Democrats Elect House Assistant Majority Leader

Oregon House Democrats fill role previously held by Leader Ben Bowman, select professional development chair for members

SALEM, Ore. — During a Democratic Caucus meeting this week, Oregon House Democrats elected Rep. Tom Andersen (D-South Salem), a former Salem City Councilor and trial attorney, to be Assistant Majority Leader.

Rep. Hai Pham (D-S Hillsboro & W Beaverton), a father, pediatric dentist, Leukemia survivor, and Vietnamese refugee, was also chosen to serve the caucus as chair of professional development for members. Other members of the House Democratic Leadership Team remain the same.

“I’m grateful for the entire House Democratic Leadership team, who have stepped up to help lead the caucus on the priorities that matter most to Oregonians. Every member of our Leadership team brings a unique perspective, reflecting the diverse realities of families across the state. This is a strong team, and we’re ready to get to work fighting for all Oregonians,” said House Majority Leader Ben Bowman (D-Tigard, Metzger & S Beaverton).
