Friday, May 8, is Military Family Appreciation Day at the Oregon State Capitol

This Friday, May 8th, Representative Paul Evans (D-Monmouth) will be hosting Oregon Military Family Appreciation Day at the Oregon State Capitol.

There will be a celebration of military service as well as an effort to raise awareness about the sacrifices made by members of the military, and the value of that sacrifice to our nation, state and communities.

The event will begin at 8:00am in Hearing Room 50. There will be meetings with legislators as well as breakout discussions, concluding with a small ceremony at the WWII memorial at 11:00am.

WHAT: Oregon Military Family Appreciation Day

WHEN: Friday, May 8, beginning at 8am

WHERE: Oregon State Capitol Building, Salem, Hearing Room 50

Please join us for a day of awareness for our military families and veterans – to make sure past, present, and future veterans' and their families receive the help they earned.

About Military Family Appreciation Day

In 2009 the Oregon Legislature established May 8th of every year as "Military Family Appreciation Day" in hopes of advancing awareness as well as supporting programming for military families and veterans living within communities throughout the State of Oregon. This day was founded to not only recognize and show appreciation for those who have served but also for their families as a time to come together and share stories and support for one another.
