Representative Mark Johnson Sworn In For Third Term In Oregon House

Salem, OR – Representative Mark Johnson (R-Hood River) today was sworn in for his third term as a member of the Oregon House and will represent House District 52 during the 78th Legislative Assembly.

“I’m honored to continue working for the families and businesses of District 52,” said Rep. Johnson. “This session will be a crucial one as we work to grow our economy and job market and improve education outcomes for our students. I’m looking forward to bringing fresh ideas and the bipartisan spirit of District 52 to Salem to get things done.”

Rep. Johnson will serve on the following committees for the 2015 legislative session:

- Energy and Environment Committee, Vice Chair
- Higher Education, Innovation, and Workforce Development Committee
- Revenue Committee
- Joint Committee on Tax Credits

As a member of these committees, Rep. Johnson will encourage a healthy balance between economic development and the preservation of natural resources; advocate for strong community colleges and increased career and technical training; and, promote policies that support families and businesses and also attract new businesses to Oregon.

Rep. Johnson and his wife Melodi reside in Hood River. He was first elected to the Oregon House of Representatives in 2010 and Cassandra Hayt will again serve as his Chief of Staff during the 2015 session. House District 52 includes the communities of Hood River, Cascade Locks, Corbett, Sandy and Estacada as well as parts of Gresham and portions of Hood River, Clackamas and Multnomah counties.
