GENERAL PROVISIONS

681.205 Definitions. As used in this chapter, unless the context requires otherwise:

(1) “Approved college or university” means any college or university offering a full-time resident program of study in speech-language pathology or audiology leading to a master’s degree or equivalent, the program having been fully accredited or conditionally approved by the American Speech-Language-Hearing Association, or its successor agency, or having been otherwise determined by the State Board of Examiners for Speech-Language Pathology and Audiology to meet the association standards as specifically incorporated into board rules.

(2) “Audiologist” means a person who practices audiology and who uses publicly any title or description of services incorporating the words “audiologist,” “hearing clinician,” “hearing therapist” or any similar titles or descriptions of service.

(3) “Conditional license” means a license issued to an applicant under ORS 681.325.

(4) “Practice audiology” means:

(a) To apply the principles, methods and procedures of measurement, prediction, evaluation, testing, counseling, consultation and instruction that relate to the development and disorders of hearing, vestibular functions and related language and speech disorders to prevent or modify the disorders or to assist individuals in auditory and related skills for communication.

(b) To fit or sell hearing aids.

(5) “Practice speech-language pathology” means to apply the principles, methods and procedures of measurement, prediction, evaluation, testing, counseling, consultation and instruction that relate to the development and disorders of speech, voice, swallowing and related language and hearing disorders to prevent or modify the disorders or to assist individuals in cognition-language and communication skills.

(6) “Speech-language pathologist” means a person who practices speech-language pathology and who uses publicly any title or description of services including but not limited to the words “speech-language pathologist,” “speech correctionist,” “speech therapist,” “speech clinician,” “language pathologist,” “language therapist” or any similar titles or descriptions of services.

(7) “Speech-language pathology assistant” means a person who provides speech-language pathology services under the direction and supervision of a speech-language pathologist licensed under ORS 681.250.

(8) “Unethical conduct” means:

(a) Obtaining any fee by fraud or misrepresentation.

(b) Employing directly or indirectly any person who is unlicensed or whose license is suspended to perform any work covered by this chapter.

(c) Using or causing or promoting the use of any advertising matter, promotional literature, testimonial, guarantee, warranty, label, brand, insignia, or any other representation, however disseminated or published, that is misleading, deceiving, improbable or untruthful.

(d) Representing that the services or advice of a person licensed to practice medicine will be used or made available in the practice of speech-language pathology or audiology if that is not true, or using the word “doctor” or “professor” or other like words, abbreviations, or symbols inaccurately.

(e) Permitting a person other than the license or conditional license holder to use the license or conditional license.

(f) Violating the ethical standards of practice adopted by the board under ORS 681.420. [Formerly 694.305; 1985 c.64 §3; 1989 c.224 §133; 1989 c.491 §67; 1995 c.280 §1; 2001 c.626 §1; 2005 c.698 §1]

681.220 Policy. It is declared to be a policy of this state that it is necessary to provide regulatory authority over persons offering speech-language pathology and audiology services to the public in order to:

- (1) Safeguard the public health, safety and welfare;
- (2) Protect the public from being misled by incompetent, unscrupulous and unauthorized persons;
- (3) Protect the public from unprofessional conduct by qualified speech-language pathologists and audiologists; and
- (4) Help ensure the availability of the highest possible quality speech-language pathology and audiology services to people of this state who have communication disabilities. [Formerly 694.315; 1989 c.224 §134; 1995 c.280 §2; 2005 c.698 §2; 2007 c.70 §307]

681.230 Application of chapter; rules.

(1) Nothing in this chapter is intended to prevent a person licensed in this state under any other law from engaging in the profession for which the person is licensed.

(2) Nothing in this chapter is intended to restrict or prevent a person from engaging in speech-language pathology or audiology activities or from using the official title of the position for which the person is employed if the person:

(a)(A) Holds a valid and current teaching license with a communications disorder endorsement issued by the Teacher Standards and Practices Commission; and

(B) Is employed by an education service district, a school district or a charter school; or

(b) Is a speech-language pathologist or audiologist who is:

(A) Employed by a federal agency; or

(B) Employed by an approved college or university.

(3) A person who performs activities described in subsection (2) of this section who is not licensed under this chapter must do so solely within the confines of or under the jurisdiction of the organization in which the person is employed and may not offer to render speech-language pathology or audiology services to the public for compensation over and above the salary the person receives for performance of the person's official duties with organizations in which the person is employed. However, without obtaining a license under this chapter, a person may consult or disseminate the person's research findings and scientific information to other accredited academic institutions or governmental agencies. The person also may offer lectures to the public for a fee, monetary or otherwise, without being licensed under this chapter.

(4) Nothing in this chapter is intended to restrict activities and services of a student of speech-language pathology from pursuing a course of study in speech-language pathology at an approved college or university or an approved clinical training facility. However, these activities and services must constitute a part of the supervised course of study of the student and a fee may not accrue directly or indirectly to the student. A student shall be designated by a title such as "Speech-Language Pathology Intern," "Speech-Language Pathology Trainee" or other title clearly indicating the training status appropriate to the level of training of the student.

(5) Nothing in this chapter is intended to restrict the activities and services of a student of audiology from pursuing a course of study in audiology at an approved college or university or an approved clinical training facility. However, these activities and services must constitute a part of the supervised course of study of the student and a fee may not accrue directly or indirectly to the student. The student shall be designated by a title such as "Audiology Intern," "Audiology Trainee" or other title clearly indicating the training status appropriate to the level of training of the student.

(6) Nothing in this chapter is intended to restrict any person holding a Class A certificate issued by the Conference of Executives of American Schools of the Deaf from performing the functions for which the person qualifies.

(7) Nothing in this chapter is intended to restrict any person holding a license in this state as a hearing aid specialist from consulting with respect to the selling of hearing aids under ORS chapter 694.

(8) Nothing in this chapter is intended to exempt an audiologist from licensure under ORS 694.025.

(9) Notwithstanding subsections (4) and (5) of this section, the State Board of Examiners for Speech-Language Pathology and Audiology may adopt rules authorizing payment of a stipend to students of speech-language pathology and students of audiology who are pursuing a course of study at an approved college or university or an approved clinical training facility. [Formerly 694.325; 1989 c.491 §67a; 1995 c.280 §3; 2003 c.547 §88; 2005 c.698 §3]

LICENSING(Speech-Language Pathologist or Audiologist)*681.250 Requirement for license in speech-language pathology or audiology.

(1) A license shall be issued to qualified persons either in speech-language pathology or audiology. A person may be licensed in both areas if the person meets the respective qualifications and in such instances the license fee shall be as though for one license.

(2) No person shall practice speech-language pathology or audiology or purport to be a speech-language pathologist or audiologist in this state unless the person is licensed in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. [Formerly 694.335; 1987 c.158 §142; 1995 c.280 §4]

681.260 Qualifications for licensure as speech-language pathologist. (1) An applicant is eligible for licensing by the State Board of Examiners for Speech-Language Pathology and Audiology as a speech-language pathologist if the applicant:

(a) Possesses at least a master's degree or equivalent in the area of speech-language pathology from an approved college or university.

(b) Submits transcripts from one or more approved colleges or universities presenting evidence of the completion of at least 60 semester hours constituting a well-integrated program that includes at least 18 semester hours in courses that provide fundamental information applicable to normal development and use of speech, hearing and language, and at least 42 semester hours in courses that provide information about and training in the management of speech, hearing and language disorders and that provide information supplementary to these fields.

(c) Submits evidence of the completion of a minimum of 275 clock hours of supervised, direct clinical experience with individuals presenting a variety of disorders of communication. The experience must be obtained within the training institution or in one of its cooperating programs.

(d) Presents written evidence from a licensed or certified speech-language pathologist supervisor of nine months of full-time post-educational professional employment, or its part-time equivalent, that is pertinent to the speech-language pathologist license. For purposes of this paragraph, "full-time" means at least nine months in a calendar year and a minimum of 30 hours per week, and "part-time equivalent" means:

(A) 15 to 19 hours per week during a period of at least 72 weeks.

(B) 20 to 24 hours per week during a period of at least 60 weeks.

(C) 25 to 29 hours per week during a period of at least 48 weeks.

(e) Passes an examination approved by the board. The board shall determine the subject and scope of the examinations. Written examinations may be supplemented by oral examinations as the board determines. An applicant who fails the examination may be reexamined at a subsequent examination.

(2) Of the 42 semester hours required under subsection (1)(b) of this section:

(a) No fewer than six semester hours may be in audiology;

(b) No more than six semester hours may be in courses that provide academic credit for clinical practice;

(c) At least 24 semester hours, not including credit for thesis or dissertation, must be in courses in the field for which the license is requested; and

(d) At least 30 semester hours must be in courses acceptable toward a graduate degree by the college or university in which those courses are taken. [Formerly 694.345; 1985 c.64 §5; 1989 c.491 §67b; 1995 c.280 §5; 2005 c.698 §4]

681.264 Qualifications for licensure as audiologist. (1) An applicant is eligible for licensing by the State Board of Examiners for Speech-Language Pathology and Audiology as an audiologist if the applicant:

(a) Possesses a Doctor of Audiology degree from an educational institution accredited by a body recognized by the United States Department of Education and submits transcripts from the educational institution that awarded the Doctor of Audiology degree to the applicant; or

(b) Possesses a master's degree or equivalent in the area of audiology from an approved college or university and submits all of the following to the board:

(A) Transcripts from one or more approved colleges or universities presenting evidence of the completion of at least 60 semester hours constituting a well-integrated program that includes at least 18 semester hours in courses that provide fundamental information applicable to normal development and use of speech, hearing and language, and at least 42 semester hours in courses that provide information about and training in the management of speech, hearing and language disorders and that provide information supplementary to those fields.

(B) Evidence of the completion of a minimum of 275 clock hours of supervised, direct clinical experience with individuals presenting a variety of disorders of communication. The experience must be obtained within the training institution or in one of its cooperating programs.

(C) Written evidence from a licensed or certified audiologist supervisor of nine months of full-time post-educational professional employment, or its part-time equivalent, that is pertinent to an audiology license. For purposes of this subparagraph, "full-time" means at least nine months in a calendar year and a minimum of 30 hours per week, and "part-time equivalent" means:

- (i) 15 to 19 hours per week during a period of at least 72 weeks.
- (ii) 20 to 24 hours per week during a period of at least 60 weeks.
- (iii) 25 to 29 hours per week during a period of at least 48 weeks.

(2) Of the 42 semester hours required under subsection (1)(b) of this section:

- (a) No fewer than six semester hours may be in speech-language pathology;
- (b) No more than six semester hours may be in courses that provide academic credit for clinical practice;
- (c) At least 24 semester hours, not including credit for thesis or dissertation, must be in courses in the field for which the license is requested; and
- (d) At least 30 semester hours must be in courses acceptable toward a graduate degree by the college or university in which those courses are taken.

(3) In addition to meeting the requirements under subsection (1) of this section, an applicant must pass an examination approved by the board. The board shall determine the subject and scope of the examinations. Written examinations may be supplemented by oral examinations as the board determines. An applicant who fails the examination may be reexamined at a subsequent examination. [2005 c.698 §6]

Note: 681.264 was added to and made a part of ORS chapter 681 by legislative action but was not added to any smaller series therein. See Preface to Oregon Revised Statutes for further explanation.

681.270 License and conditional license application; fee. (1) A person desiring to obtain a license or conditional license from the State Board of Examiners for Speech-Language Pathology and Audiology shall make application to the board.

(2) The application shall be made upon a form and in the manner prescribed by the board.

(3) The application required by this section shall be accompanied by a nonrefundable application fee established by the board. [Formerly 694.355; 1995 c.280 §6; 2005 c.698 §7]

681.280 Who may perform duties pending disposition of application. (1) A speech-language pathologist who holds a Certificate of Clinical Competence from the American Speech-Language Hearing Association and who has made application to the State Board of Examiners for Speech-Language Pathology and Audiology for a license in this state may perform activities and services of a speech-language pathologist without a valid license pending disposition of the application.

(2) An audiologist who is certified by the American Board of Audiology or who holds a Certificate of Clinical Competence from the American Speech-Language Hearing Association and who has made application to the State Board of Examiners for Speech-Language Pathology and Audiology for a license in this state may perform activities and services of an audiologist without a valid license pending disposition of the application. [Formerly 694.365; 1995 c.280 §9; 2005 c.698 §8]

681.290 Examination of candidates. (1) The State Board of Examiners for Speech-Language Pathology and Audiology may examine by written or oral examination, or by both. Standards for acceptable performance shall be determined by the board. The board may examine or direct the applicant to be examined for knowledge in whatever theoretical or applied fields in speech-language pathology or audiology it considers appropriate. The board may also examine the candidate with regard to the professional skills and judgment of the candidate in the utilization of speech-language pathology or audiology techniques and methods.

(2) The board may waive the written examination if the applicant has successfully passed the Educational Testing Service Praxis II Specialty Area Examination in speech-language pathology or audiology.

(3) The board shall grade the examination or direct it to be graded. Examination papers shall be retained by the board for at least one year. [Formerly 694.375; 1995 c.280 §10]

681.300 Waiver of examination and educational requirements. The State Board of Examiners for Speech-Language Pathology and Audiology may waive the examination described in ORS 681.290 and grant a license to:

(1) An applicant who presents proof of a current license in a state that has standards equivalent to the standards of this state.

(2) An applicant who holds the Certificate of Clinical Competence of the American Speech-Language-Hearing Association in the area for which the person is applying for a license.

(3) An audiology applicant who is certified by the American Board of Audiology. [Formerly 694.385; 1985 c.754 §1; 1995 c.280 §11; 2005 c.698 §9]

681.310 [Formerly 694.395; repealed by 1995 c.280 §37]

681.320 Renewal procedure; fees; effect on suspended or revoked license; rules.

(1) On or before January 30 of each even-numbered year, or on or before such date as may be specified by rule of the State Board of Examiners for Speech-Language Pathology and Audiology, each licensed speech-language pathologist or audiologist shall submit to the board an application for renewal of license and pay the renewal fee established by the board. The application shall include the following:

(a) Evidence of participation in professional development. Participation in professional development includes continuing education or other demonstrations of professional development that the board may recognize by rule.

(b) Evidence of compliance with all other requirements established by the board.

(2) A person who applies for renewal and whose license has expired may not be required to submit to any examination as a condition to renewal if the renewal application is made within four years from the date of expiration of the license.

(3) A suspended license is subject to expiration and must be renewed as provided in this section, but renewal does not entitle the licensee while the license remains suspended to engage in the licensed activity, or in any other activity or conduct that violates the order or judgment by which the license was suspended.

(4) A license revoked on disciplinary grounds is subject to expiration and may not be renewed. If the license is reinstated after its expiration, the licensee, as a condition of reinstatement, shall pay a reinstatement fee in an amount equal to the renewal fee in effect on the last preceding regular renewal date before the date on which it is reinstated, plus a delinquency fee, if any, accrued at the time of revocation of the license.

(5) A person who fails to renew a license within the four years after its expiration may not renew the license. The license may not be restored, reissued or reinstated thereafter, but the person may reapply for and obtain a new license if the person meets the requirements of this chapter and rules adopted by the board. [Formerly 694.405; 1993 c.472 §1; 1995 c.147 §1; 1995 c.280 §12a; 2005 c.698 §10; 2007 c.768 §45]

681.325 Issuance of conditional license; scope of practice; renewal. (1) A conditional license permits an individual to practice speech-language pathology or audiology while the person completes the licensing requirements of this chapter.

(2) The State Board of Examiners for Speech-Language Pathology and Audiology may issue a conditional license to practice speech-language pathology or audiology to an applicant who:

(a) Except for the examination and supervised post-graduate professional practice in speech-language pathology or audiology, meets the license requirements under ORS 681.260 or 681.264; and

(b) Demonstrates to the satisfaction of the board that for the term of the conditional license the applicant will practice speech-language pathology or audiology only under the supervision of a speech-language pathologist or audiologist under this chapter.

(3) A conditional license expires on the first anniversary of its effective date.

(4) The board may renew the conditional license for one additional one-year term if the holder:

(a) Continues to meet the requirements of subsection (2) of this section;

(b) Submits a conditional license renewal application to the board on the form that the board requires; and

(c) Pays to the board a conditional license renewal fee established by the board. [1995 c.280 §8; 2005 c.698 §11]

Note: 681.325 was added to and made a part of ORS chapter 681 by legislative action but was not added to any smaller series therein. See Preface to Oregon Revised Statutes for further explanation.

681.330 Application of rules of ethical standards of practice. The rules and regulations of ethical standards of practice adopted pursuant to ORS 681.420 (5) shall govern the conduct of all persons who hold a license or conditional license to practice speech-language pathology or audiology or a certificate to perform the duties of a speech-language pathology assistant. [Formerly 694.415; 1995 c.280 §13; 2001 c.626 §2]

681.340 Fees; initial license or conditional license fee; waiver; exclusivity of fees; rules. (1) The State Board of Examiners for Speech-Language Pathology and Audiology may, by rule, impose fees for the following:

(a) License fee and renewal thereof.

(b) Delinquency fee.

(c) Application fee.

(d) Inactive license fee.

(e) Conditional license fee and renewal thereof.

(2) Every person to whom a license is issued shall, as a condition precedent to its issuance, and in addition to any application, examination or other fee, pay the prescribed initial license fee. The board may, by rule, provide for waiver of such fee where the license is issued less than 45 days before the date on which it will expire.

(3) Fees established by the board under subsection (1) of this section shall be in accordance with ORS 291.050 to 291.060.

(4) The fees collected by the board are exclusive and a municipality may not require any person licensed under the provisions of this chapter to furnish any bond or pass any examination. [Formerly 694.425; 1987 c.43 §4; 1993 c.472 §2; 1995 c.147 §2; 1995 c.280 §14; 2005 c.698 §12]

681.350 Denial, suspension or revocation of license or conditional license; civil penalties. (1) The State Board of Examiners for Speech-Language Pathology and Audiology may refuse to issue or renew any license or conditional license, may suspend or revoke any license or conditional license, may reprimand any licensee or conditional licensee or may place any licensee or conditional licensee on probation if the applicant, licensee or conditional licensee has:

(a) Obtained or attempted to obtain a license or conditional license by means of fraud, misrepresentation, or concealment of material facts.

(b) Violated any ethical standards of practice established under ORS 681.420.

(c) Violated any lawful order or rule of the board.

(d) Violated any provisions of this chapter.

(e) Been disciplined by a professional licensing board in another state or in this state.

(2) An applicant, a licensee or a conditional licensee is entitled to an opportunity for a hearing that complies with all applicable requirements of ORS chapter 183 before the board takes final action under subsection (1) of this section.

(3) A person whose license has been revoked or whose application for a license has been denied may apply for reinstatement or licensure only under conditions, if any, set forth in the board's final order of revocation or denial of license.

(4) In disciplining a licensee or a conditional licensee, the board may impose any disciplinary action the board finds proper, including assessment of costs of the disciplinary proceedings as a civil penalty. [Formerly 694.435; 1985 c.64 §6; 1993 c.14 §26; 1995 c.280 §15; 2005 c.698 §13]

(Speech-Language Pathology Assistant)

681.360 Certificate for speech-language pathology assistant; requirements; renewal; exception; grounds for denial, suspension or revocation; rules. (1) A person may not perform the duties of a speech-language pathology assistant or use the title speech-language pathology assistant without a certificate to do so issued under this section.

(2) To obtain a certificate to perform the duties of a speech-language pathology assistant, a person shall:

(a) Submit an application in the form prescribed by the State Board of Examiners for Speech-Language Pathology and Audiology;

(b) Pay the certificate fee established by the board;

(c) Demonstrate that the person meets the qualifications for certification established by the board; and

(d) Comply with all other requirements for certification established by the board.

(3) A certificate issued under this section expires every two years. To renew a certificate to perform the duties of a speech-language pathology assistant, a person shall:

(a) Submit the renewal application in the form prescribed by the board;

(b) Pay the renewal fee established by the board; and

(c) Comply with all other requirements for certificate renewal established by the board, including but not limited to submission of evidence of participation in professional development activities.

(4) A person may not employ or otherwise use the services of a speech-language pathology assistant unless the speech-language pathology assistant is certified under this section.

(5) The board may establish by rule criteria under which a person not licensed under this chapter who holds a basic or standard teaching license in speech impaired or an initial or continuing teaching license in communication disorders issued by the Teaching Standards and Practices Commission may supervise a speech-language pathology assistant working in a school.

(6) The board may refuse to issue a certificate, or may suspend or revoke the certificate, of any certified speech-language pathology assistant pursuant to the provisions of ORS 681.350. [2001 c.626 §4; 2005 c.698 §14]

681.365 Certification of person from another state or territory. The State Board of Examiners for Speech-Language Pathology and Audiology may grant a certificate to perform the duties of a speech-language pathology assistant to applicants who present proof of a current certificate of speech-language pathology assistant in a state or territory that has standards equivalent to those of this state. [2001 c.626 §5]

681.370 Duties of speech-language pathologist using services of speech-language pathology assistant. A speech-language pathologist who employs or otherwise uses the services of a speech-language pathology assistant shall:

(1) Be responsible for the extent, type and quality of services provided by each speech-language pathology assistant supervised by the speech-language pathologist;

(2) Ensure that persons who receive services from a speech-language pathology assistant receive prior notification that services are to be provided by a speech-language pathology assistant; and

(3) Verify that the speech-language pathology assistant is certified under ORS 681.360. [2001 c.626 §7]
