

SB 812 should allow local control over ground launch from its parks. However, setting three exceptions in the law for utilities and government itself. It sets no review process for citizens. Can be banned completely without due process. Good idea for local control but not without standardized implementation procedures with no state set exemptions.