SALEM, OR – Representative John Davis (R-Wilsonville) and Senator Larry George (R-Sherwood) will host a live telephone town to discuss key issues in the 2013 Legislative Session, focusing on PERS reform and the 2013-2015 budget.

Joining the discussion will be special guest, Jim Green, Deputy Executive Director of the Oregon School Boards Association.

The town hall will take place on Monday, June 17^h from 6:30pm-7:30pm.

“Senator George and I want to take this opportunity to provide our constituents with a general review of the legislative session. We also want to share proposals and progress in two key issue areas: PERS reform and the 2013-2015 budget. The telephone town hall will be a great way for constituents to have access to information on issues important to our state and local communities,” commented Rep. Davis on the event.

The format of the telephone town hall will allow for both legislators and special guest, Jim Green to give updates, followed by a question and answer session, where participants will be able to ask questions of their legislators.
