House Republican Caucus Welcomes State Representative Court Boice Sworn In to Represent Vacant House District 1

SALEM, OR – Today, Representative Court Boice (R- Gold Beach) was sworn in to represent House District 1. This seat was left vacant after former Representative David Brock Smith was appointed to Senate District 1.

Representative Boice has served in several capacities throughout his career from working as an Oregon legislative staff member, to serving on the Coos Curry Douglas Business Development Corporation, to representing several counties as a part of the Association of Oregon Counties.

“I am excited to welcome State Representative Court Boice to the legislature and to the House Republican Caucus. I have full confidence that Representative Boice will serve his district well. I look forward to having his knowledge and experience in the building,” said House Republican Leader Breese-Iverson (R-Prineville).

“My family has been living, working, and serving in this area for over 60 years. I believe my career has prepared me to be a strong advocate for the issues impacting my district – from housing and homelessness, to education, to Oregon’s fishing and timber industries. I am truly honored to represent the constituents of House District 1,” said Representative Court Boice (R-Gold Beach).

House District 1 represents the communities of Coquille, Bandon, Myrtle Point, Winston, Port Orford, Gold Beach, and Brookings. The district includes portions of Coos, Douglas, and Curry Counties.
