NOTES OF DECISIONS

Where chambermaid found bills secreted in hotel dresser drawer by unascertainable guest, innkeeper became involuntary bailee and had no option to refuse to hold the bills. Jackson v. Steinberg, (1949) 186 Or 129, 200 P2d 376, 205 P2d 562.

· Making record of the serial numbers of new bills not shown to be marked for identification, where bills were found secreted in hotel dresser by unascertainable guest and later deposited in innkeeper's private account, was sufficient to protect the true owner's interest. Id.
