Oregon Supreme Court approves Legislature's petition for redistricting timeline extension

SALEM, Ore. – Today, the Oregon Supreme Court granted the Legislative Assembly additional time to complete legislative redistricting. The Court provided a new deadline of September 27, 2021, allowing the Legislature to wait for the release of essential data from the U.S. Census Bureau. The Presiding Officers issued the following joint statement:

“The Supreme Court has done its job. Now it’s time for the Legislature to do its constitutional duty: to redraw the district boundaries for the State of Oregon in a way that’s fair and accurate. We have full faith in the legislative redistricting committees to lead this work.”
