OREGON STATE LEGISLATURE
900 COURT ST NE SALEM, OREGON 97301

June 29, 2020

Timothy G. Sekerak,
Chief Clerk of the House
State Capitol Building, H271
Salem, OR 97301
Re: Vote Explanation on SB 1604

Mr. Sekerak:

Recently I voted “aye” on Senate Bill 1604, which modifies the process for an arbitration award to ensure disciplinary action imposed by an agency is consistent with a discipline matrix resulting from a collective bargaining agreement involving misconduct. This bill has passed the Senate multiple times and has been worked on through many sessions, and will lead to better management of discipline within our police agencies.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in blue ink that reads 'Gary Leif'. The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first name 'Gary' being more prominent than the last name 'Leif'.
