SALEM, Ore. – Today, House Republican Leader Christine Drazan (R-Canby) released the following statement on the Oregon Employment Department’s new plan to clear the backlog of unemployment claims:

“Tens of thousands of Oregonians have cause for hope today. The Oregon Employment Department is changing course and responding to repeated calls to abandon business as usual and clear the backlog of unemployment claims. The need remains urgent. While ensuring the health and safety of employees, the agency’s execution of their newly announced plans must be flawless. Oregonians deserve nothing less.”
