

Chapter 377

Highway Beautification; Motorist Information Signs

Chapter 377

NOTES OF DECISIONS

A former statute extending a grace period to certain nonconforming signs but not to others was unconstitutional as denying equal protection of the laws under U.S. Const., Am 14, §1. Webb v. State, (1959) 217 Or 1, 340 P2d 968.

ATTY. GEN. OPINIONS: Placing on the highways tube boxes as receptacles for newspapers and bearing the newspaper name thereon, 1940-42, p 136; interpretation of term "throughway," 1954-56, p 180; political campaign cards and posters, 1954-56, p 212; defining "total length" of sign and "immediately adjacent", 1962-64, p 440; construing "public highway" in scenic area law, 1964-66, p 283; authority of commission to comply with Highway Beautification Act, 1964-66, p 336.