Statement from House Republican Leader Mike McLane on Inauguration of Dennis Richardson as Oregon's Secretary of State

Salem, Ore. - Statement from House Republican Leader Mike McLane on the inauguration of Dennis Richardson as Oregon's Secretary of State:

"Today I congratulate my good friend and former House colleague Dennis Richardson on officially taking the oath of office as Oregon's Secretary of State. Dennis is a man of enormous integrity and I believe Oregonians of all political stripes will come to know him as a leader they can both count on and trust. House Republicans look forward to partnering with Secretary Richardson and his staff in the months ahead to accomplish his goals of restoring transparency, accountability and integrity to our state government.

"I also want to thank outgoing Secretary of State Jeanne Atkins for her service to the state of Oregon."
