Representative Mike Nearman Sworn In As State Representative

Salem, OR – Surrounded by family, friends and his House colleagues, Representative Mike Nearman (R-Independence) was officially sworn in by Chief Justice of the Oregon Supreme Court, Thomas A. Balmer today for his first term as a member of the Oregon House of Representatives.

“I’m humbled and honored to have the privilege of serving House District 23 as its state representative,” said Rep. Nearman “I hope to work with my legislative colleagues to promote a more sustainable approach to budgeting, increase oversight of IT programs and help strengthen Oregon’s economy.”

As a member of the 78th Assembly of the Oregon Legislature, Rep. Nearman will serve on the following committees:

- Higher Education, Innovation, and Workforce Development Committee
- Consumer Protection and Government Effectiveness Committee
- Joint Transportation and Economic Development Subcommittee
- Information Technology Subcommittee

Rep. Nearman represents House District 23, which includes much of the rural western Willamette Valley. He and his wife Debora reside in Independence.
