Local lawmakers seek feedback before legislative session begins

LAKE OSWEGO – Sen. Richard Devlin (D-Tualatin) and Rep. Ann Lininger (D-Lake Oswego) are teaming up to host a town hall meeting next week to discuss issues in the upcoming legislative session.

The town hall is scheduled from 6 to 7 p.m. on Wednesday, Jan. 25, at Lake Oswego City Hall.

As the 2017 Legislative Session approaches, the state faces urgent budgetary challenges and several other pressing issues. Devlin and Lininger are seeking general information about what constituents would like to see accomplished in the upcoming session. Those in attendance are encouraged to provide comments and ask questions about issues that are important to them.

The event is free and open to the public.
