SALEM – House Majority Leader Val Hoyle (D-West Eugene) made the following statement on the Making Every Dollar Count report released today:

“When we prioritize frontline services and cut down on delinquent taxes, we can better afford the things Oregonians want. People across the state want quality public education and other smart public investments that can help businesses create jobs. I want to thank those who wrote the Making Every Dollar Count report for their work diving deep to find practical savings for our state.
