Statement by House Majority Leader Val Hoyle on June 2013 Economic and Revenue Forecast:

Salem – After years of budget cuts, the legislature is now in the position to reverse disinvestment in education, health care, and other programs important for continued growth in Oregon.

At this pivotal point in the legislative session, Republican brinksmanship and threats to hold key legislation hostage will ultimately hurt Oregon school children, seniors, and the most vulnerable among us.

Both parties in the House and Senate need to step up and work together and with the Governor so we can move forward on stronger education budgets, invest in Oregon's future and do what's best for our state.
