House Majority Leader Val Hoyle praises Oregon's marriage equality decision

House Majority Leader Val Hoyle released the following statement following Judge Michael McShane's ruling that Oregon's marriage ban is unconstitutional.

"I married the person who I love over 22 years ago, and I'm thrilled that all Oregonians now have the freedom to do the same. Still, it took decades of work to get us to today's victory. Congratulations to the tens of thousands of Oregonians who have fought for the freedom to marry, and to all of the loving, committed couples who can now get married here in Oregon."
