

From the
HOUSE REPUBLICAN OFFICE

For Immediate Release

Thursday, December 31 2020

Contact: Jihun Han, 503-501-1677

Email: jihun.han@oregonlegislature.gov

House Republican Leader Announces 2021 Caucus Leadership Team

Salem, ORE. – Today, House Republican Leader Christine Drazan (R-Canby) announced the leadership team as the caucus heads into the 2021 Legislative Session:

“I am pleased to announce the House Republican leadership team as we prepare for the 2021 Legislative Session,” said House Republican Leader Christine Drazan (R-Canby). “This leadership team represents rural, suburban and urban areas across the state, and the team’s diverse backgrounds and professional experiences will serve Oregon well. As we continue to face challenging issues amplified by the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic and wildfire recovery efforts, Oregonians expect strong and steady leaders who will fight for their future, and that’s what the House Republican Leadership team will do.”

Oregon House Republican Leadership Team

Representative Christine Drazan (R-Canby), House Republican Leader

Representative Daniel Bonham (R-The Dalles), House Republican Deputy Leader

Representative Duane Stark (R-Grants Pass), House Republican Whip

Representative Kim Wallan (R-Medford), House Republican Assistant Whip

Representative Bill Post (R-Keizer), House Republican Assistant Deputy

Representative Shelly Boshart Davis (R-Albany), House Republican Assistant Leader

Representative Cedric Hayden (R-Roseburg), House Republican Assistant Leader

Representative Rick Lewis (R-Silverton), House Republican Assistant Leader

Representative Greg Smith (R-Heppner), Vice-Chair of Ways and Means, ex-officio member

###