CHAPTER 619
AN ACT SB 171

Relating to children; creating new provisions; amending ORS 418.205, 418.215, 418.312, 419A.004 and 419B.443; and declaring an emergency.

Be It Enacted by the People of the State of Oregon:

SECTION 1. Authority to pay for qualified residential treatment programs. The Department of Human Services may engage and make reasonable payment for services of persons to make available, maintain and operate a child-caring agency, as defined in ORS 418.205, that is a qualified residential treatment program described in section 5 of this 2019 Act that provides residential care and treatment to a child, as defined in ORS 418.205, who, based on an independent assessment described in section 6 of this 2019 Act, requires specialized, evidence-based supports and services related to the effects of trauma or mental, emotional or behavioral health needs.

SECTION 2. Sections 3 to 7 of this 2019 Act are added to and made a part of ORS chapter 419B.

SECTION 3. Placement of child or ward in child-caring agency. (1) As used in this section, “congregate care residential setting” means any setting that cares for more than one child or ward and is not a setting described in ORS 418.205 (2)(b)(A), (D) or (E) or (9).

(2) The Department of Human Services may place a child or ward in a congregate care residential setting in this state only if the setting is a child-caring agency, as defined in ORS 418.205, a hospital, as defined in ORS 442.015, or a rural hospital, as defined in ORS 442.470.

SECTION 3a. Section 3 of this 2019 Act is amended to read:

Sec. 3. (1) As used in this section[,):
(a) “Congregate care residential setting” means any setting that cares for more than one child or ward and is not a setting described in ORS 418.205 (2)(b)(A), (D) or (E) or (9).

(b) “Sex trafficking” means the recruitment, harboring, transportation, provision, obtaining, patronizing or soliciting of a person under 18 years of age for the purpose of a commercial sex act, as defined in ORS 163.266, or the recruitment, harboring, transportation, provision or obtaining of a person over 18 years of age using force, fraud or coercion for the purpose of a commercial sex act, as defined in ORS 163.266.

(2) The Department of Human Services may place a child or ward in a congregate care residential setting in this state only if the setting is:

(a) A child-caring agency, as defined in ORS 418.205, a hospital, as defined in ORS 442.015, or a rural hospital, as defined in ORS 442.470; and

(b) A qualified residential treatment program described in section 5 of this 2019 Act.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (2) of this section, the department may place a child or ward in a child-caring agency that is not a qualified residential treatment program if:
(a) The child-caring agency is providing prenatal, postpartum or parenting supports to the child or ward.

(b) The child or ward is placed in an independent residence facility described in ORS 418.475 that is licensed by the department as a child-caring agency.

(c) The child or ward is, or is at risk of becoming, a victim of sex trafficking and the child-caring agency is providing high-quality residential care and supportive services to the child or ward.

(d) The child-caring agency is a residential care facility that is also licensed by the Oregon Health Authority and accredited by a national organization to provide psychiatric treatment to children.

(e) The child-caring agency is an adolescent residential drug and alcohol treatment program licensed or certified by the State of Oregon to provide residential care.

(f) The placement with the child-caring agency is for the purpose of placing the child or ward in a proctor foster home.

(g) The child-caring agency is a residential care facility licensed by the department that provides short-term assessment and stabilization services.

(h) The child-caring agency is a shelter-care home, as defined in ORS 418.470, that provides short-term assessment and stabilization services.

(i) The child-caring agency is a homeless, runaway or transitional living shelter licensed by the department that provides short-term assessment and stabilization services.

(4) The department may not place a child or ward in a residential care facility or shelter-care home described in subsection (3)(g) or (h) of this section:
(a) For more than 60 consecutive days or 90 cumulative days in a 12-month period; or

(b) If the residential care facility or shelter-care home also serves youth or youth offenders served by the county juvenile department or youth offenders committed to the custody of the Oregon Youth Authority by the court.

(5) The department may not place a child or ward in a homeless, runaway or transitional living shelter described in subsection (3)(i) of this section for more than 60 consecutive or 90 cumulative days in any 12-month period.

(6) Calculations of the number of days a child or ward is placed in a shelter-care home...
The Department of Human Services shall ensure that an independent, qualified individual assesses the strengths and needs of each child or ward the department places in a qualified residential treatment program described in section 6 of this 2019 Act.

(1) Provides residential care and treatment to a child who, based on an independent assessment described in section 6 of this 2019 Act, requires specialized, evidence-based, as defined by the Department of Human Services by rule, supports and services related to the effects of trauma or mental, emotional or behavioral health needs.

(2) Uses a trauma-informed treatment model that is designed to address the needs, including clinical needs as appropriate, of the child.

(3) Ensures that the staff at the facility includes licensed or registered nurses licensed under ORS chapter 678 and other licensed clinical staff who:

(a) Provide care within their licensed scope of practice;

(b) Are on site according to the treatment model identified in subsection (2) of this section; and

(c) Are available 24 hours per day and seven days per week.

(4) Facilitates the involvement of the child’s family, as defined in ORS 418.575, in the child’s treatment program, to the extent appropriate and in the child’s best interests.

(5) Facilitates outreach to the child’s family, as defined in ORS 418.575, documents how outreach is made and maintains contact information for any known biological relatives or fictive kin, as defined by the department by rule.

(6) Documents how the program integrates family into the child’s treatment process, including after discharge, and how sibling connections are maintained.

(7) Provides discharge planning and family-based after-care support for at least six months following the child’s discharge from the program.

(8) Is licensed and accredited in accordance with requirements adopted by the department by rule, consistent with federal licensure and accreditation requirements for qualified residential treatment programs.

SECTION 5. Qualified residential treatment program. A program is a qualified residential treatment program if it:

(1) Provides residential care and treatment to a child who, based on an independent assessment described in section 6 of this 2019 Act, requires specialized, evidence-based, as defined by the Department of Human Services by rule, supports and services related to the effects of trauma or mental, emotional or behavioral health needs.

(2) Uses a trauma-informed treatment model that is designed to address the needs, including clinical needs as appropriate, of the child.

(3) Ensures that the staff at the facility includes licensed or registered nurses licensed under ORS chapter 678 and other licensed clinical staff who:

(a) Provide care within their licensed scope of practice;

(b) Are on site according to the treatment model identified in subsection (2) of this section; and

(c) Are available 24 hours per day and seven days per week.

(4) Facilitates the involvement of the child’s family, as defined in ORS 418.575, in the child’s treatment program, to the extent appropriate and in the child’s best interests.

(5) Facilitates outreach to the child’s family, as defined in ORS 418.575, documents how outreach is made and maintains contact information for any known biological relatives or fictive kin, as defined by the department by rule.

(6) Documents how the program integrates family into the child’s treatment process, including after discharge, and how sibling connections are maintained.

(7) Provides discharge planning and family-based after-care support for at least six months following the child’s discharge from the program.

(8) Is licensed and accredited in accordance with requirements adopted by the department by rule, consistent with federal licensure and accreditation requirements for qualified residential treatment programs.
Court approval of placement.

If the setting recommended by the qualified individual conducting the assessment is different than the placement preferences of the family and permanency team and of the child or ward, the reasons why the preferences of the team and of the child or ward were not recommended.

If the qualified individual conducting the assessment determines the child or ward should not be placed in a foster family home, the qualified individual shall specify in writing the reasons why the needs of the child or ward cannot be met by the family of the child or ward or in a foster family home. A shortage or lack of foster family homes is not a valid reason for not placing a child or ward in a foster family home under this subsection. The qualified individual shall specify in writing why the recommended placement in a qualified residential treatment program is the setting that will provide the child or ward with the most effective and appropriate level of care in the least restrictive environment and how that placement is consistent with the short-term and long-term goals for the child or ward, as specified in the child’s or ward’s permanency plan.
(5)(a) The court shall enter an order approving or disapproving the placement and make specific determinations regarding the following:

(A) Whether the needs of the child or ward can be met through placement in a foster family home or in a proctor foster home as defined in ORS 418.205.

(B) If the court determines that the needs of the child or ward cannot be met through placement in a foster family home or proctor foster home, whether placement of the child or ward in the qualified residential treatment program:

(i) Provides the least restrictive setting to provide the most effective and appropriate level of care for the child or ward; and

(ii) Is consistent with the child’s or ward’s case plan.

(b) The court may receive testimony, reports or other material relating to the child’s or ward’s mental, physical and social history and prognosis without regard to the competency or relevancy of the testimony, reports or other material under the rules of evidence.

(6) The court shall enter an order under subsection (5) of this section no later than 60 days following the date the child or ward is placed in the qualified residential treatment program.

(7) If the court enters an order disapproving the child’s or ward’s placement, the department shall move the child or ward to a placement consistent with the court’s order no later than 30 days following the date the court enters the order.

SECTION 8. ORS 418.205 is amended to read:

418.205. As used in ORS 418.205 to 418.327, 418.470, 418.475, 418.590 to 418.970 and 418.992 to 418.998, unless the context requires otherwise:

(1) “Child” means an unmarried person under 21 years of age who resides in or receives care or services from a child-caring agency.

(2)(a) “Child-caring agency”;

(A) Means any private school, private agency or private organization providing:

(i) Day treatment for children with emotional disturbances;

(ii) Adoption placement services;

(iii) Residential care, including but not limited to foster care or residential treatment for children;

(iv) Residential care in combination with academic education and therapeutic care, including but not limited to treatment for emotional, behavioral or mental health disturbances;

(v) Outdoor youth programs; or

(vi) Other similar care or services for children.

(B) Includes the following:

(i) A shelter-care home that is not a foster home subject to ORS 418.625 to 418.645;

(ii) An independent residence facility as described in ORS 418.475;

(iii) A private residential boarding school; and

(iv) A child-caring facility as defined in ORS 418.950.

(b) “Child-caring agency” does not include:

(A) Residential facilities or foster care homes certified or licensed by the Department of Human Services under ORS 443.400 to 443.455, 443.830 and 443.835 for children receiving developmental disability services;

(B) Any private agency or organization facilitating the provision of respite services for parents pursuant to a properly executed power of attorney under ORS 109.056. For purposes of this subparagraph, “respite services” means the voluntary assumption of short-term care and control of a minor child without compensation or reimbursement of expenses for the purpose of providing a parent in crisis with relief from the demands of ongoing care of the parent’s child;

(C) A youth job development organization as defined in ORS 344.415;

(D) A shelter-care home that is a foster home subject to ORS 418.625 to 418.645;

(E) A foster home subject to ORS 418.625 to 418.645;

(F) A facility that exclusively serves individuals 18 years of age and older; or

(G) A facility that primarily serves both adults and children but requires that any child must be accompanied at all times by at least one custodial parent or guardian.

(3) “Child-caring facility” has the meaning given that term in ORS 418.950.

(4) “Governmental agency” means an executive, legislative or judicial agency, department, board, commission, authority, institution or instrumentality of this state or of a county, municipality or other political subdivision of this state.

(5) “Independent residence facility” means a facility established or certified under ORS 418.475.

(6)(a) “Outdoor youth program” means a program that provides, in an outdoor living setting, services to children who have behavioral problems, mental health problems or problems with abuse of alcohol or drugs.

(b) “Outdoor youth program” does not include any program, facility or activity:

(A) Operated by a governmental entity;

(B) Operated or affiliated with the Oregon Youth Conservation Corps;

(C) Licensed by the Department of Human Services under other authority of the department; or

(D) Operated by a youth job development organization as defined in ORS 344.415.

(7) “Private” means not owned, operated or administered by any governmental agency or unit.

(8) “Private residential boarding school” means either of the following as the context requires:

(a) A child-caring agency that is a private school that provides residential care in combination with academic education and therapeutic care, including but not limited to treatment for emotional, behavioral or mental health disturbances; or
(b) A private school providing residential care that is primarily engaged in educational work under ORS 418.327.

(9) “Proctor foster home” means a foster home certified by a child-caring agency under ORS 418.248 that is not subject to ORS 418.625 to 418.645.

(10) “Provider of care or services for children” means a person, entity or organization that provides care or services to children, regardless of whether the child is in the custody of the Department of Human Services, and that does not otherwise meet the definition of, or requirements for, a child-caring agency. “Provider of care or services for children” includes a proctor foster home certified by a child-caring agency under ORS 418.248.

(11) “Qualified residential treatment program” means a program described in section 5 of this 2019 Act.

(12) “Shelter-care home” has the meaning given that term in ORS 418.470.

SECTION 9. ORS 418.312 is amended to read:

ORS 418.312. (1) The Department of Human Services may not require any parent or legal guardian to transfer legal custody of a child in order to have the child placed in a child-caring agency under ORS 418.205 to 418.327, 418.470, 418.475, 418.480 to 418.500, 418.950 to 418.970 and 418.992 to 418.998 in a foster home, group home or institutional child care setting, when the sole reason for the placement is the need to obtain services for the child’s emotional, behavioral or mental disorder or developmental or physical disability. In all such cases, the child shall be placed pursuant to a voluntary placement agreement. When a child is placed pursuant to a voluntary placement agreement, the department shall have responsibility for the child’s placement and care.

(2) If a child is placed pursuant to a voluntary placement agreement in a qualified residential treatment program described in section 5 of this 2019 Act, the placement is subject to judicial approval under section 7 of this 2019 Act.

(3)(a) [When] If a child remains in voluntary placement for more than 180 days, the juvenile court shall make a judicial determination, within the first 180 days of the placement, that the placement is in the best interests of the child.

(b) If a child remains in voluntary placement for more than 12 months, [In addition,] the juvenile court shall hold a permanency hearing as provided in ORS 419B.476 no later than 14 months after the child’s original voluntary placement, and not less frequently than once every 12 months thereafter during the continuation of the child’s original voluntary placement, to determine the future status of the child.

(4) As used in this section, “voluntary placement agreement” means a binding, written agreement between the department and the parent or legal guardian of a minor child that does not transfer legal custody to the department but that specifies, at a minimum, the legal status of the child and the rights and obligations of the parent or legal guardian, the child and the department while the child is in placement.

NOTE: Section 10 was deleted by amendment. Subsequent sections were not renumbered.

ORS 419B.443. (1) An agency described in ORS
419B.440 shall file the reports required by ORS 419B.440 (1)(b) at the end of the initial six-month period and no less frequently than each six months thereafter. The agency shall file reports more frequently if the court so orders. The reports [shall] must include, but not be limited to:

(a) A description of the problems or offenses that necessitated the placement of the child or ward with the agency;

(b) A description of the type and an analysis of the effectiveness of the care, treatment and supervision that the agency has provided for the child or ward;

(c) A list of all placements made since the child or ward has been in the guardianship or legal cus-dody of an agency and the length of time the child or ward has spent in each placement;

(d) For a child or ward in substitute care, a list of all schools the child or ward has attended since the child or ward has been in the guardianship or legal custody of the agency, the length of time the child or ward has spent in each school and, for a child or ward 14 years of age or older, the number of high school credits the child or ward has earned;

(e) A list of dates of face-to-face contacts the assigned case worker has had with the child or ward since the child or ward has been in the guardianship or legal custody of the agency and, for a child or ward in substitute care, the place of each contact;

(f) For a child or ward in substitute care, a list of the visits the child or ward has had with the child's or ward's parents or siblings since the child or ward has been in the guardianship or legal custody of the agency and the place and date of each visit;

(g) For a child or ward in substitute care, the steps the Department of Human Services is taking to ensure that:

is following the reasonable and prudent parent standard; and

(B) The child or ward has regular, ongoing op-opportunities to engage in age-appropriate or developmentally appropriate activities, including consultation with the child or ward in an age-appropriate manner about the opportunities the child or ward has to participate in the activities;

(h) A description of agency efforts to return the child or ward to the parental home or find permanent placement for the child or ward, including, when applicable, efforts to assist the parents in remedying factors which contributed to the removal of the child or ward from the home;

(i) A proposed treatment plan or proposed continuation or modification of an existing treatment plan, including a proposed visitation plan or proposed continuation or modification of an existing visitation plan and a description of efforts expected of the child or ward and the parents to remedy factors that have prevented the child or ward from safely returning home within a reasonable time;

(j) If continued substitute care is recommended, a proposed timetable for the child's or ward's return home or other permanent placement or a justification of why extended substitute care is necessary;

(k) If the child or ward has been placed in foster care outside the state, whether the child or ward has been visited not less frequently than every six months by a state or private agency[,]; and

(L) If the child or ward is placed in a qualified residential treatment program:
(A) A determination that the strengths and needs of the child or ward cannot be met through placement in a foster home, that the placement in a qualified residential treatment program provides the least restrictive setting to provide the most effective and appropriate level of care for the child or ward, and that the placement is consistent with the short-term and long-term goals for the child or ward, as specified in the permanency plan for the child or ward;

(B) Documentation of the specific treatment or service needs that will be met for the child or ward in the placement and the length of time the child or ward is expected to need the treatment or services; and

(C) Documentation of the efforts made by the agency to prepare the child or ward to return home or be placed with a fit and willing relative, a legal guardian, an adoptive parent or in a less restrictive foster home setting.

(2) In addition to the information required in a report made under subsection (1) of this section, for a ward who is in the legal custody of the department pursuant to ORS 418F.337 but who will be or recently has been placed in the physical custody of a parent or a person who was appointed the ward’s legal guardian prior to placement of the ward in the legal custody of the department, a report required under ORS 419B.440 (1)(a) shall include:

(a) A recommended timetable for dismissal of the department’s legal custody of the ward and termination of the wardship; and

(b) A description of the services that the department will provide to the ward and the ward’s physical custodian to eliminate the need for the department to continue legal custody.

(3) In addition to the information required in a report made under subsection (1) of this section, if the report is made by the department under ORS 419B.440 (1)(b)(C), the report shall include:

(a) A recommended timetable for dismissal of the department’s legal custody of the ward and termination of the wardship; and

(b) A description of the services that the department has provided to the ward and the ward’s physical custodian to eliminate the need for the department to continue legal custody.

(4) Notwithstanding the requirements of subsection (1) of this section, reports need not contain information contained in prior reports.

SECTION 13a. If Senate Bill 181 becomes law, ORS 418.215 is amended to read:

418.215. (1) A child-caring agency that provides care or services to a child may not be licensed, certified or authorized under ORS 418.205 to 418.327, 418.470, 418.475 or 418.950 to 418.970 unless the agency:

(a) Is duly incorporated under the corporation laws of any state; or

(b) Is a county program.

SECTION 14. Report. No later than September 1, 2019, the Department of Human Services and the Oregon Health Authority shall submit a joint report, to the interim committees of the Legislative Assembly relating to children, summarizing the department's plan to develop appropriate in-state placements for Oregon children and wards and to minimize out-of-state placements of children and wards. At a minimum, the report must:

(1) Include a description of the types of programs and services needed to serve children and wards in Oregon.

(2) Include a description of the barriers to implementing programs and services in this state.

(3) Include a proposed plan and timeline for safely returning to Oregon children and wards who the department or the authority have placed in out-of-state placements.

(4) If the joint report includes a recommendation to continue out-of-state placements:

(a) Include recommendations for additional staffing levels and budgetary requirements, including travel costs for staff, children and wards and family members, to safely manage the out-of-state program and provide adequate oversight for Oregon children and wards; and

(b) Include recommendations to ensure out-of-state placements do not disproportionately impact children and wards based on characteristics such as race, gender, cultural differences or disabilities.

(5) Identify any barriers to health care and mental health services for foster children and wards served by coordinated care organizations that may increase the number of children and wards leaving the state or otherwise put children and wards at risk of crisis.

(6) Include a list of the name, location and parent company of each out-of-state placement in which the department placed an Oregon child or ward during the time period from January 1, 2014, through July 1, 2019.
(9) Include recommendations about the needs of Oregon providers to successfully implement the federal qualified residential treatment program model, including but not limited to:
(a) Any rate adjustments that are necessary to fund newly required nursing services, clinical services and after-care services;
(b) Costs for financing vacancies needed within Oregon’s residential care system to ensure availability of placements that are suitable for the needs identified for children and wards, and to ensure adequate options for appropriate crisis placements; and
(c) A summary of the potential impact of policy and rate adjustments required to implement the federal qualified residential treatment program model on county juvenile programs and the Oregon Youth Authority.

SECTION 15. Website information. The Department of Human Services shall make the information described in section 4 of this 2019 Act first available on the department’s website no later than September 1, 2019.
