The application shall also contain the county and city with street and number, if any, where the business is to be conducted and any other information the director may require.

(2) An applicant, at the time the applicant applies for a license under this section, shall pay to the director a license fee determined under ORS 725.185 for the period terminating on the last day of the current calendar year. If the director denies the applicant a license for cause or if the applicant withdraws the application after the director investigates the applicant, the director shall refund the license fee paid under this subsection, less an amount that reflects the director's administrative and investigative costs for the application. (a) The financial responsibility, experience, character and general fitness of the applicant, and of the members thereof if the applicant is a partnership or association, and of the officers and directors thereof if the applicant is a corporation, are such as to command the confidence of the community and to warrant the belief that the business will be operated honestly, fairly and efficiently within the purposes of this chapter;

(b) Grounds to disapprove an application described in ORS 725.145 do not exist and that, in the judgment of the director, no other reasons or conditions warrant the refusal to grant a license; and

(7) Is the subject of an order that was issued by the regulatory authority of another state or of the federal government with authority over banking institutions, savings associations, credit unions or consumer finance companies, that was entered within the past five years and that subjects the person to a civil penalty or removes the person from an office in a state banking institution, a national bank, a state or federal savings asso-

(3) The director shall set or change the fee schedule described in subsection (1) of this section after considering:

(a) The amount of other moneys available for the director to use in performing the director's duties;

(b) The costs the director will incur in performing the director's duties in the year in which the director will collect the fee; and

(c) The amount the director needs to establish and maintain a reasonable emergency fund. [1985 c.762 §119; 1987 c.171 §7; 1987 c.373 §69; 2009 c.541 §45]

(2) Every licensee who fails to file any report required under this chapter within the time specified may be subject to a penalty of $10 per day for each day's delay. [Amended by 1955 c.71 §8; 1973 c.428 §2; 1985 c.762 §120; 1999 c.469 §3; 2005 c.21 §13]

725.210 Additional licenses to same applicant. No licensee shall transact any business within the scope of this chapter except under the name and at the place of business named in the license. The Director of the Department of Consumer and Business Services may issue more than one license to the same licensee if the licensee complies with all the provisions of this chapter governing an original issuance of a license for each such additional license. However, each additional license shall be for a separate and distinct place of business for making and completing loans as provided in this chapter. [Amended by 1985 c.762 §121]

725.220 Change of place of business. (1) When a licensee wishes to change the place of business to another location, the licensee shall submit written notice thereof, together with the license, to the Director of the Department of Consumer and Business Services. The director shall amend the license of the licensee to reflect the new location and shall return the amended license to the licensee.

(2) A change in the place of business of a licensee to a location outside the city named in the original license may be allowed under the same license only if the director determines that the new location will serve substantially the same community as is served at the location named in the original license.

(3) If the director disapproves the proposed new location of the business, the director shall immediately notify the licensee of the disapproval and return the license unchanged to the licensee. [Amended by 1955 c.71 §9; 1985 c.762 §122; 1987 c.650 §13; 1999 c.469 §4] corporation, to comply with provisions of law that require the licensee to keep the corporation in good standing;

(b) The licensee has violated a provision of this chapter or a rule made by the director under the authority of this chapter;

(c) The licensee employs mortgage loan originators licensed under ORS 86A.200 to 86A.239 and failed to:

(iv) 12 U.S.C. 5101 et seq. and regulations adopted under 12 U.S.C. 5101 et seq.;

(e) The licensee employed a device, scheme or artifice to defraud or engage in an act, practice or course of business that operates or would operate as a fraud or deceit;

(f) The licensee knowingly made an untrue statement of a material fact or omitted from a statement a material fact that would make the statement not misleading in light of the circumstances under which the licensee made the statement;

(g) The licensee made or filed or caused to be made or filed with the director a statement, report or document that the licensee knew was false in a material respect or matter; or

(h) A fact or condition exists that, if the fact or condition had existed at the time the licensee originally applied for the license, clearly would have warranted the director in refusing originally to issue the license.

(2) The director, without notice or hearing, may suspend a license issued under this chapter for a period not exceeding 30 days, pending investigation.

(3) The director may revoke or suspend only the particular license with respect to which grounds for revocation or suspension may occur or exist, or, if the director finds that the grounds for revocation or suspension are of general application to all or more than one of the licensee's offices, the director may revoke or suspend all the licenses or such number of the licenses issued to the licensee as the grounds for revocation or suspension apply to, as the case may be. (2)(a) A licensee shall surrender any license issued to the licensee under which there has been no material loan activity for a period of 12 consecutive months.

(b) For purposes of this subsection, "material loan activity" includes new loans, refinancing of existing loans or formal extensions of existing loan repayment provisions in excess of 30 days.

(3) Surrender of a license under subsection (1) or (2) of this section shall not affect the licensee's civil or criminal liability for acts committed prior to surrender. [Amended by 1985 c.762 §125; 1999 c.469 §5]

725.260 Effect of revocation, suspension or surrender of license. The revocation, suspension or surrender of any license shall not impair or affect the rights or obligations of any preexisting lawful contract between the licensee and any borrower. [Amended by 1955 c.71 §11]

The examinations of a licensee shall be conducted not more than 24 months apart.

(2) In addition to examinations under subsection (1) of this section, the director may conduct examinations of a licensee at other times as the director deems necessary.

(A) 36 percent; or

(B) 30 percentage points in excess of the discount window primary credit rate. The Director of the Department of Consumer and Business Services on the second Friday of December shall determine by order from published sources available on that date the discount rate upon which the annual percentage rate set forth in this subparagraph will be based as of January 1 of the following calendar year. The annual percentage rate set forth in this subparagraph shall apply to each new loan made during the succeeding calendar year for the entire term of the loan, including all renewals of the loan.

(b) Contract for and receive in connection with a consumer finance loan made in accordance with this chapter, and in addition to the finance charge described in paragraph (a) of this subsection, other reasonable and bona fide fees, expenses or damages, subject to oversight and regulation by the Department of Consumer and Business Services. (c) For purposes of this subsection, "finance charge" and "annual percentage rate" have the meanings given those terms in the federal Truth in Lending Act, 15 U.S.C. 1601 et seq.

(2) When a precomputed loan contract is originally scheduled to be repaid in 62 months or less and requires repayment in substantially equal or consecutive monthly installments of principal and interest combined, the interest or consideration may be precomputed, contracted for and earned on scheduled unpaid principal balances on the assumption that all scheduled payments will be made when due. In such cases, every payment may be applied to the combined total of principal and precomputed interest until the contract is fully paid, and the acceptance or payment of interest or consideration on any loan made under the provisions of this subsection does not constitute payment, deduction or receipt of the interest or consideration in advance. The precomputed interest or consideration is subject to the following adjustments:

(a) When a default of more than 10 days in the payment of any scheduled installment occurs, the licensee may charge and collect a default charge not exceeding five percent of the unpaid amount of the installment or $5, whichever is less. A default charge may be collected only once on an installment, but may be collected at the time the default charge accrues or at any time thereafter. A default charge may not be assessed with respect to an installment that is paid in full on or within 10 days after a scheduled installment due date when an earlier maturing installment or a default or deferral charge on an earlier maturing installment may not have been paid in full even though all or part of such installment payment is applied to an earlier maturing installment, or a default or deferral charge.

(b) If the payment of all unpaid installments is deferred one or more full months, and if the contract so provides, the licensee may charge and collect a deferral charge not exceeding the annual percentage rate specified in subsection (1)(a) of this section and previously disclosed to the borrower pursuant to the federal Truth in Lending Act applied to the sum of the installments deferred for the length of the deferral period. The deferral period is that period in which no scheduled installment is required to be paid by reason of the deferral. The charge may be collected at the time of deferral or at any time thereafter. A deferral charge may not be made for the deferral of any installment with respect to which a default charge has been collected, unless the default charge is deducted from the deferral charge. If prepayment of the loan in full occurs during the deferral period, in addition to any other rebate which may be required, the borrower shall receive a rebate of the portion of the deferral applicable to the unexpired months in the deferral period, for which purpose a fraction of an unexpired month exceeding 15 days is considered to be a month.

(c) Upon prepayment in full of the unpaid balance of a precomputed loan, a rebate of unearned interest or consideration shall be made as provided in this paragraph. The amount of the rebate shall be not less than the total interest contracted for to maturity, less the greater of:

(A) Ten percent of the amount financed or $75, whichever is less; or

(B) The interest or consideration earned to the installment due date nearest the date of prepayment, computed by applying the simple interest rate of the loan to the actual principal balances outstanding, for the periods of time the balances were actually outstanding. For purposes of rebate computations under this subparagraph, the installment due date preceding the date of prepayment is nearest if prepayment occurs 15 days or less after that installment date. If prepayment occurs more than 15 days after the preceding installment due date, the next succeeding installment due date is nearest to the date of prepayment. In determining the simple interest rate, the licensee may apply to the scheduled payments the actuarial method by which each scheduled payment is applied first to accrued and unpaid interest or consideration and any amount remaining is applied to reduction of the principal balance.

(3) If the borrower agrees to perform certain duties to insure or preserve the collateral and fails to perform those duties, the licensee may pay for the performance of the duties and add the amounts paid to the unpaid principal balance. A charge may be made for sums advanced, at the rate provided for in the loan agreement.

(4) The loan contract may provide that after default and referral the borrower shall pay the licensee for reasonable attorney fees actually paid by the licensee to an attorney who is not a salaried employee of the licensee. 725.345 Open-end loan plan; interest; security for plan; necessary disclosures.

(1) As used in this section and ORS 725.347, "open-end loan plan" means a plan or arrangement, the agreement for which expressly states that it is made pursuant to this section under which loans are made, and under which:

(a) The licensee may permit the borrower to obtain advances of money from the licensee from time to time or the licensee may advance money on behalf of the borrower from time to time as directed by the borrower;

(b) The unpaid principal balances and interest or consideration are debited to an account;

(c) Interest or consideration is calculated on the unpaid principal balance in the borrower's account from time to time, which balance may include all advances made on behalf of the borrower and all charges authorized under ORS 725.340 and this section; and

(d) The borrower has the privilege of paying the unpaid balance in full or in installments.

(2) A licensee may make loans under an open-end loan plan and may contract for and receive interest or consideration only as provided in ORS 725.340.

(3) A security interest in real or personal property may be taken to secure an open-end loan plan. Any security interest in real or personal property shall be promptly released if there has been no outstanding balance for 12 months and the borrower either does not have or surrenders the unilateral right to create a new outstanding balance or if the account is terminated at the borrower's request and paid in full.

(4) ORS 725.050 (2), 725.340 (2) and 725.360 (1), (2) and (4) do not apply to any open-end loan plan.

(5) The open-end loan plan agreement shall contain the name and address of the borrower and of the licensee and shall disclose the date of the agreement, the method of determining the minimum periodic payments which will be required to pay the initial and any subsequent advances, the conditions under which interest or consideration may be imposed, the method of determining the principal balance upon which interest or consideration may be imposed, the method of determining the amount of the interest or consideration, each periodic rate and the range of balances to which each rate is applicable and the corresponding annual percentage rate in accordance with Regulation Z promulgated by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System under section 105 of the Consumer Credit Protection Act (15 U.S.C. 1604), and the nature of the security taken.

(6) Except for an account which the licensee deems to be uncollectible or with respect to which delinquency collection procedures have been instituted, the licensee shall deliver or cause to be delivered to the borrower, for each billing cycle at the end of which there is an unpaid balance of more than $1 in the account or with respect to which interest or consideration is imposed, a statement setting forth the outstanding balance in the account at the beginning of the billing cycle, the nature, date and amount of any subsequent advance during the cycle, the amounts and dates of payments credited to the account during the billing cycle, the amount of any interest or consideration debited to the account during the billing cycle, each periodic rate and the range of balances to which each rate is applicable and the corresponding annual percentage rate in accordance with Regulation Z promulgated by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System under section 105 of the Consumer Credit Protection Act (15 U.S.C. 1604), the balance on which the interest or consideration was calculated, a statement of how that balance was determined, the closing date of the billing cycle, the outstanding balance on that closing date and the minimum monthly payment required. [1977 c.522 §2; 1981 c.412 §16; 1983 c.37 §36d; 1985 c.370 §2; 2007 c.603 §4]

725.347 Open-end credit card plan authorized. (1) As used in this section, "open-end credit card plan" means an open-end loan plan under which:

(a) The licensee issues one or more cards, checks, letters of credit or other devices to the borrower; and

(b) The borrower may obtain advances from the licensee, either directly or in connection with purchases of goods and services, by using the card, check, letter of credit or other device.

(2) A licensee may transact business and extend credit to borrowers under an open-end credit card plan. A licensee may offer an open-end credit card plan in conjunction with noncredit features or services available to the borrower through use of the card or other device. The noncredit features or services shall not be subject to regulation under this chapter.

(3) The agreement between the licensee and the borrower relating to the open-end credit card plan shall conform to the requirements of ORS 725.345 (5), except that the borrower's name and address and the date of the agreement need not be included in the agreement if the borrower has submitted a signed and dated application to the licensee seeking the issuance of one or more cards or other devices. [1985 c.370 §4; 2007 c.603 §5]

725.349 Application of ORS 725.210 to certain loans and advances. On and after September 20, 1985, ORS 725.210 applies to loans and advances pursuant to ORS 725.345, provided that a licensee that applied for and received a license before September 20, 1985, for a location outside the State of Oregon may receive and hold one or more licenses relating to locations outside the State of Oregon, including one additional license for a location not licensed on or before September 20, 1985, and may transact business at such licensed locations. With respect to such a licensee only, loans and advances under open-end loan plans or open-end credit card plans shall be considered to be business transacted where the applications or agreements in connection with the loan plans or credit card plans are approved by the licensee. [1985 c.370 §1a]

725.355 Prohibition against assignment of earnings for loan security. (1) As used in this section, "earnings" means salary, wages or other compensation for service.

(2) No licensee shall take an assignment of earnings as payment of or as security for payment of a loan. An assignment in violation of this subsection is unenforceable by the assignee and revocable by the assignor. Nothing in this subsection is intended to prevent an employee from authorizing deductions from the earnings of the employee if the authorization is revocable.

(3) For the purpose of this section, a sale of unpaid earnings made in consideration of the payment of money to or for the account of the seller of the earnings is considered a loan to the seller, secured by an assignment of earnings. [1971 c.232 §3]

725.360 Licensee duty toward borrowers. Every licensee shall:

(1) Deliver to the borrower at the time any loan is made a statement in the English language showing in clear and distinct terms:

(b) The amount and the date of the loan and of its maturity or terms of payment.

(c) The rate of interest agreed upon or consideration to be charged therefor.

(d) The nature of the security for the loan, if a lien on personal property has been taken by chattel mortgage, bill of sale, collateral agreement or otherwise.

(2) Make available to the borrower upon request a plain and complete receipt for all payments made on account of any such loan at the time such payments are received by the licensee, specifying the amount applied to interest, if any, the date to which the interest is paid, the amount applied to principal, if any, and the unpaid principal balance of such loan, if any remains.

(3) Permit payment to be made in advance in any amount on any loan at any time.

(4) Upon repayment of the loan in full or upon renewal thereof, mark indelibly such obligation signed by the borrower with the word "Paid" or "Renewed." In the case of repayment in full the licensee also shall do the following:

(a) To the extent and in the manner required by law, release any mortgage or security agreement that no longer secures a loan, and restore any security or collateral.

(b) Release any Uniform Commercial Code filing that no longer secures a loan, to the extent and in the manner required by ORS 79.0513.

(c) Return any assignment given by the borrower.

(d) Return to the borrower the canceled note evidencing the loan or alternatively, acknowledge in writing to the borrower that the loan has been repaid. [Amended by 1971 c.450 §4; 1973 c.428 §5; 1975 c.567 §3; 1987 c.650 §17; 2001 c.445 §182]

(5) If an individual named in an order under this section fails to comply with the order, the director may issue an order removing or suspending the individual from the office or position held by the individual.
