

Chapter 187

Holidays; Standard of Time

Chapter 187

ATTY. GEN. OPINIONS: Restriction of public service by closing state office, 1962-64, p 283.

187.010

NOTES OF DECISIONS

A notice of contest of election is not technically a process and is good when served on a legal holiday. Whitney v. Blackburn, (1889) 17 Or 564, 571, 21 P 874, 11 Am St Rep 857.

FURTHER CITATIONS: Babbitt v. Pacco Investors Corp., (1967) 246 Or 261, 425 P2d 489.

ATTY. GEN. OPINIONS: Authority of justice of the peace to accept pleas and impose sentences on Sunday, 1948-50, p 289; election of directors of irrigation district on legal holiday, 1958-60, p 53.

187.020

NOTES OF DECISIONS

A series of days specially designated by the Governor as legal holidays on account of a financial panic held not to be within an exception in a particular contract. Schwanner v. Kerr, (1909) 170 Fed 92.

ATTY. GEN. OPINIONS: Form of proclamation declaring public holiday, 1922-24, p 191; proclamation by a mayor declaring a holiday as affecting duties of the Superintendent of Banks, 1932-34, p 113; authority of a county court to declare a legal holiday, 1942-44, p 478.

187.110

ATTY. GEN. OPINIONS: Power of local government to establish a standard of time, 1948-50, p 213, 1950-52, p 188; construing "contiguous," 1960-62, p 220.