House of Representatives
State Capitol - 900 Court Street NE
Salem, Oregon 97301

Welcome to the House!

On January, 2021 the House of Representatives will convene for the start of the 81st Legislative Assembly. For over 160 years, representatives have gathered from all corners of the state to collaborate on issues impacting Oregonians.

Your new position is an honor that comes with responsibility – to your constituents, to your colleagues, and to Oregon. And along with this position comes a complicated set of rules, processes and procedures that you will need to learn in order to be effective in your role.

There will be considerable in-depth training at the beginning of session, but you likely have many initial questions about how to get started in this new position. Enclosed, you will find lots of practical information to get you started as a State Representative.

The start of session can be hectic, but you will have a lot of support to get through it. Please know that the Chief Clerk's Office is here for you if you have any questions or concerns as we prepare for the upcoming legislative session.

Sincerely,

Timothy G. Sekerak
Chief Clerk of the House

What to do in order to get paid and enrolled in benefits

Now that you have won your election, here are the details you need to know so you can get paid and enrolled in benefits.

1. Your first paycheck will be on February 1, 2021 if you complete the On-Boarding process by the end of January. Everyone is required to sign up for electronic deposit. On February 1st your first paycheck may, however, be a paper check.
2. Salary, per diem and expense allowance details are all set forth in ORS 171.072. Currently, members are paid:
 - $2,736 per month for salary during session and interim,
 - $151 per day for per diem during session and for committee meetings during interim,
 - $0.575 per mile for mileage when required to attend committee meetings, and
 - an interim expense allowance between $450 - $1,025 per month, depending on the geographic size of their district.
3. You must attend an On-Boarding Session in 2020, dates and times TBD. You also must enter all your information in Workday, the branch's human resources information system, prior to attending. Employee Services can assist you with any questions you may have about entering your information in the Workday system. Required documentation for employment is completed in Workday as well. You will be required to present two pieces of identification that will allow you to receive a salary.
4. Session per diem is included in your monthly paycheck. Please inform Employee Services about your "tax home" selection if you do not want per diem included as taxable income.
5. You will also have an opportunity to ask questions related to your benefit enrollment options during onboarding. Coverage is effective February 1st, as long as you have enrolled (signed and dated) no later than the end of January.
6. Employee Services will reach out to you prior to your scheduled onboarding to go over any additional information necessary or to answer any questions. If you need assistance prior to onboarding, please call or email Cedar McMurrin at 503-986-1371 or cedar.mcmurrin@oregonlegislature.gov.
7. During onboarding you will also have an opportunity to talk with:
 - a. Information Services about any technology questions and needs;
 - b. Legislative Equity Officer to learn about the branch's Harassment-Free Workplace rule; and
 - c. Facilities staff to receive your building access information.

Ordering Stationery

You have an exciting new title: STATE REPRESENTATIVE! Now you need stationery to reflect your important role in shaping Oregon's future and to conduct day to day official business.

You will want business cards, letterhead, envelopes and maybe even notecards. Standard orders take approximately 4-5 business days to receive.

Please call the Chief Clerk's office to set up a time to visit about your options and to place an order.

Services and Supplies Account

Requesting Approval for Payment from S&S Account

Members incur expenses performing the functions of their position. Some of these expenses are allowed to be reimbursed or funded through expenditures from your Services and Supplies Account defined in House Rule 16.01.

Financial Services will process authorized and approved payments and deduct those funds from the member's Services & Supplies Account each month.

The process to make an expenditure is as follows: (Note: if you have a question whether an expense is permitted or not, prior to purchase please consult with the Clerk of the House.)

- 1) Incur an expense. This creates an invoice, receipt, statement or memo of which the original is submitted for payment or reimbursement. This document becomes a public record once submitted for reimbursement.
- 2) Generate a completed Approval for Payment (AFP) form. The Chief Clerk's Office will be happy to assist you in this or you can find a blank copy of this form on the House intranet. Attach original documentation to the completed AFP and proceed to step three.
- 3) Obtain Signatures.
 - a) The Member needs to authorize their approval by their signature. The signature may appear on the AFP, the invoice, receipt, statement, or memo. Then:
 - b) The Chief Clerk needs to approve the expense and sign. Send the AFP and documents to the Chief Clerk of the House for all Representative office expenditures. Caucus offices have authorized designees for Caucus Office related expenses which do not go through the CCO.
- 4) The approved AFP and documentation is forwarded to Financial Services to be processed. A check will be issued to whomever needs to be reimbursed (e.g., member, staff, vendor).
 - a) Unless specific documents need to be mailed with the check. (Please make a note of this to Financial Services along with the request).
 - b) Checks will be hand delivered to your office during session and mailed during the interim, please make a request to Financial Services regarding any desired alternatives.

Over draws are not permitted. Please ensure you have sufficient funds in your account, and answers in advance to any questions you have, so that your office runs smoothly. Any amount expended in excess of your S&S allocation is a debt owed to the state recovered from your district interim allowance added to your state paycheck.

TECHNOLOGY RESOURCES

The following are just a few technology resources available to you as a State Legislator:

Here are a few details you need to know about telephones in your Capitol office.

Speaker of the House

State Capitol Building, Room 269
503-986-1200

One of the first orders of business during the organizational session will be to elect a Speaker of the House for the Assembly (two years). The Speaker presides over the Oregon House of Representatives and enforces all rules, laws and regulations applicable to the body – preserving order and decorum in the House chamber. The Speaker is an elected officer of the House as well as a Constitutional officer and serves at the pleasure of all 60 members of the House.

The Speaker of the House is responsible for the overall administration of the House of Representatives. Much of this work is coordinated with the Chief Clerk and the two caucus offices. Additionally, the Speaker works with the President of the Senate on branch-wide administrative and management issues (e.g. the legislative budget, building and infrastructure and other various items).

A major component of the Speaker's duties involves working with committees. This begins with appointing committee membership, including which representatives will serve as the chair and vice chair(s). It also involves referring bills to committees – once a bill is introduced in the House, the Speaker is responsible for determining which committee(s) will have purview over a bill. Finally, the Speaker's work with committees involves coordinating with chairs and committee staff to ensure the committees are properly managed and that they execute their functions appropriately.

Another component of the Speaker's duties is to make any appointments to committees, work groups, task forces, boards, commissions or similar bodies as designated by statute. This sometimes involves joint appointments with the Senate or making recommendations to the Governor for their ultimate appointment. It can also mean the appointment of a sitting legislator or of a member of the public depending on the specific statute and appointment.

Caucus Offices

House Democratic Leader
 State Capitol Building, Room H295
 503-986-1900

House Republican Leader
 State Capitol Building, Room H395
 503-986-1400

The House Democratic Leader and the House Republican Leader (often referred to as “caucus leaders”) are elected by the membership of their respective caucuses. The caucus leaders manage their respective caucus offices in an effort to provide additional services and support for the elected members of their party.

While each caucus may organize the functions of their caucus office differently there are general services that each caucus office provides. A major function of the caucus offices is policy research and legislative bill management. Policy analysts within the caucus offices help members by researching concepts, monitoring committees, working with Legislative Counsel to draft bills and amendments, and keeping them apprised of issues that arise in and out of session.

Another important function of the caucus offices is to provide support to members when it comes to constituent services (helping Oregonians navigate through issues relating to state government). Additionally, the caucus offices help the caucus leader and individual members with communications and media relations.

Finally, the caucus leaders help manage the overall administration of caucus issues such as scheduling meetings and events, offering support to caucus member staff, and assisting with whatever other issues might arise during a member’s time in office.

Brian McKinley, OLEOO Director

The Oregon Legislative and Education Outreach Office offers a specialized civics experience tailored to any and all Oregonians. The OLEOO Office can produce a program for any age and size group from Preschooler to Senior Citizen and everyone in-between! Please contact our office with any educational and outreach requests - we are here to make civics education fun and accessible to everyone!

Civics.Education@oregonlegislature.gov

Note: All programs and offerings are subject to COVID-19 restrictions.

Honorary Page Program

Both the House of Representatives and Senate Honorary Page Programs offer the traditional one-day page experience. While there are no changes in the Senate program, the House program will be incorporated into the Legislative Page program and participants will take part in that day's scheduled Legislative Page events and duties.

Oregon Legislative Page Program

The Legislative Page Program provides a week-long experience for participating students focusing on the functioning of the Legislative Assembly and offering civics instruction.

Legislative Interns

A new program providing college Juniors and Seniors an immersive, in-depth learning experience like no other. Applicants will be screened by their colleges then hired through OLEOO. Benefits will include:

- College coursework/credit
- Real world experience
- Bi-weekly supervising visits by college staff
- Mentoring and supervision by OLEOO staff
- Special GALLA classes tailored for interns

Note: This program does not replace the current intern process employed by the Legislative Assembly.

Government And Legislative Learning Academy (GALLA)

The Government And Legislative Learning Academy (GALLA) is the umbrella program for all OLEOO programs. GALLA provides opportunities for children, youth, young adults and adults to learn, interact and understand attributes of civics, history, legislative education and civil leadership, including but not limited to:

- Legislative Procedure
- The Function of Bureaucracy
- Decorum, Civility and Non-Partisanship
- The Oregon Process and how it relates to Federal Processes

The OLEOO Office utilizes a multitiered approach designed to prepare students to engage in the community process, educate adults and provide civics education and information support for Oregon's cumulative population.

Citizen Education and Outreach (CEO)

The CEO program is a tool for the legislative assembly to reach out to adult groups, organizations, elected bodies and/or other groups that may benefit from direct interaction with a staffer from the Legislative Assembly. The CEO program is available to Oregonians from any part of the state by request only. Once this request is received, the OLEOO staffer will plan a visit and/or presentation on any desired topic related to civics, history, Oregon government or general information. For more information on this program or to request a workshop, please email Civics.Education@oregonlegislature.gov

Experiential Learning Programs (ELP)

The ELP has been developed for Oregon classrooms that seek an in-depth exploration of the Oregon legislative process as well as a hands-on civics experience. There are four options available for this outreach program:

1. Oregon Youth Legislature
This program aims to provide our Oregon youth experience with various types of leadership, critical thinking, and public speaking that will help them to become active participants in our modern democratic society. Please note that this program remains under development with civics partners around the state and may not be fully accessible in the 2021 Session.
2. Oregon legislative civics exploration and hands-on experience
This is a guided journey through the legislative process of our unique Oregon system. A packet of materials will be provided to participating classrooms or groups and the OLEOO Director will be available for in-classroom or email support to these materials. The final experiential event will be a simulated House floor session at the capitol or at the participants location.
3. A general civics exploration and hands-on experience
Much like the Oregon specific experience, this option will be provided by the OLEOO Office as an interactive, experiential program culminating in a simulation-based exercise.
4. Various non-profit civics programs
Oregon has a myriad of civics programs that a student may participate in. The OLEOO Office will be promoting and assisting in making these programs as successful in Oregon as possible.

GETTING LEGISLATION DRAFTED

Getting Legislation Drafted

The Office of Legislative Counsel (LC) is your law firm and your resource for getting bills and amendments to bills prepared. Legislative rules and customs require LC to prepare all bills and amendments.

To request a bill, you simply need to contact us and explain the problem you are trying to solve and the solution to the problem that you are proposing. You do not need to supply us with statutory language; a common-sense explanation of the problem and solution is often the best way to ensure that you receive a bill that does what you want. You may also direct us to work with a lobbyist, stakeholder or outside expert in developing your bill.

The 20 attorneys at LC specialize in different subject areas, and are available to answer your questions about the state of the law and the constitutionality of proposals being considered by the Legislative Assembly. LC attorneys may provide informal legal advice or give written opinions answering your legal questions. The list of attorneys and subject-matter assignments is available here <https://www.oregonlegislature.gov/lc/Pages/LegalStaff.aspx>

LC is a nonpartisan office. All of the work we do on your behalf is confidential, though you are free to disclose that work at any time.

General information about LC is available here: <https://www.oregonlegislature.gov/lc>

Contact information and forms:

Receiving Drafted Legislation

When can I expect the draft that I requested to be delivered?

We strive to provide drafts of measures promptly. However, we typically receive over 4,100 requests for draft measures for legislative sessions in odd-numbered years. Due to the volume of requests, we may be unable to acknowledge receipt of each request individually. However, we will send you a weekly report of the requests that we have received from you (docket report). The report will list each request by subject and will provide a docket number or "LC number" and the name of the attorney who has been assigned the responsibility for drafting the measure. Please review the report and contact us if your docket report is missing a request.

Each attorney who is assigned to draft your requested measures will strive to complete your request as soon as possible. However, we may be able to produce your draft earlier if you can provide with your request:

1. A clear statement, in person, by phone or in writing, of:
 - The problem the measure is addressing, including background and context.
 - The solution to the problem that you wish the measure to implement.
 - The barriers to achieving the goal of the measure, including statutory barriers, if known. If the measure relates to the action of an agency, barriers to achieving the goal may include the agency's reluctance to exercise its discretion under existing law or the agency's interpretation of existing law.
2. The name and a mobile number for a single contact person, if not you, who is knowledgeable about the concept, who has the authority to answer questions and who will respond quickly to questions from the drafting attorney.

If we need additional information to produce the draft, we will make every effort to contact you or the person you have designated for the needed information. However, many times the drafting deadlines do not allow us to make repeated attempts at contact or to do extensive research. Therefore, it may take us significantly longer to produce your draft, and there is a greater chance that the draft may not reflect your intent, if your request:

1. Provides only some proposed language for a measure without a detailed explanation of what the language is intended to accomplish.
2. Has not been fully developed.
3. Asks the drafting attorney to work with two or more stakeholders who have divergent or inconsistent interests.
4. Uses jargon or technical terms that are not defined in your request.

Also, there are certain types of legislative concepts that generally take us more time to capture in a draft of a measure. Those include:

1. Concepts involving big, new ideas.
2. Creating a new agency, abolishing an existing agency or transferring significant functions from one agency to another agency.
3. Extensive recommendations from a task force or work group report.
4. Model laws from a national organization or association.
5. Concepts based on laws from another state.

FILING DRAFTED LEGISLATION (LC Drafts) WITH THE CHIEF CLERK'S OFFICE

1. During pre-session filing, you need two copies of the LC (the Legislative Concept) and one bill back (the signature sheet) for each measure introduction. Once session begins only one LC and one bill back is required for introduction.
2. LC drafts should be printed on "clean" paper (without other, unrelated text). While we encourage you to print using both sides of paper for drafts that are more than one page of text, using "scratch" paper delays our office's filing procedures as we need to clarify and confirm that we only record text from the LC draft. Any color of paper is acceptable as long as the draft is readable.
3. Staple one LC draft to the bill back in such a way that the front of the LC draft and the front of the bill back both face outwards away from each other (essentially, back-to-back). As you do so, please do not staple over the LC number in the upper left corner.
4. During pre-session filing, the second LC draft should not be attached to anything. If the unattached LC draft has multiple pages, it should have a single staple in the upper left-hand corner as you look at the front of the LC draft.
5. Do not use paperclips, or other style of clip, on any of the drafts or bill backs. Do not hole-punch the drafts or bill backs.
6. Make sure to indicate, by checking one of the boxes on the top of the bill back, what type of bill it is: Member, Committee or Statewide Elected Official.
7. Type or legibly print the chief sponsor or filer's name, and any additional sponsor names, then obtain a signature right above the typed or printed name(s). A House introduction must have a House member listed first.
8. Type or legibly print the contact person's name and telephone number at the bottom of the bill back. This portion must be filled out or the draft / bill back will not be accepted.
9. Due to COVID-19 restrictions, please call or e-mail Mandi McGowan of the Clerk's Office to arrange a time to submit these documents in person: (503) 986-1873 or mandi.mcgowan@oregonlegislature.gov.
10. LC drafts and bill backs may be filed electronically by sending a PDF version of the signed bill back and LC draft to the Chief Clerk of the House, Tim Sekerak at tim.sekerak@oregonlegislature.gov.
11. Only legislators, member staff or caucus office staff are authorized to drop the LC drafts for their members. In the case of a committee measure, the committee staff would also be authorized to drop LC drafts to be introduced as committee measures.

Important: The LC draft has a number and a date associated with that version of the draft. The bill back also has the same draft number and date on the upper left-hand corner of it. The LC draft number and date must match the number and date on the bill back to be accepted. The is to ensure that members are submitting or signing on to the correct version of the bill (they desire to be introduced). Once an LC is submitted to the Clerk's Office, the contents of the measure become public information.

The Daily House Agenda

The daily House Agenda is a schedule of the day's business on the floor of the House. This business is conducted in a specific format, known as "orders of business," in accordance with House Rules.

They are listed as follows:

(1) CALL TO ORDER

The Speaker will drop the gavel once to call the House to order.

A member will be assigned to lead the flag salute each day. The Speaker will drop the gavel three times to signal the membership to stand.

(2) OPENING CEREMONY

After the flag salute, the Speaker will announce the opening ceremony. If there is a prayer, the membership and visitors will remain standing, however, if a special opening ceremony is scheduled, the Speaker will drop the gavel one time to signal the membership to be seated.

Members may make arrangements with the Clerk's office to schedule an opening ceremony. The rules allow for a prayer or an opening ceremony (school groups, vocalists, musicians, readings, etc.). They need to be brief, less than 2 minutes for prayer, and 3 minutes for a performance. Members of the legislature are encouraged to personally present an invocation or opening.

(3) COURTESIES

The order of business "Courtesies" provides an opportunity for members to recognize guests from their individual districts and/or other special guests. Members are limited to one courtesy each day which may be no longer than 60 seconds in length. Yields are not permitted during Courtesies.

In addition, the Speaker will announce some special guests from the rostrum prior to recognizing individual members. These include the honorary pages (additional information follows) and special visiting groups from around the state. To be recognized for courtesies press the "To Speak" button which places your name on the Speakers queue. Once recognized, stand and address the Speaker by stating into the microphone:

"Mr./Madam Speaker, Members, I would like to welcome...."

When introducing a guest with access to the floor or side aisle, a member should not indicate any issue the guest supports or opposes. Guests on the floor should not wear or display visible indications supporting or opposing an issue or legislation.

A request to return to the order of business of Courtesies shall be out of order until all other orders of the day have been completed.

(4) VERIFICATION OF QUORUM

The Constitution requires a quorum of all elected members of the House (40) be present in order to conduct official business. The Speaker will instruct the Clerk to open the voting system to determine the presence of a quorum. Members shall press the “yea” button to record their attendance.

Excused (out of the Capitol):

To be excused from House floor session, members are asked to file an Excused Absence Request Form at least 48 hours in advance with the Chief Clerk (forms are available in the Clerk’s Office or online via the Legislative Intranet).

Excused for Business of the House (in the Capitol)

While the House is in session, members may occasionally need to be Excused for Business of the House; no form is required for this. There are many reasons members may need to leave the chamber during session but not leave the building: a committee may meet (with approval of the Speaker), or a Senator or the Governor may request an urgent meeting, etc. When these situations arise, please check-in (and out) with the Chief Clerk each time you exit the chamber and upon your return. This will ensure that you are reflected as “Excused for House Business” as opposed to “Absent” on any votes while you are away. This also ensures the House always has a quorum; and assists us in locating you if a Call of the House is invoked.

(5) MESSAGES FROM GOVERNOR

This order of business allows for messages from the Governor to be read. They include bills signed, vetoed, or bills allowed to become law without Governor’s signature as well as special proclamations.

(6) MESSAGES FROM SENATE

The House and Senate formally communicate with each other by messages. Measures are transmitted from one house to the other by a message, which explains what action has been taken. In some messages, one house may ask the other to take further action, such as concur in an amendment or (this action is taken up under Propositions and Motions).

Measures are transmitted at the end of each session day to the other house, unless a “notice of intent to reconsider” is given prior to adjournment that day.

The House may read messages at any time a quorum is present.

(7) FIRST READING: MEMORIALS AND RESOLUTIONS

All measures are read first time for introduction in the House. A “First Reading List” (Green Sheet) will be distributed to the members electronically which lists all measures scheduled for first reading that day.

The Speaker will announce the order of business and the Reading Clerk will read each measure by number and title in compliance with Article IV, Section 19 of the Oregon Constitution. After the readings are complete the Speaker will announce referral to the Speaker’s desk for purpose of referral to appropriate committee.

Note: The Speaker has seven calendar days to refer measures to committee. Usually the Speaker will refer measures the next session day after first reading. If you have a measure you would like to recommend for referral, it is important that you contact the Speaker’s office immediately after its first reading.

(8) COMMITTEE REPORTS

As committees report measures to the Clerk’s office (Desk) after taking action, the recommendations are recorded on the “Committee Report File” (Blue Sheet). By rule, measures that are reported out of committee are scheduled on the committee report for second and third reading.

This Committee Report will be distributed to members electronically; all analyses of the bills will be available on OLIS.

The Speaker will announce from the rostrum when a Committee Report File has been distributed.

(9) PROPOSITIONS AND MOTIONS

The order of business Propositions and Motions is used for the consideration of messages as received by the Governor or the Senate, special reports, and special motions, including but not limited to:

- Reconsideration
- Senate Amendments
- Conference Committee Reports
- Committee and Minority Reports
- Vetoed Measures by the Governor
- House Rule Amendments

As a courtesy, the Clerk prepares a script using the proper language for these motions and places them on your chamber desk prior to daily session. If you need assistance with any scripts, please see the Chief Clerk.

(10) FIRST READING OF HOUSE BILLS

Same as First Reading: Memorials and Resolutions

(11) SECOND READING OF HOUSE BILLS:

Bills are read second time, again meeting the requirement that all bills must have three separate readings. The Reading Clerk will read the bill number and title only. No action may be taken under Second Reading.

(12) CONSENT CALENDAR

This is the final reading of a measure and the order of business when the vote is called for immediately after the Reading Clerk has read the measure number, title and Short Summary.

Measures scheduled under this order of business are not subject to debate. They must have been reported out of committee unanimously and the committee must have recommended they be placed on the Consent Calendar.

If four objections signed by members of the House are received at the Desk within the two-day period after the measure appears on the Committee Report File, the measure will be removed from the Consent Calendar and placed in its proper order on the Third Reading Calendar for the next session day. The measure may also be removed by order of the Speaker.

(13) THIRD READING OF HOUSE BILLS

This is the final reading of a bill and the order of business under which the vote is recorded.

After the Reading Clerk has read the bill (or the number and title if Article IV, Section 19 of the Oregon Constitution has been suspended), the Speaker will recognize the "Carrier of the Bill." The Carrier has 10 minutes to present the bill.

The Speaker will then ask if there is further debate.

Members wishing to speak on the bill need to press their "To Speak" button at their desk; this will automatically place their name in the "queue." If the key is depressed again, it will remove their name from the "queue."

Members may yield their time to another member (5 minutes) but may no longer speak on the measure since their time has been forfeited.

If a member should have a question, it must be asked prior to speaking to the bill.

Once recognized by the Speaker, they should state: "Mr./Madam. Speaker, will the Representative from _____ yield to a question?"

The Speaker will then ask the representative if they yield to the question and they will agree or not agree to receive it.

Again, the Speaker will recognize the inquiring member for the question.

This process is repeated for each question that is asked.

After the questions are answered, the member may then speak to the bill.

If a member should want to make a motion, it must be placed prior to speaking to the bill. The following motions are acceptable under the consideration of bills:

- to lay on the table
- previous question (to close debate)
- to make special order of business or to postpone to a certain day and time
- to refer or re-refer to committee
- to postpone indefinitely

It is recommended to check with leadership prior to making any of these motions. Upon request, the Clerk will provide a script for any of these motions.

After the debate has concluded or the previous question has been called for and adopted, the Carrier has the option to close (10 minutes). No member may yield during the close.

The Speaker will then place the question and direct the Clerk to open the voting system.

Members have 30 seconds to cast their votes from their desks or as otherwise directed by House Rule.

After the system is closed, the members' vote count will appear on the reader boards.

If a member has not voted, the Speaker will request their vote by asking: "Representative (Name), how do you vote?" The member must respond verbally with a "yea" or "nay." The Clerk will record this vote at the Dais console.

After all votes are recorded, the Speaker will announce the outcome.

Note: Members must be "within the bar" prior to the vote closing (30 seconds) in order to cast their vote, otherwise they will be recorded as "absent." If a member needs to leave the chamber during session, they must notify the Clerk prior to leaving. This is extremely important, especially late in the session, when the question of a quorum becomes a critical matter.

By rule, measures cannot be amended on the floor. All amendments must be proposed in committee.

(14) FINAL READING: MEMORIALS AND RESOLUTIONS

Same as Third Reading of House Bills

(15) BILLS, REPORTS AND OTHER BUSINESS LYING ON TABLE

This order of business equates to an announcement only.

(16) FIRST READING OF SENATE BILLS

Same as First Reading of House Bills

(17) SECOND READING OF SENATE BILLS

Same as Second Reading of House Bills

(18) THIRD READING OF SENATE BILLS

Same as Third Reading of House Bills

(19) OTHER BUSINESS OF THE HOUSE

This order of business is used to announce the following:

- Distribution of any proposed amendments to the House Rules. The proposed amendments are then referred by the Speaker to the Committee on Rules.
- Vote changes
- Any other unfinished business

(20) ORDERS OF THE DAY HAVE BEEN COMPLETED

This is an announcement only.

(21) ANNOUNCEMENTS

This order of business is used for the announcement of caucus meetings, committee meetings, and any special events.

(22) REMONSTRANCES

Remonstrances allow a member to make a statement in protest (House Rule 1.01) -- no member may speak for longer than three minutes or for a second time, or yield time to another member. The motives or integrity of any member of the House or the Senate shall not be impugned (House Rule 4.01).

(23) ADJOURNMENT

The Speaker will recognize the Dean of the House (most senior member) to place the adjournment motion.

How to Get Excused

1) Excused (out of the Capitol):

To be excused to be out of the building for all or a portion of a House floor session, please file an Excused Absence Request Form at least 48 hours in advance with the Chief Clerk (forms are available in the Clerk's Office). A properly filed request will, by rule, be presumed approved unless otherwise notified by House leadership.

-Sample Excused Form (out of the Capitol)-

REQUEST FOR EXCUSED ABSENCE FROM HOUSE SESSION
DATE OF ABSENCE _____	PHONE _____
NAME OF REPRESENTATIVE _____
REASON FOR EXCUSED ABSENCE _____

SIGNATURE OF REPRESENTATIVE _____
DATE _____
(All absences are presumed excused unless Leadership contacts you and requires your attendance)
(Please file with the Chief Clerk 2 days (48 hours) before absence occurs)

2) Excused for Business of the House (in the Capitol):

When the House is in session you will occasionally need to be Excused for Business of the House (no form is required for this). There are many reasons you may need to leave the chamber during session: A committee may meet (with approval of the Speaker); meeting with your Senator or the Governor. When these situations arise, please check-in (and out) with the Chief Clerk each time you exit the chamber and upon your return. This will ensure that you are reflected as "Excused for House Business" as opposed to "Absent" on any votes while you are away. This also ensures the House always has a quorum; and assists us in locating you if a Call of the House is invoked.

House Rule 3.03 declares that members must be present at all sessions of the House unless they have been excused by the presiding officer.

Biometric Voting

The House chamber is equipped with four Bio-Metric (finger print) voting stations. Two stations flank the double doors at the back of the chamber; the other two stations are located opposite each other on the inside of the wood pillar adjacent to the North and South side aisles at the rear of the chamber.

Due to the COVID-19 Pandemic, these services may look different or no longer be offered for portions of the 2021-2022 Biennium.

Important:

Please note, if you choose to use the biometrics you are still responsible to verify that your vote is recorded properly. We encourage you to always stay on the House floor to visually verify that your vote was accurately recorded on the voting boards.

These Biometric voting stations are a voluntary tool that can be used to vote on all questions (recorded votes), as well as to record your presence during attendance (Quorum Calls & Calls of the House).

To register, please stop by the Chief Clerk's Office. The process takes approximately three minutes. These Bio-Metric readers have proven to be a safe and convenient way for members to vote. The Oregon House is one of the only legislative houses in the United States to utilize this technology for voting.

Essential House Chamber Protocols

The following pages contain important information about specific protocols that are upheld by the House Sergeant-At-Arms in the House chamber.

What is the chamber, exactly?

The House chamber is comprised of several areas each with their own slightly different set of rules and protocols.

The House floor is the area in the chamber that contains the members' desks and rostrum and that is enclosed by the waist-high partitions on the north and south and the walls at the front and back of the room. The partitions are referred to as "the bar" and being on the floor is sometimes referred to as being "within the bar."

The side-aisles are also within the chamber. These are the seating/walking areas along the north and south perimeters of the floor area. These areas are accessed by doors which will be closed and monitored by doorkeepers during the protocol period. The side-aisles are used as seating areas for authorized persons during the floor session. Often it is necessary to reserve seats in these areas for your dignitaries and special guests, please contact the Chief Clerk's Office to make these arrangements.

The Gallery is also within the chamber. The gallery is the 3rd floor public seating area forming a U-shape around the House floor below. The gallery is public seating on a first come-first served basis.

The "Protocol Period"

The "protocol period" extends 30 minutes before and after each floor session of the body. The major visual cue for you to know we are in this period of time is that the side aisle and ceremonial double doors at the back of the House Chamber are closed and "in session" signs are posted outside the doors. During this protocol period, all House rules are in force, just as when the House is in active session.

For additional information and details, see:

Camera Use (including Social Media) in the Oregon House Chamber

By Representatives, staff, guests, and media

Due to the COVID-19 Pandemic, these services may look different or no longer be offered for portions of the 2021-2022 Biennium.

While in session, including the protocol period

ONLY Representatives may take pictures (no flash, please!) inside the bar, while in session.

Staff, guests, and journalists may take pictures from 3 areas in the House Chamber, all of which are outside the bar.

the south side-aisle (on 2nd floor);
the north side-aisle (on 2nd floor) and the north gallery (on 3rd floor).

General rules for all areas...

NO flash, strobe or supplemental lighting,

NO blocking of the view of others.

NO blockage of exits and walkways with tripods/equipment.

Specifics of camera usage by area:

South side-aisle, hand-held cameras only.

North side-aisle, hand-held and monopod.

North gallery (3rd floor), hand-held, monopod, and tripod.

Notes to legislative assistants:

It would be helpful for you to go over these guidelines with your Representative's guests beforehand, especially the "no flash" rule.

If session is over, but the ceremonial doors are still closed (the protocol period) and your member wants to have pictures taken with visiting constituents on the floor, check with the Chief Clerk or the House Sgt-at-Arms. If it is determined that the picture-taking is not disruptive to others in the Chamber, it MAY be allowed...but only if requested.

A special exception for accredited commercial broadcast television on the North side-aisle:

During session, one (and only one) tripod TV camera may be used on the North aisle at a time.

No special lighting, no blockage of other's views, no blockage of exits and walkways. The various television stations will have to work out rotation times among themselves in the event of multiple requests.

Please direct any questions concerning these customs and practices to your House Sergeant-at-Arms, 503-986-1883.

Admission to the House Chamber While in Session

Due to the COVID-19 Pandemic, these services may look different or no longer be offered for portions of the 2021-2022 Biennium.

- (a) Members of the Legislative Assembly;
- (b) Floor personnel of the House;
- (c) One of the following individuals, seated at a member's desk:
 - (i) One individual from the member's personal staff employed under Rule 15.10 or receiving credit in the intern program;
 - (ii) A member of the staff of a House standing committee, statutory committee, special committee or the caucus offices; or
 - (iii) A family member;
- (d) Speaker and caucus staff;
- (e) Persons authorized by the Speaker; and
- (f) Accredited representatives of the news media.

(2) Courtesies of the house and floor privileges may be extended only to special dignitaries and former members of the Legislative Assembly with permission of the body. However, courtesies shall not be extended to any former member who is registered as a lobbyist with the Oregon Governmental Ethics Commission.

(3) Seating in the side aisles beyond the bar shall be reserved for the families and guests of members and such other persons as may be authorized by the Speaker. However, the privilege shall not be granted to any person actively engaged in seeking the passage or defeat of any measure. An exception may be granted to members of families that have spoken in support of a memorial or resolution in their honor.

(4) While the House is in session, the center aisle of the floor shall be kept clear of all persons except legislators and the Chief Clerk or someone acting under the Chief Clerk's direction in conduct of the business of the House. Access to the chamber while the House is in session shall be by the side doors and side aisles.

(5) During the period beginning thirty minutes before the opening of each session and ending thirty minutes after the session, no person shall be permitted in the House chamber except those authorized to be in the chamber under this rule.

(6) No person who is a lobbyist as defined in ORS 171.725 shall be permitted on the House floor or the adjacent side aisles while the House is in session.

(7) The Sergeant at Arms shall enforce these rules.

NOTE:

House Rule provides that the House dress code shall be "contemporary business attire." On the floor, this applies to everyone, including honorary pages, staff, family, and dignitaries. An exception is made for opening ceremonies participants.

All non-legislators, including guests, staff and family members, may not wear or display visible indications of advocacy on any issue or measure while on the floor or side-aisle during session.

Every doorkeeper/page must ask every unknown person to identify themselves prior to entering the chamber and side-aisles while in session, including protocol period 30 minutes before and after floor session, in order to determine how to apply the above rules.

Movement on the House Floor While in Session

During floor sessions, including the protocol period, that part of the House chamber which includes the center aisle and the space between the podium and the members' desks (the "T") is for members' use only. Staff, guests, and family of members (with limited exceptions) are not allowed in the "T" during session, including 30 minutes before and after.

To approach a member's desk, support and floor staff must enter from a side aisle gate and proceed to the back of the chamber, then proceed up the row to their destination. (See diagram below)

Staff, guests and family seated at a member's desk should remain seated at that desk while any members are speaking on their side of the chamber.

If a Representative is addressing the body, ONLY other Representatives and Senators (not staffers) may enter or leave that side of the floor. If, a member on one side has a "question to the carrier" and the carrier of the bill is on the other side, both sides are closed to staff entering/leaving.

Opening Ceremonies

Due to the COVID-19 Pandemic, these services may look different or no longer be offered for portions of the 2021-2022 Biennium.

As a representative, you have the privilege of inviting guests to attend and open floor sessions of the House with a brief ceremony (3 minutes or less). Opening ceremonies have long been a cherished tradition and are a way to celebrate the many cultures, faiths and beliefs that are represented in the House. Here are four examples of events that would qualify as an opening ceremony:

1. Invocation/Prayer
2. Performance (either singing, dancing or a musical performance)
3. Inspirational Reading (most often a poem)
4. Presentation of Colors (flag salute/Honor Guard)

Please note that a Presentation of Colors may occur in conjunction with another opening event, such as a prayer. This is made possible due to the presentation of colors being tied to the flag salute/pledge of allegiance which immediately precedes the Opening Ceremony "order of business."

Another very important note is that each of the above guests must be sponsored by a Representative, but is not required to reside in that Representative's district. This sponsorship provides a vehicle for responsibility/accountability of opening guests. If something controversial occurs, other members will be looking to the sponsor of the guest to answer. The measures that we take to avoid such controversy are to ask all of your guests to review and comply with the Opening Ceremonies Guidelines, a document created by the Chief Clerk's Office in consultation with the House Speaker's Office.

Once you have invited your guest – or guests – please contact (or have them contact) Sarah Curry in the Chief Clerk's office directly: She will schedule a date based upon the opening ceremonies calendar as well as manage all of the ensuing details, such as rehearsal and parking. Occasionally, interest by a group or guest is expressed to the Chief Clerk's Office directly as opposed to the guest's sponsor (Representative); in that case, the Chief Clerk's Office will reach out to the group or guest's Representative and inquire about their willingness to sponsor.

Opening Ceremonies Guidelines

Thank you for your interest in participating in the proceedings of the Oregon State House of Representatives. Opening Ceremonies of the House are a time-honored tradition where the House takes a moment to recognize the talents of Oregonians and the various cultural aspects of our shared state. In order to facilitate your participation and to ensure the orderly conduct of business before the House, we ask that you be mindful of and adhere to the following:

- 1) The purpose of Opening Ceremonies is to provide for contemplation, inspiration and/or reflection; it is not meant for proselytizing or persuasion. Requiring others to join or participate in prayer or conducting ceremonies or using props is inappropriate.
- 2) The members of the House, their staff, and the citizens of Oregon whom they serve, hold a wide variety of beliefs and viewpoints. You are addressing everyone, and we ask that you be respectful to followers of all faiths and to those who profess no religious faith.
- 3) Opening Ceremonies are conducted after the Call to Order and the presentation of the colors but before the Quorum Call. These are not always religious prayers, but may also be a performance of music, poetry, dance or a moment of silence depending on the many factors that affect our schedule. Please note the following time limitations:
 - a) Two minutes or less for an invocation or reading;
 - b) Four minutes or less for a performance.
- 4) Our time on the House floor is strictly scheduled but the specifics of that schedule are subject to change depending on unpredictable circumstances that might arise. We apologize for any inconvenience this may cause.
- 5) Please do not use this opportunity to present your political views or interests. Lobbying in the House chamber is strictly prohibited.
- 6) House Rules provide that only legislators and certain employees may be on the floor while the House is in session.
- 7) Ordinarily, the dress code of the House chamber is contemporary business attire. We encourage guests of the House to dress in traditional attire and regalia as appropriate.

We appreciate your interest in the legislative process and are happy to welcome you into the House chamber. Please let us know if you have any questions or if we can assist you in any way.

Previous Question: A motion to close debate and bring the pending question to an immediate vote.

Primary Election: A preliminary election in which the registered voters of a political party nominate candidates for office. A political party may allow registered independents or unaffiliated voters to vote in a primary election.

Propositions and Motions: A customary, traditional order of business on the floor where legislators may make a motion if they wish.

Quorum: The number of members required to be present before business can be transacted in the House, Senate, or a committee. In the Senate, 20 members must be present; in the House, 40 members; and in committees a constitutional majority constitutes a quorum. (NOTE: If a quorum is not present, the chair can convene the committee as a subcommittee for the purposes of taking testimony ONLY.)

Quorum Call: The method used to determine if a quorum exists.

Ratify: To approve and make valid.

Reapportionment: See Redistricting.

Reading Clerk: A House or Senate staff member responsible for reading bills and recording votes on any question or motion before the body.

Recess: A break in a daily legislative session. A committee may also recess for a period of time before resuming later in the same day.

Reconsideration: The process for taking a second vote on a measure. A motion to reconsider must carry before a second vote can be taken. A bill may be reconsidered by a committee after being voted out of committee, if it has not yet been dropped at the Desk. A vote on a bill may also be reconsidered on the floor.

Redistricting: The redrawing of legislative and congressional district boundaries following the federal census to reflect changes in population distribution. In Oregon, the Legislature is responsible for Congressional and Legislative redistricting. If the Legislature does not agree on a redistricting bill or does not obtain the Governor's signature on such a bill, the authority transfers to the Secretary of State.

Referendum: The submission of a measure passed by the Legislature to a vote of the people. In Oregon, either the Legislature or citizens, by petition, may cause a measure passed by the Legislature to be placed on the ballot for a vote. In the case of a legislative referral, both houses of the Legislature must vote to refer the measure. Such referrals cannot be vetoed by the Governor. In the case of a citizen referendum, supporters of the referendum must obtain a specified number of signatures from registered voters. The number of signatures required is determined by a fixed percentage of the votes cast for all candidates for governor at the general election preceding the filing of the petition. Any change to the Oregon Constitution passed by the Legislature requires referral to voters. See also: Initiative.

Referendum Clause: A clause added to the end of a measure that causes the measure to be referred to a vote of the people for approval before it takes effect. The referred measure goes on the ballot at the next general election unless the Legislative Assembly calls a special election for the vote.

Refer: To direct a bill to a committee (e.g., HB 2000 was referred to the Ways and Means Committee).

Relating-to Clause: The title of a bill begins with the phrase "Relating to" and expresses the subject of that bill. For example, HB 2000, relating to charter schools. In Oregon, a bill may only address one subject, and for this reason the relating-to clause becomes an important element of the bill.

Remonstrance: A protest. It is a Constitutional right of legislators that "any member of either house shall have the right to protest, and have his protest, with his reasons for dissent, entered on the journal." (Oregon Constitution, Article IV, Section 26).

Report Out: To return a measure from a committee to the House or House Desk with or without recommendation as to further action.

Resolution: A measure used by the House or Senate (a measure used by both would be a joint resolution) to take an action that would affect only its own members, such as appointing a committee of its members, or expressing an opinion or sentiment on a matter of public interest.

Revenue Impact Statement: An analysis of a bill done by the Legislative Revenue Office that identifies any potential state or local revenue changes that might result from the bill's passage.

Roll Call: A recitation by the Reading Clerk of each legislator's name, done at the beginning of a floor session, during a Call of the House or Senate to identify those present, or during a vote of the House or Senate. The House employs the electronic voting system for opening roll calls and calls of the House.

Rules: The written procedures by which the House of Representatives, Senate, or a committee governs its meetings. Rules are formally adopted at the first convening of the Legislative Assembly or of a committee, and require a vote (with at least a quorum of members present) for official adoption.

Second Reading: This order of business is to give notice that the measure/bill will be up for a vote the following session day. Like the First Reading, a recitation of the measure's number and title by the Reading Clerk. Second Reading occurs after the measure has been referred to committee, worked on, and reported back to the floor for a vote.

Secretary of the Senate: The chief administrative officer of the Senate. The Secretary of the Senate is elected by the members of the Senate, and is responsible for keeping records of the proceedings of the Senate, supervising Senate employees, acting as parliamentarian of the Senate, advising members on parliamentary procedure, and preparing all Senate publications for printing.

Senate: The legislative body consisting of 30 members, called Senators, each representing districts of approximately 127,702 Oregon citizens.

Sergeant at Arms: Staff appointed by each house to maintain order within that Chamber.

Session: The period of time in which the Legislative Assembly officially convenes. Regular sessions convene each year and may last 160 calendar days in odd-numbered years and 35 calendar days in even-numbered years.

Session Laws: Officially called the "Oregon Laws," the session laws are a compilation of laws enacted and selected memorials and resolutions adopted during a single session. They are published in bound volumes with tables and an index.

Sine Die: "Without fixing a day for a future meeting"--the last day of a Legislative Session.

Speaker of the House: The presiding officer of the House of Representatives, elected by the members of the House.

Speaker Pro Tempore: Speaker "for a time": a Representative elected to serve as the temporary presiding officer in the absence of the Speaker of the House. If the office of the Speaker of the House of Representatives becomes vacant, the Speaker Pro Tempore becomes the Speaker until a new Speaker is elected.

Special (select) committee: A committee authorized by House or Senate Rules to study a limited subject.

Special Session: A convening of the Legislative Assembly called by the Governor or a majority of the members of the Legislative Assembly, at a time other than during a regular session. Typically, special sessions of the Legislative Assembly are called for the purpose of addressing a specific state problem or issue.

Sponsor: The legislator(s), state agency, or legislative committee that introduces a measure. The name of this person or committee is printed at the top of the measure.

Staff Measure Summary: A brief, impartial description of a measure that must accompany the measure when it is reported out of committee.

Standing Committee: A permanent committee during a session authorized by House or Senate Rules.

Status Report: See Measure Status Report.

Statute: A codified law. (NOTE: "Codify" means "to arrange laws systematically." A codified law is one that has been incorporated into that section of the ORS that it amends, modifies, or accompanies.)

Statutory Committee: A legislative committee established by statute.

Subcommittee: A subordinate committee composed of members appointed by the chair (or by House or Senate leadership) from the full committee. A subcommittee usually considers a narrower range of topics than the full committee, and generally is authorized only to make recommendations to the full committee.

Subsequent Referral: When the Speaker or President designates a bill to go to two committees, one after the other (e.g., a tax measure might first be referred to a committee to consider the substantive issues, and then to the Revenue Committee to consider the revenue issues).

Substitute Measure: A measure submitted by a standing committee as a substitute for a measure referred to it. It is treated in the same manner as an amendment if it is germane to the title and subject of the original measure.

Summary: The measure summary or digest found printed near the top of a bill.

Sunset Clause: A statement added to the end of a measure which causes the act to "sunset," or become ineffective, after a certain date.

Table: "Table" is used as both a noun and a verb. Tables, n., are found at the back of the calendars, and display legislative information in a variety of ways. Table, v., is used in reference to stopping bills from further action in committees or on the floor. A bill is tabled by a majority vote, after a non-debatable motion from a member.

Task Force: A legislative committee authorized by legislative leadership to study a specific subject for a specified period of time. A task force may contain lay members and is different from a committee in that it typically considers a narrow subject within a broader topic area; for example a task force might consider mental health in Oregon rather than health issues in Oregon.

Third Reading: As in First or Second Readings, a recitation of a measure's number and title by the Reading Clerk on the floor before a final vote by either Chamber.

Time Certain: A means of designating a definite time for a certain activity, for example, to hear a particular bill.

Unfunded Mandate: A requirement that a lower level of government provides a program or performs an activity with their own resources. Under a federal mandate, the federal government may require a state or local government to provide a service and not provide the federal funding to pay for it. Under a state mandate, the state may require a local government to provide a service, but under the Oregon Constitution, the local government is not required to comply with certain new state mandates unless the state pays the costs of the new services. The Constitution provides exceptions.

Veto: An action by the Governor in disapproval of a measure that has passed both houses. After a veto, the bill is returned to the house of origin with written objections. A Governor's veto may be considered by both houses, and if the bill is again passed by two-thirds of the members present, it is considered overridden and becomes law. Bills vetoed following adjournment Sine Die must be considered at the very next Legislative Session following the veto.

Vice-Chair: A committee member chosen by the Speaker or President to serve as the committee chair in the chair's absence.

Visitor Services: The non-partisan unit of the Legislative Administration (LA) which provides Capitol tours and video presentations on the legislative process and Capitol history. They also schedule and coordinate special events in the Capitol and operate the Capitol Gift Shop.

Vote Explanation: On occasion, legislators may wish the official record to reflect the reason why they voted yes or no on particular bill. A member may submit a written vote explanation. A written vote explanation is found in the Journal, following the vote record of a bill.

Whip: A term used at the federal level to refer to the Deputy Majority Leader. It derives from the British fox-hunting term "whipper-in," which described the person responsible for keeping the foxhounds from leaving the pack. Some, but not all, of the caucuses in the Oregon Legislative Assembly use the term "whip" in reference to the Deputy Majority or Minority Leader.

Witness: A person who testifies before a legislative committee.

Work Session: A committee meeting held for the purpose of determining the contents of a measure to be reported out of committee. A work session is different from a public hearing. In a work session, testimony is usually not taken from the public, although the public may attend the hearing.
