REPRESENTATIVE HACK NAMED
OREGON HOUSE REPUBLICAN WHIP

Salem Representative to Play Key Role in 2017 Legislative Session

SALEM - Salem Representative Jodi Hack (R-Salem) has been elected by her colleagues to serve as Whip for the Oregon House Republican caucus. Rep. Hack, who will be sworn in for her second term in 2017, previously served the caucus as Deputy Whip.

“It’s an honor to have been elected by my colleagues to serve in this new position,” said Rep. Hack. “As the caucus Whip, my goal will be to help assist in developing the House Republican agenda for the 2017 session and guide that agenda through the legislative process. I’m excited to have the opportunity to serve my constituents and the House Republican caucus in this new capacity.”

In addition to her new role as House Republican Whip, Rep. Hack serves as a member of the House committees on Education, Transportation and Economic Development and Small Business Growth. She also serves on Ways and Means Natural Resources Subcommittee, the Joint Interim Task Force on Class Sizes and the Joint Interim Committee on Department of Energy Oversight Committee.

Rep. Hack represents House District 19 which includes the communities of Salem, Aumsville and Turner.
