In Case You Missed It

“It would be a pity – not to mention a telling statement of lawmakers’ priorities – if HB3505 were to languish in obscurity...”

The Oregonian Calls On Legislative Leadership To Schedule A Public Hearing For House Bill 3505

“What truly distinguishes HB3505 isn’t its sponsors, but, rather its focus, which includes – gasp! – lawmakers themselves.”

“HB3505 is a grab bag of reforms, and even a receptive and determined Legislature might not approve every one of them. If nothing else, though, it deserves vigorous debate. It was assigned to the House Rules Committee last week, but has not yet been scheduled for a hearing.
