NOTES OF DECISIONS

This section prior to the 1971 amendment did not violate the rule against super-imposing one municipality on another where a city included within a newly created district had not exercised its right to establish a park. State v. James, (1950) 189 Or 268, 219 P2d 756.

Defects in the creation of a recreation district were cured by validating statute where the district was a de facto organization and the defects were dispensable jurisdictional acts. Id.
