution thereon.

(8) The parent and the obligee shall be sent a copy of the order by regular mail addressed to the last-known address of each of the parties or if applicable, to the last-known address of an attorney of record for a party. The order is final, and action by the administrator to enforce and collect upon the order, including arrearages, may be taken from the date of issuance of the order.

(9) The provisions of ORS 107.108 apply to an order entered under this section for the support of a child attending school. [1979 c.421 §4; 1985 c.671 §33; 1989 c.566 §1; 1989 c.811 §7; 1993 c.596 §32; 1995 c.514 §9; 1997 c.704 §62]

416.417 When order of support contingent on child residing in state financed or supported residence. An order for support entered pursuant to ORS 416.400 to 416.470 for a child in the care and custody of the Department of Human Services, or a youth offender or other offender in the legal or physical custody of the Oregon Youth Authority, may be made contingent upon the child, youth offender or other offender residing in a state financed or supported residence, shelter or other facility or institution. A certificate signed by the Director of Human Services, the Administrator of the Division of Child Support or the Director of the Oregon Youth Authority shall be sufficient to establish such periods of residence and to satisfy the order for periods of nonresidence. A hearing to contest the period of nonresidency or failure to satisfy shall be held pursuant to ORS 416.435. [1985 c.610 §8; 1989 c.519 §4; 1995 c.422 §131w; 1999 c.213 §3]

416.419 Tribunals for establishment of paternity or for child support order. (1) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (2) of this section, the administrator may act as the tribunal described in ORS 110.304 in the establishment of paternity or of a child support order, or in the modification or enforcement of a child support order.

(2)(a) When a hearing is requested pursuant to ORS 416.427, the tribunal is the Employment Department, except as provided in ORS 416.430.

(b) When an order is appealed pursuant to ORS 416.427 (6), the tribunal is a circuit court. [1995 c.608 §15; 1997 c.704 §45; 1999 c.680 §4]

416.420 [1979 c.421 §8; repealed by 1989 c.811 §10]

416.422 Order for past support; period of time. (1) Past support may not be ordered for any period of time prior to the later of:

(a) October 1, 1995; or

(b) The date of the application for service from, or, in the case of a mandatory referral based on the receipt of public assistance, the date of the referral to, the child support program administered under Title IV-D of the Social Security Act.

416.425 Modification of financial responsibility order; service. (1) Any time support enforcement services are being provided under ORS 25.080, the obligated parent, the obligee, the party holding the support rights or the administrator may move for the existing order to be modified under this section. The motion shall be in writing in a form prescribed by the administrator, shall set out the reasons for modification and shall state the telephone number and address of the moving party. The motion shall be served upon the obligated parent, the obligee, the party holding the support rights and the administrator, as appropriate. The obligor shall be served in the same manner as provided for service of the notice and finding of financial responsibility under ORS 416.415 (1). The obligee shall be served in accordance with ORS 25.085. The parties against whom the motion is made shall have 30 days to resolve the matter by stipulated agreement or to serve the moving party by regular mail with a written response setting forth any objections to the motion and a request for hearing. The hearing shall be conducted pursuant to ORS 416.427.

(2) When the moving party is other than the administrator and no objections and request for hearing have been served within 30 days, the moving party may submit a true copy of the motion to the hearings officer as provided in ORS 416.427, except the default shall not be construed to be a contested case as defined in ORS 183.310 to 183.550. Upon proof of service, the hearings officer shall issue an order granting the relief sought.

(3) When the moving party is the administrator and no objections and request for hearing have been served within 30 days, the administrator may enter an order granting the relief sought.

(4) A motion for modification made pursuant to this section shall not stay the administrator from enforcing and collecting upon the existing order unless so ordered by the court in which the order is docketed.

(5) Except as otherwise provided by ORS 416.400 to 416.470, the only support payments which may be modified are the monthly future support payments.

(6) The party requesting modification shall have the burden of showing a substantial change of circumstances or that a modification is appropriate under the provisions of ORS 25.287.

(7) An administrative order modifying a court order is not effective until the administrative order is reviewed and approved by the court that entered the court order. The court shall make a written finding on the record that the administrative order complies with the formula established by ORS chapter 25. The court may approve the administrative order at any time after the order is issued. If upon review the court finds that the administrative order should not be approved, the court shall set the matter for hearing de novo.

(8) The obligee is a party to all proceedings under this section.

(9) An order entered under this section that modifies a support order because of the incarceration of the obligor is effective only during the period of the obligor's incarceration and for 60 days after the obligor's release from incarceration. The previous support order is reinstated by operation of law on the 61st day after the obligor's release from incarceration. An order that modifies a support order because of the obligor's incarceration must contain a notice that the previous order will be reinstated on the 61st day after the obligor's release from incarceration. [1979 c.421 §5; 1985 c.671 §37; 1989 c.566 §2; 1991 c.519 §4; 1993 c.596 §33; 1995 c.609 §1; 1999 c.127 §1; 1999 c.836 §1]

416.427 Hearings procedure; parties; enforcement of order; appeal of order. (1) When a party requests a hearing pursuant to ORS 416.415, 416.425 (1) or 416.429, the contested case provisions of ORS 183.310 to 183.550 apply except when the issue of paternity is to be resolved pursuant to ORS 416.430.

(2) Except as provided in ORS 416.430, hearings shall be conducted by a hearing officer assigned from the Hearing Officer Panel established under section 3, chapter 849, Oregon Laws 1999.

(3) The hearing officer has the power to issue subpoenas for witnesses necessary to develop a full record. The attorney of record for the office may issue subpoenas. Witnesses appearing pursuant to subpoena, other than parties or officers or employees of the administrator, shall receive fees and mileage as prescribed by law for witnesses in ORS 44.415 (2). Obedience to the subpoena may be compelled in the same manner as set out in ORS 183.440 (2).

(4) Upon issuance of an order, action by the administrator to enforce and collect upon the order, including arrearages, may be taken. Such action shall not be stayed or partially stayed pending appeal or by any court unless there is substantial evidence showing that the obligor would be irreparably harmed and that the obligee would not be irreparably harmed.

(5) An order issued by the hearing officer or the administrator is final. The order shall be in full force and effect while any appeal is pending unless the order is stayed by a court. No stay shall be granted unless there is substantial evidence showing the obligor would be irreparably harmed and that the obligee would not be irreparably harmed.

Obedience to the subpoena may be compelled in the same manner as set out in ORS 183.440 (2).

(4) Upon issuance of an order, action by the administrator to enforce and collect upon the order, including arrearages, may be taken. Such action shall not be stayed or partially stayed pending appeal or by any court unless there is substantial evidence showing that the obligor would be irreparably harmed and that the obligee would not be irreparably harmed.

(5) An order issued by the hearing officer or the administrator is final. The order shall be in full force and effect while any appeal is pending unless the order is stayed by a court. No stay shall be granted unless there is substantial evidence showing the obligor would be irreparably harmed and that the obligee would not be irreparably harmed.

The appeal shall be by petition for review filed within 60 days after the order has been docketed pursuant to ORS 416.440. Unless otherwise specifically provided by law, the appeal shall be conducted pursuant to the Oregon Rules of Civil Procedure.

(7) The obligor, the obligee and the state are parties to any proceedings, including appeals, under this section.

416.429 Notice of intent to establish and enforce arrearages; content; other remedies. (1) The administrator may issue a notice of intent to establish and enforce arrearages for any support order that is registered, filed or docketed in this state. The notice must be served upon the obligor in the manner prescribed for service of summons in a civil action or mailed to the obligor at the obligor's last-known address by certified mail, return receipt requested. (2) The notice shall include:

(f) A statement that if the obligor or the obligee objects to the enforcement of the arrearages, then the objecting party must send to the office issuing the notice, within 14 days of the date of service, a written response that sets forth any objections and requests a hearing;

(g) A statement that the only basis upon which an obligor or an obligee may object to the enforcement of the arrearages is that the amount of the arrearages specified in the notice is incorrect;

(h) A reference to ORS 416.400 to 416.470;

(i) A statement that the obligor and the obligee are responsible for notifying the office of any change of address or employment;

(j) A statement that if the obligor or the obligee has any questions, the obligor or obligee should telephone or visit the appropriate office or consult an attorney; and

(k) Such other information as the administrator finds appropriate.

(3) If a timely written response setting forth objections and requesting a hearing is received by the appropriate office, a hearing shall be held under ORS 416.427.

(4) If no timely written response and request for hearing is received by the appropriate office, the administrator shall enter an order directing that the amount of the arrearages stated in the notice be entered in the child support accounting record maintained by the Department of Justice.

(5) Action to administratively enforce and collect upon the arrearages established under this section may be taken 14 days after service of or receipt or refusal of the notice by the obligor or obligee.

(6) Nothing in this section shall prevent the administrator from using other available enforcement remedies at any time. [1985 c.671 §36; 1991 c.520 §1; 1993 c.596 §35; 1995 c.608 §18; 1999 c.93 §1; 1999 c.735 §21]

Note: Section 2, chapter 93, Oregon Laws 1999, provides:

Sec. 2. (1) The amendments to ORS 416.429 by section 1 of this 1999 Act apply only to notices of intent issued by administrators on or after the effective date of this 1999 Act [October 23, 1999].

(2) The amendments to ORS 416.429 by section 1 of this 1999 Act do not affect any notice of intent issued under ORS 416.429 (1997 Edition) before the effective date of this 1999 Act. Any notice of intent issued under ORS 416.429 before the effective date of this 1999 Act shall continue to be governed by ORS 416.429 (1997 Edition). [1999 c.93 §2]

416.430 Establishing paternity of child; certification of paternity issue to circuit court. (1) The administrator may establish paternity of a child in the course of a support proceeding under ORS 416.400 to 416.470 when both parents sign statements that paternity has not been legally established and that the male parent is the father of the child. The administrator may enter an order which establishes paternity.

(2) If the parent fails to file a response denying paternity and requesting a hearing within the time period allowed in ORS 416.415 (2), then the administrator, without further notice to the parent, may enter an order, in accordance with ORS 416.415 (7), which declares and establishes the parent as the legal father of the child.

(3) Any order entered pursuant to subsection (1) or (2) of this section establishes legal paternity for all purposes. The Center for Health Statistics of the Department of Human Services shall prepare a new birth certificate in the new name, if any, of the child. The original birth certificate shall be sealed and filed and may be opened only upon order of a court of competent jurisdiction.

(4)(a) If paternity is alleged under ORS 416.415 (3) and a written response denying paternity and requesting a hearing is received within the time period allowed in ORS 416.415 (2), or if the administrator determines that there is a valid issue with respect to paternity of the child, the administrator, subject to the provisions of subsections (5) and (6) of this section, shall certify the matter to the circuit court for a determination based upon the contents of the file and any evidence which may be produced at trial. The proceedings in court shall for all purposes be deemed suits in equity. The provisions of ORS 109.145 to 109.230 apply to proceedings certified to court by the administrator pursuant to this section.

(b) Any response denying paternity and requesting a hearing shall be sent by the enforcement office to the obligee by regular mail.

(5) An action to establish paternity initiated under ORS 416.400 to 416.470 shall not be certified to court for trial unless all of the following have occurred:

(a) Blood tests have been conducted;

(b) The results of the blood tests have been served upon the parties and notice has been given that an order establishing paternity will be entered unless a written objection is received within 30 days; and

(c) A written objection to the entry of an order has been timely received from a party.

(6) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (5) of this section, the administrator:

(a) Shall certify the matter to court:

(A) Within 30 days of receipt by the administrator of a timely written objection to the entry of an order by a party under subsection (5)(c) of this section;

(B) When a party requests certification in writing after the administrator has received a party's written denial of paternity if at least 120 days have elapsed from receipt of the denial; or

(C) Upon receipt of blood test results with a cumulative paternity index of less than 99; and

(b) May certify the matter to court at any time under any other circumstances.

(7) If the blood tests conducted under ORS 109.250 to 109.262 result in a cumulative paternity index of 99 or greater, evidence of the tests, together with the testimony of the parent, shall be a sufficient basis upon which to establish paternity and the administrator may enter an order declaring the alleged father as the legal father of the child unless a party objects in writing to the entry of the order. The testimony of the parent may be presented by affidavit.

(8) Prior to certification to court, the administrator may attempt to resolve the issue of paternity by discovery conducted under the Oregon Rules of Civil Procedure. Unless otherwise specifically provided by statute, the proceedings shall be conducted under the Oregon Rules of Civil Procedure.

(9) When, in accordance with subsection (6)(a)(A) of this section, a party objects to the entry of an order and the blood tests conducted under ORS 109.250 to 109.262 result in a cumulative paternity index of 99 or greater, notwithstanding the party's objection, evidence of the tests, together with the testimony of a parent, is a sufficient basis upon which to presume paternity for purposes of establishing temporary support under this section. The court shall, upon motion of any party, enter a temporary order requiring the alleged father to provide support pending the determination of parentage by the court. In determining the amount of support, the court shall use the formula established under ORS 25.275. [1979 c.431 §7; 1983 c.709 §44; 1985 c.671 §38; 1989 c.566 §6; 1991 c.484 §2; 1993 c.596 §36; 1995 c.514 §13; 1995 c.609 §2; 1999 c.80 §28]

416.435 Certification of order to circuit or juvenile court; trial. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, when a response denying paternity and requesting a hearing is received pursuant to ORS 416.415, or paternity is a valid issue as determined by the administrator under ORS 416.430, the certification to the circuit court shall be to the court in the judicial district where the parent or dependent child resides.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, if there is an Oregon juvenile court case regarding the dependent child, the matter may be certified to the county which has jurisdiction of the juvenile court case.

(3) The certification shall include true copies of the notice and finding of financial responsibility, the return of service, the denial of paternity and request for hearing and any other relevant papers.

(4) The court shall set the matter for trial and notify the parties of the time and place of trial.

(5) If paternity is established, the monthly support and the amount of past support to be ordered may be established under ORS 416.427. [1979 c.421 §6; 1985 c.671 §39; 1989 c.811 §8; 1991 c.519 §5; 1995 c.514 §10]

416.440 Filing and docketing of financial responsibility order; order effective as circuit court decree. (1) The documents required to be filed for purposes of subsection (2) of this section include all the following:

(a) A true copy of any order entered, filed or registered by the administrator or hearings officer pursuant to ORS 416.400 to 416.470 or ORS chapter 110.

(b) A true copy of the return of service, if applicable.

(c) A separate statement containing the information required to be contained in a judgment under ORCP 70 A(2)(a).

(2) The documents described under subsection (1) of this section shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the circuit court in the county in which either the parent or the dependent child resides or in the county where the court order was entered if the administrative order is an order modifying a court order. Upon receipt of the documents, the clerk shall docket the order in the circuit court judgment docket.

(3) Upon docketing under subsection (2) of this section, the order shall have all the force, effect and attributes of a docketed order or decree of the circuit court, including but not limited to:

(a) Lien effect;

(b) Ability to be renewed pursuant to ORS 18.360; and

(c) Ability to be enforced by supplementary proceedings, contempt of court proceedings, writs of execution and writs of garnishment.

(4) Notwithstanding subsection (3) of this section, an administrative order modifying a court order shall not become effective until reviewed and approved by the court under ORS 416.425 (7).

(5) Notwithstanding subsections (2) and (3) of this section, the docketing of an order entered by the administrator or hearings officer does not preclude any subsequent proceeding or remedy available under ORS 416.400 to 416.470.

(6) A court or administrative order of another state may be filed, or if appropriate, registered, pursuant to this section for the purposes of ORS chapter 110. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, an order of another state registered pursuant to ORS 110.405, 110.408 and 110.411 may not be modified unless the requirements of ORS 110.432 are met. [1979 c.421 §9; 1983 c.696 §20; 1985 c.671 §39a; 1989 c.566 §4; 1989 c.768 §§10,13; 1991 c.519 §6; 1995 c.608 §7]

416.443 Reopening issue of paternity; order. (1) No later than one year after an order establishing paternity is docketed under ORS 416.440 and if no genetic parentage test has been completed, a party may apply to the administrator to have the issue of paternity reopened. Upon receipt of a timely application, the administrator shall order:

- (a) The mother and the male party to submit to parentage tests; and
- (b) The person having physical custody of the child to submit the child to a parentage test.

(2) If a party refuses to comply with an order under subsection (1) of this section, the issue of paternity shall be resolved against that party by an appropriate order of the court upon the motion of the administrator. Support paid before an order is vacated under this section shall not be returned to the payer. [1995 c.608 §43; 1999 c.735 §22]

416.445 [1979 c.421 §10; 1985 c.610 §4; 1989 c.726 §8; 1991 c.362 §4; 1991 c.519 §7; repealed by 1993 c.798 §21]

416.450 Preventing transfer of assets to evade compliance with order. If at any time subsequent to service, receipt or refusal of a notice pursuant to ORS 416.415, and prior to the entry of an order, the administrator reasonably believes that the parent is about to transfer, encumber, convey, sell, remove, secrete, waste or otherwise dispose of property which could be made subject to collection action to satisfy the order for past support, the administrator may certify the matter to the circuit court, accompanied by a legal description of the property in question, in order to obtain a temporary restraining order directing that such property not be transferred, encumbered, conveyed, sold, removed, secreted, wasted or otherwise disposed of pending entry of a support order by the circuit court. The administrator shall, in such cases, file in the case record a certified statement of the reasons upon which such belief is founded. If the parent furnishes a good and sufficient bond satisfactory to the court, the temporary restraining order shall be vacated. A certified copy of an order entered under this section may be recorded in the same manner as a notice of lis pendens under ORS 93.740. [1979 c.421 §11; 1995 c.514 §11]

416.455 Establishment and collection of child support; rules. (1) In any individual case, commencing with the payment of public assistance by the department, with the application for enforcement services under ORS 25.080 by an individual not receiving public assistance or upon receipt of a written request for enforcement of a support obligation from the state agency of another state responsible for administering the federal child support enforcement program, the administrator may take action under ORS 416.400 to 416.470. The administrator and, as appropriate, the hearings officer, may establish, modify and terminate support orders, require health care coverage for dependent children, establish paternity and collect child support.

(2) The administrator may make such rules and take such action as may be necessary or desirable for carrying out ORS 416.400 to 416.470. [1979 c.421 §12; 1985 c.671 §40; 1993 c.18 §101]

416.460 Supreme Court to provide for expeditious proceedings. The Supreme Court by administrative order shall provide, where necessary, for expeditious hearings on all matters referred to the circuit court pursuant to ORS 416.435 or 416.450. [1979 c.421 §13]

416.465 Relief from compliance with order. The court may, upon such terms as may be just at any time within one year after notice thereof, relieve a parent from an administrative order taken against that parent because of mistake, inadvertence, surprise or excusable neglect. [1979 c.421 §15]

416.470 Redetermination of amount of future support payments. (1) If public assistance was being provided at the time an order was entered by the administrator pursuant to ORS 416.415, 416.425, 416.427, 416.430 or 416.455, then either the obligated parent or the party holding the right to receive the monthly support payments pursuant to ORS 416.400 to 416.470 may file, if public assistance is no longer being provided, a motion with the administrator requesting that the amount of the monthly future support payments be redetermined without reference to the present monthly support payments. Such motion must be filed within six months after the closing of the public assistance grant. The motion shall be served by the moving party upon the other party in the manner prescribed for the service of summons in a civil action. A true copy of the motion and a copy of the return of service shall be mailed to the administrator.

(2) The administrator shall have 30 days from receipt of the motion to resolve the matter by stipulated agreement between the parties. If the matter is not resolved by stipulated agreement within 30 days of receipt of the motion, the administrator shall set the matter for hearing pursuant to the provisions of ORS 416.427.

(3) The only support payments which may be modified are the monthly future support payments. [1979 c.421 §16; 1985 c.671 §41; 1989 c.566 §5]
