CITY OF SALEM, OREGON

(THE CAPITAL CITY)

V. E. KUHN, Mayor

April 30, 1935.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McMullen
Hermiston, Oregon

My dear Mr. and Mrs. McMullen:

Fully realizing that no words of mine can allay the sorrow that is in your hearts at the present time over the loss of your beloved son, Floyd McMullen, I, however, sincerely hope that the knowledge of the high esteem and respect that Floyd enjoyed in the minds of those who knew him, and which I can convey to you, will help in some small measure.

Floyd was a splendid example of American youth, and I have always found him respectful, obedient and devoted to any trust imposed upon him. His cheerful disposition and friendly ways, endeared him to everyone with whom he came in contact. It was my extreme pleasure to have had Floyd in the Salem Fire Department for some time, and I could not help being impressed with his sterling worth and character.

The loss of your son, particularly, a son who has been so diligent and applicable in his desire to improve himself, and in his respect and admiration for his parents and others, cannot help but weight heavily upon you, and I hope that the fact that Floyd was such a sterling character that he contributed materially to the lives of those with whom in his brief span he came in contact, will be a solace to you, in this, your hour of bereavement.

To know him was to love and respect him, and I trust that you will permit me to extend at this time my sincerest sympathy, personally, and also on behalf of the boys of the Salem Fire Department at the loss of your beloved son, Floyd.

Yours in sympathy,

Chief of the Salem Fire Department.
