

Chapter 676

Health Professions Generally

Chapter 676

ATTY. GEN. OPINIONS: Use of "doctor" in advertisement by practitioner of healing art, 1956-58, p 171; restricting advertising by chiropractors to statutory limits, 1964-66, p 300.

676.010 to 676.090

ATTY. GEN. OPINIONS: Use of national board science examination by state board, 1962-64, p 30.

676.010

ATTY. GEN. OPINIONS: Application by chiropractor for naturopath's license without first taking the standard examination, 1936-38, p 372; effect of this section on applicants for license to practice chiropractic, 1938-40, p 275; prior licensing as chiropractor as excusing one from standard examination in fundamental sciences, 1942-44, p 368; chiropractors licensed in another state before fundamental science law became effective as required to obtain certificate of proficiency in fundamental sciences in this state, 1942-44, p 404.

676.030

ATTY. GEN. OPINIONS: Meaning of term "elementary," 1932-34, p 406; requirement that chiropractor whose license has been forfeited for nonpayment of license fees take examination, 1932-34, p 713; requirement that applicant failing examination in fundamental sciences take another examination in not less than the five required subjects, 1934-36, p 695; reinstatement of lapsed license of practitioner of healing arts who has no certificate of proficiency, 1938-40, p 305; excluding licensed osteopathic physician from district hospital, 1950-52, p 3; use of national board science examination by state board, 1962-64, p 30.

676.050

ATTY. GEN. OPINIONS: Use of national board science examination by state board, 1962-64, p 30.

676.060

ATTY. GEN. OPINIONS: Use of national board science examination by state board, 1962-64, p 30.

676.110

ATTY. GEN. OPINIONS: Use of "doctor" by practitioner of healing art generally, 1936-38, p 397; only persons licensed to practice medicine as using letters "M.D.," 1940-42, p 411; nursing as a "healing art," 1948-50, p 287; "physician" as restricted to medical physicians and surgeons, 1952-54, p 196; use of assumed names by chiropodists, 1952-54, p 249; use of title "doctor" by practitioner of healing art in advertisement, 1956-58, p 171; use of more than one title after name, 1956-58, p 239; necessity of using "podiatrist" with "D.S.C.," 1964-66, p 5; propriety of chiropractor using coined word to designate a specialty, 1964-66, p 300; defining "healing arts," 1966-68, p 294.

676.120

ATTY. GEN. OPINIONS: Use of assumed names by chiropodists, 1952-54, p 249; use of deceased predecessor's name by licensee purchasing business, 1962-64, p 477; propriety of chiropractor using coined word to designate a specialty, 1964-66, p 300.