Vote Explanation
HB 4205

I voted for HB 4205 because it will require an officer to intervene and report another officer who engages in certain misconduct. The bill also provides the reporting officer with protections from retaliation for intervening or reporting the misconduct by another officer.

HB 4205 is one of five police accountability bills brought forward by the Legislative People of Color Caucus (POC). According to members of POC, they want to bring forward legislation to address issues many people of color have faced with law enforcement officers.
