(7) Notwithstanding subsections (4) and (6) of this section, any person who is the subject of a record within a criminal identification database maintained under the authority of this section may, upon request, inspect that information at a time and location designated by the department. The department may deny inspection if it determines that there is a reasonable likelihood that such inspection would prejudice a pending criminal investigation. In any case, the department is not required to allow the person or anyone acting on the person's behalf to test any blood or buccal sample or other physical evidence. The department shall adopt procedures governing the inspection of records and samples and challenges to the accuracy of records. subsection, no sample, physical evidence or criminal identification record is affected by an order to set aside a conviction under ORS 137.225.

(9) As used in this section, "convicted" includes a juvenile court finding of jurisdiction based on ORS 419C.005. [Formerly 181.085]

Sec. 1. The Legislative Assembly finds that:

(1) The number of people in Oregon with Alzheimer's disease and related dementia is growing. Alzheimer's is a devastating disease that slowly destroys memory and thinking skills and, eventually, even the ability to carry out the simplest tasks of daily living.

(3) Other adults in Oregon, including those with intellectual or developmental disabilities or other conditions, are vulnerable if they go missing as well.

(4) Many police departments and sheriff's offices are well trained to respond to reports of missing vulnerable adults. This legislation provides for all law enforcement in Oregon to be fully prepared to assist in protecting the safety of some of our most vulnerable citizens, while providing each police department or sheriff's office with the flexibility to determine what works best in the local jurisdiction. [2014 c.24 §1]
