If the court on its own motion orders a hearing, no party requests reporting and the court on its own motion orders that the hearing be reported, the court order shall contain an estimate of the hearing period, and each party shall pay an equal proportionate share of the applicable hearing fee, based upon the estimate of the hearing period, before the hearing is held.

(8) No paper containing a request for reporting or other request for reporting referred to in subsections (4) to (7) of this section shall be deemed filed unless the fee required by those subsections of the filing party is paid by the party.

21.605 Waiver or deferral of fees and costs for indigents; fees and costs as judgment for public body; waiver of cost of transcript on appeal. (1)(a) The Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, the Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals, a judge of a circuit or county court, the judge of the Oregon Tax Court or a justice of the peace may waive in whole or in part, defer in whole or in part, or both, all fees and court costs payable by a party to a particular civil action or proceeding in the court of the justice or judge, upon application by the party, if the justice or judge finds that the party is unable to pay all or any part of the fees and costs. Waiver or deferral of an inmate's fees and court costs is subject to ORS 30.642 to 30.650.

(b) No fee shall be required for filing an application under paragraph (a) of this subsection.

(c) In the judgment or other final written disposition of the action or proceeding the court shall note the dollar amount of the fees and costs not waived and then unpaid, and that amount shall be a judgment in favor of the public body to which the fees and costs are owed. Failure of the court to perform the duty imposed by this paragraph does not otherwise affect the validity of the judgment or other final written disposition.

(d) The judgment or other final written disposition of the action or proceeding may also contain an order for the payment of the amount of the fees and costs not waived and then unpaid not later than a date certain or on the happening of one or more events. A default in payment by the person so ordered to pay shall subject the person to a contempt proceeding.

(e) A judgment or other final written disposition rendered under this subsection may be filed, entered and docketed as a judgment in any county in this state.

(2) If fees and court costs payable by a party to a civil action or proceeding have been waived or deferred under subsection (1) of this section, that party shall not be required to pay any fees or costs so waived or deferred except as provided in subsection (1) of this section and ORS 30.642 to 30.650, and any pleading, petition, application, request, motion, claim, demand, exception or other paper or appearance presented by that party for filing or acceptance in the action or proceeding shall be filed or accepted without the payment of any such fees or costs.

(3)(a) In a civil action or proceeding, the court to which an appeal is taken may waive in whole or in part, defer in whole or in part, or partially waive and partially defer the expense of preparing a transcript on appeal, if:

(A) The party requesting the transcript is unable to pay the expense of preparing the transcript; and

(B) The party requesting the transcript makes a prima facie showing that the transcript is necessary to prosecute the appeal and would reveal reversible error in the action or proceeding.

(b) In any civil action or proceeding in which the court waives or defers any part of the expense of preparing a transcript on appeal, the court shall authorize preparation of only so much of the transcript as is necessary to prosecute the appeal.

(c) To the extent that the court waives or defers any part of the expense of preparing a transcript on appeal, the State Court Administrator shall pay the expense out of funds appropriated for that purpose.

(d) If the court defers payment of any part of the expense of preparing a transcript, and any part of the deferred expense remains unpaid at the conclusion of the appeal, the court may enter judgment against the party for the unpaid amounts in the manner provided by subsection (1) of this section.

(e) If costs on appeal are awarded to a party who has obtained a waiver or deferral under this subsection, any portion of the costs awarded for the expense of preparing the transcript on appeal shall be ordered paid to the State Court Administrator to the extent that the waived or deferred expense was paid by the State Court Administrator.

(f) Waiver or deferral of an inmate's expenses under this subsection is subject to ORS 30.642 to 30.650.

(4) In any case in which fees and court costs have been waived or deferred under this section, a judgment or other final written disposition shall be rendered as in other cases, but the state shall not be liable for the payment of any fees or costs awarded against a party whose fees or costs have been waived or deferred.

(5) In the exercise of the authority granted by ORS 1.002, the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court may provide by rule standards and practices for waiver or deferral of fees, court costs and expense under this section. [1969 c.288 §1; 1973 c.67 §1; 1977 c.416 §2; 1981 s.s. c.3 §88; 1983 c.673 §24; 1985 c.342 §24; 1985 c.496 §24; 1995 c.273 §11; 1995 c.658 §25; 1999 c.367 §4; 1999 c.657 §7a]

21.607 Judgments for deferred fees and costs; interest; satisfaction; compromise prohibited. (1)

Notwithstanding ORS 82.010, judgments resulting from the deferral of fees and court costs under the provisions of ORS 21.605 bear no interest.

(2) If a judge of a circuit or county court defers payment of any fees or court costs under the provisions of ORS 21.605, and the amount of those deferred fees or court costs is subsequently paid in full, the trial court administrator for the court shall note upon the judgment docket that the deferred fees and costs have been paid in full. Notation on the judgment docket that deferred fees and costs have been paid in full constitutes a satisfaction of the judgment for those fees and costs.

(3) If the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, the Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals or the judge of the Oregon Tax Court defers payment of any fees or court costs under the provisions of ORS 21.605, including deferral of the cost of preparing the transcript on appeal, and the amount of those deferred fees or court costs is subsequently paid in full, the State Court Administrator shall note upon the register of the court that the deferred fees and costs have been paid in full. Notation on the register that deferred fees and costs have been paid in full constitutes a satisfaction of the judgment for those fees and costs.

(4) Upon notation on the judgment docket or register that deferred fees and costs have been paid in full, a certified copy of the notation may be filed with any circuit court or County Clerk Lien Record in which the judgment was filed under the provisions of ORS 21.605. Upon filing of the certified copy, the trial court administrator for the court, or the county clerk if the judgment was filed in the County Clerk Lien Record, shall cause the certified copy to be docketed in the judgment docket of the court or recorded in the County Clerk Lien Record.

(5) Judgments resulting from the deferral of fees and court costs under the provisions of ORS 21.605 may not be compromised, settled or adjusted by a trial court administrator or the State Court Administrator. [1995 c.273 §12; 1997 c.801 §129; 1999 c.367 §17]
