

SB 808 places more undue authority in the Attorney General whom should be appointed by the Governor. This is a continued consolidation of power by a “sole” person in the Executive Branch whom then claims to represent every member and employee of the Judicial Branch and Executive Branch as well. The Oregon Constitution allegedly requires separation of power for which the Attorney General does not believe in at all. SB 808 is bad policy.