Senator Knopp Fills Legislative Office Staff Positions for the 2013 Legislative Session

Experienced Statesmen Organizes Office With Blend of Youth and Experience

Salem, OR – Senator Tim Knopp (R-Bend/Redmond/Sunriver) has filled legislative staff positions prior to the start of the 2013 Legislative Session.

“After conducting a statewide search for legislative staff I am confident I found the best staff to serve Senate District 27 and Oregon,” said Senator Tim Knopp. “I am eager to start the 2013 session. Oregon faces many challenges and I am confident with this team, we can work to get Oregon moving in the right direction again.”

The Senate District 27 team includes:

Jake Pelroy – As a former Intelligence Analyst office in the United States Marine Corps, with 3 tours in Iraq, Jake brings to the office a worldly perspective and consummate professionalism that will make our district proud.

Reagan Knopp – Reagan’s intimate knowledge of the district serves as a bridge from the theoretical to the practical. Having an additional team member that was born and raised within Senate District 27 will greatly enhance our abilities to provide the best constituent service possible.

Dylan Amo – With 12 years of political experience, Dylan brings strong institutional knowledge to the team. His background will provide the ability for our team to hit the ground running and get results.

“I take tremendous pride in being accessible,” said Senator Tim Knopp. “Government always works best when it’s closest to the people. I am your window in the government. If you have any issues with the bureaucracy please don’t hesitate to call. Our office is here to serve you. We can be reached at (503) 986-1727.”
