(3) Each applicant shall submit with the application and shall continually maintain thereafter, until excused, proof of financial ability to promptly pay the wages of employees and other obligations specified in this section. The proof required in this subsection shall be in the form of a corporate surety bond of a company licensed to do such business in Oregon, a cash deposit or a deposit the equivalent of cash. For the purposes of this subsection, it shall be deemed sufficient compliance if the [farm] labor contractor procures a savings account at a bank or savings and loan institution in the name of the commissioner as trustee for the employees of the [farm] labor contractor and others as their interests may appear and delivers proof of the account and the ability to withdraw the funds to the commissioner under the terms of a bond approved by the commissioner. (a) Is assignable and must be included with an assignment of a wage claim, of any other appropriate claim or of a judgment thereon.

(b) May not be included in any [suit or] action against the [farm] labor contractor but must be exercised independently after first procuring a judgment or other form of adequate proof of liability established by rule and procedure under subsection (14) of this section establishing the [farm] labor contractor's liability for the claim.

(9)(a) The surety company or the commissioner shall make prompt and periodic payments on the [farm] labor contractor's liability up to the extent of the total sum of the bond or deposit.

(b) Payment shall be made based upon priority of wage claims over advances made by the construction property owner, the grower or producer of agricultural commodities or the owner or lessee of land intended to be used for the production of timber, for advances made to or on behalf of the [farm] labor contractor.

(c) Payment shall be made in full of all sums due to each person who presents adequate proof of the claim.

(11) The commissioner may not be prevented from accepting assignments of wage claims and enforcing liability against the surety on the bond or from applying the deposit to just wage claims filed with the commissioner.

(12) All claims against the bond or deposit shall be unenforceable unless request for payment of a judgment or other form of adequate proof of liability or a notice of the claim has been made by certified mail to the surety or the commissioner within six months from the end of the period for which the bond or deposit was executed and made.

(13) If the commissioner has received no notice as provided in subsection (12) of this section within six months after a [farm] labor contractor is no longer required to provide and maintain a surety bond or deposit, the commissioner shall terminate and surrender any bond or any deposit under the control of the commissioner to the person who is entitled thereto upon receiving appropriate proof of such entitlement.

(14) The commissioner shall adopt rules reasonably necessary for administration and enforcement of the provisions of this section and ORS 658.419.

(15) Every [farm] labor contractor required by this section or ORS 658.419 to furnish a surety bond or make a deposit in lieu [thereof] of a surety bond shall keep conspicuously posted upon the premises where employees working under the contractor are employed a notice, in both English and any other language used by the [farm] labor contractor to communicate with workers, specifying the contractor's compliance with the requirements of this section and ORS 658.419 and specifying the name and Oregon address of the surety on the bond or a notice that a deposit in lieu of the bond has been made with the commissioner together with the address of the commissioner.

(18) A person who cosigns with a [farm] labor contractor for a bond required by subsection (3) of this section or by ORS 658.419 is not personally or jointly and severally liable for unpaid wages above the amount of the bond solely because the person cosigned for the bond.

(19) The court may award reasonable attorney fees to the prevailing party in any action to enforce the provisions of this section or ORS 658.419.

SECTION 8. ORS 658.416 is amended to read:
