NOTES OF DECISIONS

I. Under former similar statute

An elector, having changed residence, was not entitled to registration after county clerk closed registration books to voters pursuant to ordinance calling special election within municipality. Roy v. Beveridge, (1928) 125 Or 92, 266 P 230.

Challenged electors, not having been registered at time provided by law, were not qualified to vote at special election. Ivie v. City of Oceanlake, (1956) 208 Or 417, 302 P2d 221.

The former statute was held constitutional as applied to a special election where notice of the election was given at same time right to register was suspended under statute. Id.
