Agenda Released for First Meeting of Bipartisan PERS Solutions Workgroup

Salem, Ore. – Today, the Bipartisan PERS Solutions Workgroup released the agenda for its first meeting, which is scheduled for Wed., Sept. 21 at 3 p.m. in Room 174 of the Oregon Capitol Building.

Workgroup Co-Chairs Senator Betsy Johnson (D-Scappoose) and Senator Tim Knopp (R-Bend) expect a broad coalition of stakeholders as well as any Oregon citizen interested in a conversation on fair, constitutional PERS reform to participate. Included will be school administrators, local government officials, labor and business groups.

The agenda for the first meeting includes an overview of PERS' current financial situation from PERS Executive Director Steven Patrick Rodeman, a report on legal considerations from Legislative Counsel, and an opportunity for public comment. Public comments or exhibits can be sent in advance to BipartisanPERSworkgroup@gmail.com.
