

Vote Explanation SB 53:

Definition of a “member of household” is not consistent within Oregon law. It is also not clearly defined within this bill. This bill also gives the Secretary of State more authority, which is not necessary.