

SB 202 may or may not be a good idea. Despite the statements of the Carrier there was no testimony listed in OLIS. There was no testimony written or verbal from DHS the theoretical proponent. Again, no testimony on the witness list. Again, no written testimony. The House Committee needs to require DHS testimony then place into the record the intent of the bill. Again, may be good but simply no guidance in the record.