

SB 53 is intended to help ensure the integrity of the elections process. The definitions in the text of the bill conflicted with the Carrier and other Speakers on the Floor. Exactly what was defined as “member of household” along with which was the appropriate statute to utilized was debated. The impact was unclear, therefore, cast a No vote with hopes of clarity being addressed in the House of Representatives in favor of a stronger statutory reference.