(6) "Exhibition" means a demonstration of boxing or wrestling skills.

(7) "Extreme fighting" means a no-holds-barred match, competition or exhibition that combines elements of boxing, wrestling or martial arts without a system of rules approved by the Oregon State Boxing and Wrestling Commission.

(9) "Manager" means a person licensed by the superintendent who does any of the following:

(a) By contract or agreement undertakes to represent the interests of any professional boxer or wrestler in procuring or arranging the conduct of any professional boxing or wrestling match in which the boxer or wrestler is a participant as a contestant.

(b) Receives or is entitled to receive more than 10 percent of the gross purse of any professional boxer or wrestler for any services related to such boxer's or wrestler's participation in a professional boxing contest.

(e) Attends the professional boxer or wrestler at ringside or purports to be the professional boxer's or wrestler's manager.

(10) "Matchmaker" means a person licensed or issued a permit by the superintendent who is employed by or associated with a promoter in the capacity of booking and arranging boxing or wrestling matches between opponents and for whose activities in this regard the promoter is legally responsible.

(11) "Pay-per-view" means a closed circuit telecast, regardless of the delivery system used, that is not intended to be available for viewing without the payment of a fee, whether collected or based on each event viewed, for the privilege of viewing the telecast.

(12) "Person" includes an individual, association, partnership or corporation.

(14) "Promoter" means a corporation, partnership, association, individual or other organization licensed by the superintendent who arranges, gives, holds or conducts a boxing or wrestling contest, match or exhibition or an entertainment wrestling performance in this state and who is legally responsible for the lawful conduct of such boxing or wrestling contest, match or exhibition or entertainment wrestling performance. "Promoter" includes:

(a) A person who holds distribution rights to a closed circuit telecast of a boxing or wrestling event that occurs within or outside this state and who sells the rights to a cable system operator in this state.

(b) A person who holds the distribution rights to a pay-per-view telecast of a boxing or wrestling event that occurs within or outside this state and who sells the ability to receive the telecast to a person who charges an admission for the right to view the telecast in this state.

[1987 c.789 §2; 1991 c.211 §1; 1993 c.587 §1; 1993 c.742 §120; 1993 c.744 §209; 1997 c.350 §3; 2003 c.142 §1]

463.018 Legislative findings. (1) The Legislative Assembly finds that the boxing and wrestling industry in this state should be regulated in order to protect the best interests of both contestants and the public.

(2) The Legislative Assembly further finds that:

(a) The entertainment spectacle commonly known as extreme fighting is a violent exhibition that is excessively and unacceptably dangerous to the participants and is promoted and advertised to that end;

(b) Extreme fighting lacks appropriate restrictions on dangerous blows or life-threatening maneuvers, and the matching of participants with incompatible styles of fighting makes it impossible for the state to regulate extreme fighting in a way that can reasonably protect the safety of the participants; and

(c) It is therefore an appropriate exercise of the authority of the State of Oregon to prohibit extreme fighting and similarly named combative sports. [1987 c.789 §1; 1997 c.350 §4]

463.020 [Repealed by 1965 c.200 §12 (463.021 enacted in lieu of 463.020)]

(2) The person employing a matchmaker, ticket taker, security officer or box office employee may apply for a permit covering all such employees in lieu of their obtaining individual licenses. However, the same standards apply to such employees operating under a permit as would apply if the employees were licensed.

(4) Each person licensed or issued a permit under this section shall keep the license or copy of the permit in the person's personal possession and shall present the license or copy of the permit upon request to promoters and representatives of the superintendent, including members of the Oregon State Boxing and Wrestling Commission, as evidence of eligibility to act or perform in the person's licensed or permitted capacities in connection with boxing or wrestling contests, matches or exhibitions. (a) Timely payment of all taxes and civil penalties due the state or its political subdivisions.

(b) Payment to the state or a political subdivision thereof which establishes liability against a promoter for damages, penalties or expenses arising from promotional activity.

(c) Payment of the purses of the competitors.

(d) Payment of reimbursement to the superintendent of the cost of approval of an event canceled by the promoter without good cause.

(e) Payment of compensation to inspectors, referees, timekeepers, judges and event physicians.

(4) If the circumstances of an event to be promoted so require, the superintendent may increase the face amount of the corporate surety bond previously filed with the superintendent in compliance with this section.

The superintendent may fix and determine the tax as a result of the examination described in this subsection.

(5) The superintendent may delegate to the Oregon State Boxing and Wrestling Commission any of the powers described in subsection (2) of this section. [1987 c.789 §3; 1991 c.211 §4; 1993 c.742 §§123,123a; 1993 c.744 §§210,210a; 2003 c.142 §3; 2003 c.653 §1]
