

SB 592 updates and addresses repeat offenders regarding work places. However, it raises the minimum fines over a thousand percent with no latitude to the regulator. The agencies actions during the political pandemic was less than stellar. Future legal actions will created serious liability for the agency and state. SB 592 should be amended in the House to have a reasonable and flexible minimum fine.