

Chapter 412

Aid to the Blind and to the Disabled

412.025

ATTY. GEN. OPINIONS: Assistance limited to available funds, 1962-64, p 409.

412.035

ATTY. GEN. OPINIONS: Blind person employed for compensation at blind trades school and living in private home or private boarding house as an "inmate," 1936-38, p 150; eligibility of persons residing in the blind trade school who are maintained by the school either as working at trade or as members of the old peoples' home operated in connection with the school, and eligibility of paying roomers or boarders, 1942-44, p 282; validity of residence requirement, 1960-62, p 347; application of durational residency requirements to medical assistance program, 1964-66, p 400; constitutionality of state durational residence requirements, (1969) Vol 34, p 694.

412.045

CASE CITATIONS: Sims v. Juras, (1969) 313 F Supp 1212.

412.055

ATTY. GEN. OPINIONS: Assistance limited to available funds, 1962-64, p 409.

412.065

ATTY. GEN. OPINIONS: Assistance if matching funds are not provided, 1962-64, p 473.

412.075

NOTES OF DECISIONS

Statutes and regulations, which authorize and require termination or suspension of aid to recipients without affording recipients a hearing prior to the withdrawal of such assistance, deny due process under U.S. Const., Am. 14. Sims v. Juras, (1969) 313 F Supp 1212.

ATTY. GEN. OPINIONS: Assistance limited to available funds, 1962-64, p 409.

412.510

ATTY. GEN. OPINIONS: Effect of oral representations regarding income, 1960-62, p 420.

412.520

CASE CITATIONS: Sims v. Juras, (1969) 313 F Supp 1212.

ATTY. GEN. OPINIONS: Application of durational residency requirements to medical assistance program, 1964-66, p 400; constitutionality of state durational residence requirements, (1969) Vol 34, p 694.

412.530

ATTY. GEN. OPINIONS: Effect of oral representations regarding income, 1960-62, p 420; assistance limited to available funds, 1962-64, p 409.

412.570

ATTY. GEN. OPINIONS: Assistance if matching funds are not provided, 1962-64, p 473.

412.580

NOTES OF DECISIONS

Statutes and regulations, which authorize and require termination or suspension of aid to recipients without affording recipients a hearing prior to the withdrawal of such assistance, deny due process under U.S. Const., Am. 14. Sims v. Juras, (1969) 313 F Supp 1212.

ATTY. GEN. OPINIONS: Assistance limited to available funds, 1962-64, p 409.