

Chapter 326

State Administration of Education

Chapter 326

ATTY. GEN. OPINIONS: Constitutionality of board's authority over Superintendent of Public Instruction, 1966-68, p 197.

326.011

CASE CITATIONS: State Bd. of Educ. v. Fasold, (1968) 251 Or 274, 445 P2d 489.

326.021

ATTY. GEN. OPINIONS: Same person as teacher and member of State Board of Education, 1960-62, p 242.

326.051

NOTES OF DECISIONS

Under former similar statute, the rules of the State Board of Education were part of the provisions of a teacher's contract. Foreman v. Sch. Dist. 25, (1916) 81 Or 587, 159 P 1155, 1168; Bump v. Union Sch. Dist. 3, (1933) 144 Or 390, 24 P2d 330.

The legislature had power to create the board and give it authority to adopt and enforce rules. State Bd. of Educ. v. Fasold, (1968) 251 Or 274, 445 P2d 489.

FURTHER CITATIONS: School Dist. 1 v. Bruck, (1960) 225 Or 496, 358 P2d 283; State ex rel. Musa v. Minear, (1965) 240 Or 315, 401 P2d 36.

ATTY. GEN. OPINIONS: Authority to disburse funds available under the National School Lunch Act to both public and nonprofit private schools in accordance with an agreement between the state agency and the Federal Department of Agriculture, 1944-46, p 501; proper agencies to enter into school lunch program contracts, 1948-50, p 275; applicability of standards to private and parochial schools, power of board to adopt separate standards for private and public schools, 1956-58, p 73; applicability of municipal building code to public school building, 1958-60, p 68; authority to conduct testing program, 1958-60, p 70; authority to accept funds available under National Defense Education Act, 1958-60, p 101; application of county building code requirements, 1962-64, p 136; constitutionality of election of superintendent by the board, 1962-64, p 153; rural school district participation, 1962-64, p 218; employment contracts with state employes, 1962-64, p 321; when district fails to maintain and operate a school, 1962-64, p 332; board acting as conciliator between teachers and districts, 1964-66, p 28; contracting with private schools for vocational training, 1964-66, p 82; effect of resolution providing tenure and compensation of the Superintendent of Public Instruction, 1964-66, p 187; limits on compulsory attendance law by school's authority to suspend or expel, 1964-66, p 444; effect of Oregon Constitution on authority of state board to include parochial schools in plan to administer federal aid funds for instructional material, 1966-68, p 14.

326.061

ATTY. GEN. OPINIONS: Board acting as conciliator between teachers and districts, 1964-66, p 28.

326.111

ATTY. GEN. OPINIONS: Constitutionality of board's authority over Superintendent of Public Instruction, 1966-68, p 197; authority to implement tax-sheltered, deferred compensation plans, (1970) Vol 35, p 153.

326.310

CASE CITATIONS: State Bd. of Educ. v. Fasold, (1968) 251 Or 274, 445 P2d 489.

ATTY. GEN. OPINIONS: Where matter appealed to Superintendent of Public Instruction and decided by him, taken to the State Board of Education, 1928-30, p 243; employment contracts with state employes, 1962-64, p 321; constitutionality of board's authority over Superintendent of Public Instruction, 1966-68, p 197.

326.320

ATTY. GEN. OPINIONS: Providing contract forms with provision that teachers' salaries shall be paid in 12 monthly instalments, 1944-46, p 504; charges for teacher workshop, 1962-64, p 146.