

Senator Thomsen – Vote explanation on SB 479

I support the bill's concept because I am deeply concerned about employees' rights. After talking to colleagues though, I agreed that switching to five years is too much of a stretch because at four years, we keep the window of time consistent with a lot of other statutes of limitation.