NRA-TV to feature Rep. Post on hyper-partisan threat to Oregonians safety

SALEM, Ore.—Oregon Democrats have captured national attention for extreme legislation to disarm Oregonians and criminalize firearms ownership and most importantly, threaten the safety of Oregonians. State Rep. Bill Post, R-Keizer, will be on the National Rifle Association's (NRA) Cam & Company with Cam Edwards. Viewers can watch the broadcast at NRATV.com at 2:45 pm PT.

Post released the following statement:

"I look forward to appearing on NRATV to discuss my concern for Oregonian's safety which is in jeopardy should these bills pass."
