

SB 1060 needs amended in the House then will be a good bill. Section 1, 1c by the text of the bill will allow hear say which is a constitutional violation in a criminal action in the courts. The text states “testimony from witnesses indicating that the person alleged” which needs clarified to meet constitutional muster. Look forward the amended clarified bill from the House upon its return to the Senate.